Nice Book African Philosophy Education Reconsidered Being:

African Philosophy of Education Reconsidered Yusef Waghid, 2013-07 In this book Yusef Waghid considers an African philosophy of education guided by communitarian reasonable and culture dependent action in order to bridge the conceptual and practical divide between African ethnophilosophy and scientific African philosophy Unlike those who argue that African philosophy of education cannot exist because it does not invoke reason or that reasoned African philosophy of education is just not possible Waghid suggests an African philosophy of education constituted by reasoned culture dependent action

Ta'arruf as a Philosophy of Muslim Education Yusef Waghid, 2021-01-14 In this book Yusef Waghid constitutes his argument in defence of ta arruf associational knowing as an expanded conception of ta dib good education In the first part of the book he elucidates Abu Bakr Effendi s position on a Muslim educational philosophy which can be couched as rational pragmatic and critical As a backdrop to this in the second part of the book he argues for a notion of Muslim educational philosophy according to ta arruf associational knowing on the basis that it enhances the notion of an autonomous self and its capabilities summons different people to engage in deliberative encounters and provokes the self to be reflectively open towards that which remains in becoming This leads him to posit that ta arruf associational knowing has the potential to cultivate humanity His notion of ta arruf extends practices of tarbiyyah rearing ta lim learning and ta dib good education associated with Muslim educational philosophy

Rethinking the African Philosophy of Education Kijika M Billa, 2024-04-08 The African Union AU declared 2024 the year of Education with the motto Educate an African fit for the 21 st Century Building resilient education systems for increased access to inclusive lifelong quality and relevant learning in Africa In response this book delves into issues plaguing African education and proposes some solutions The book attempts to attune African education towards the integration of African cultural values with contemporary societal demands It draws inspiration from the writings and teachings of the late Professor Bernard Nsokika Fonlon a foremost Cameroonian philosopher literary luminary and public intellectual to explore the foundational features of African philosophy of education outlining the four fold dimensions of education from a Fonlonian perspective Topics covered include the physical aesthetic intellectual and moral dimensions as well as judicious conservative progressivism in African education Through an eclectic approach the book constructively brings into conversation African conceptions of education with other philosophical foundations of education to make a case for genuine education as a revolutionary tool for a better and dynamic African community In this book Kijika Billa argues that Afropessimism can be defeated It takes courage first expressed by Fonlon in what I have learned from reading this book to be his visionary works and now laid out by Billa himself herein that there is only one way any society lifts itself up from grim levels of societal decay and that is through carefully defined educational system with clear goals which become the goals of the overall national aspiration and objective around which everything else coalesces D A Masolo PhD Professor of Philosophy distinguished University Scholar at the University of Louisville This book accentuates significant themes of integrating philosophy of education with African education systems from a Fonlonian perspective Bernard Nsokika Fonlon s advocacy for a holistic morally integrous and culturally rich education is presented as a visionary framework for transcending current educational limitations aiming to cultivate wise ethical and engaged citizens Kijika Billa offers a brilliant integrated approach which calls for a reimagined resilient education system that deeply reflects African values and aspirations preparing individuals for meaningful contributions to the continent s development Yusef Waghid DEd PhD DPhil Emeritus Professor of Philosophy of Education Stellenbosch University This book constitutes a springboard in the direction of proper African cultural context of education or Africanization of educational values Remi Prospero Fonka PhD Senior Lecturer Catholic University of Cameroon Bamenda It is gratifying to see Kijika Billa a young and emerging scholar take up Fonlon s challenge on the need for genuine intellectuals steeped in African cultural philosophies of education as dynamic products of a world in perpetual motion Fonlon could have wished for no better in intergenerational intellectual conversations Francis B Nyamnjoh Professor of Social Anthropology University of Cape Town

