Here We Go Simon Hart,2016-08-01 For Everton FC the 1980s were the most successful decade in the club s history It was a time when Wembley became a second home for Howard Kendall s band of brothers as they stepped out from Liverpool s long shadow to take their neighbours mantle as the country s best team winning two league titles an FA Cup and the European Cup Winners Cup In Here We Go Simon Hart interviews some of the Blues best loved players from that era along with the most controversial and the unsung heroes too to provide a vivid colourful portrait of a period when a group of unheralded young footballers came together to achieve something special with a rare intoxicating mix of raw talent and team spirit The players featured include Kevin Ratcliffe Adrian Heath Gary Lineker Pat van den Hauwe Mark Higgins Kevin Richardson Paul Power and Pat Nevin along with Colin Harvey Kendall s No2 during the glory days and subsequently manager himself by the decade s end Thirty years on from Everton s last championship winning campaign of 1986 87 they remember the Wembley highs and heartbreaks and the epic derby duels in an age when Merseyside for all its troubles stood at the very forefront of English football They also recall the boozy nights the bold pranks and the bad haircuts and their recollections capture just what it meant to be a footballer in a dramatic decade for the English game Together they explain not only the Blues rise to greatness but the decline that gradually set in after their European exile they also offer a nostalgia laden celebration of the team building skills of the man who made it possible the late great Howard Kendall PFA Player's Records 1946-2015 Barry J.
