1517 Peter Marshall, 2017-07-25 Martin Luther's posting of the 95 Theses to the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg on 31 October 1517 is one of the most famous events of Western history It inaugurated the Protestant Reformation and has for centuries been a powerful and enduring symbol of religious freedom of conscience and of righteous protest against the abuse of power But did it actually really happen In this engagingly written wide ranging and insightful work of cultural history leading Reformation historian Peter Marshall reviews the available evidence and concludes that very probably it did not The theses posting is a myth And yet Marshall argues this fact makes the incident all the more historically significant In tracing how and why a non event ended up becoming a defining episode of the modern historical imagination Marshall compellingly explores the multiple ways in which the figure of Martin Luther and the nature of the Reformation itself have been remembered and used for their own purposes by subsequent generations of Protestants and others in Germany Britain the United States and elsewhere As people in Europe and across the world prepare to remember and celebrate the 500th anniversary of Luther's posting of the theses this book offers a timely contribution and corrective The intention is not to debunk or to belittle Luther's achievement but rather to invite renewed reflection on how the past speaks to the present and on how all too often the present creates the past in its own image and likeness