Towards an Ubuntu University Yusef Waghid, Judith Terblanche, Lester Brian Shawa, Joseph Pardon Hungwe, Faiq Waghid, Zayd Waghid, 2023-04-19 This book explores the argument to reconsider the idea of a university in light of the African ethic of ubuntu literally human dignity and interdependence The book discusses through the context of higher education discourse of philosophy and comparative education how global universities have evolved into higher educational institutions concerned with knowledge re production for various end purposes that range from individual autonomy to public accountability to serving the interests of the economy and markets The question can legitimately be asked Is an ubuntu university different from an entrepreneurial university thinking university and ecological university While these different understandings of a university accentuate both the epistemological and moral imperatives in relation to itself and the societies in which they manifest it is through the ubuntu university that emotivism in the forms of dignity and humaneness will enhance a university's capacity for autonomy responsibility and criticality This book would be of academic interest to university educators and students in philosophy of education comparative education and cultural studies

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Schools and Religion Jo Fraser-Pearce, James W. Fraser, 2023-09-21 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Schools and Religion provides the first truly global scan of contemporary issues and debates around the world regarding the relationships between the state schools and religion Organized around specific contested issues from whether or not mindfulness should be practised in schools to appropriate and inappropriate religious attire in schools to long term battles about evolution sexuality and race to public funding Fraser Pearce and Fraser carefully curate chapters by leading experts exploring these matters and others in a diverse range of national settings The Bloomsbury Handbook of Schools and Religion offers a refreshingly new international perspective

Democracy and Education Reconsidered Jim Garrison, Stefan Neubert, Kersten Reich, 2015-12-22 Democracy and Education Reconsidered highlights the continued relevance of John Dewey's Democracy and Education while also examining the need to reconstruct and re contextualize Dewey's educational philosophy for our time The authors propose ways of revising Dewey's thought in light of the challenges facing contemporary education and society and address other themes not touched upon heavily in Dewey's work such as racism feminism post industrial capitalism and liquid modernity As a final component the authors integrate Dewey's philosophy with more recent trends in scholarship including pragmatism post structuralism and the works of other key philosophers and scholars

The Emergence of Teacher Education in Zambia Brendan P. Carmody, 2020-05-01 This book offers a detailed history of the development of teacher education in Zambia Also analysed is the nature of education offered at different times and how the teacher and his/her education reflect this arguing the need for a fundamentally new philosophy of education and a mode of teacher formation in line with it

Comparative Education for Global Citizenship, Peace and Shared Living through uBuntu, 2022-06-08 There is a dire need today to create spaces in which people can make meaning of their existence in the world abiding by cultural frameworks and practices that acknowledge and validate a meaningful existence for all People are not just isolated individuals but are connected in diverse ways with other persons within our natural and social environment which is part of the whole universe The African philosophy of uBuntu or humaneness is re emerging for its timely relevance and potential as indispensable in our quest for global citizenship peace and mutual understanding in securing sustainable human development in the broader ecosystem Comparative educationists have the challenge to devise theoretical frameworks epistemological and pedagogical constructs as well as pragmatic useful and effective ways of promoting the virtues of compassion and recognition of our common humanity in eliminating the ills of domination and control that are guided by greed hatred jealousy and intolerance Comparative Education for Global Citizenship Peace and Shared Living through Ubuntu paves the way for a better understanding of the critical importance of the collective search and endeavor towards achieving the virtues of nonviolence peace shared values of living together global citizenship improved quality of life for all and a better appreciation of the positive implications of interdependence Animals and African Ethics Kai Horsthemke, 2015-07-21 The claim is frequently made on behalf of African moral beliefs and practices that they do not objectify and exploit nature and natural existents like Western ethics does This book investigates whether this is correct and what kind of status is reserved for other than human animals in African ethics Reimagining Utopias Iveta Silova, Noah W. Sobe, Alla Korzh, Serhiy Kovalchuk, 2017-07-13 Reimagining Utopias explores the shifting social imaginaries of post socialist transformations to understand what happens when the new and old utopias of post socialism confront the new and old utopias of social science This peer reviewed volume addresses the theoretical methodological and ethical dilemmas encountered by researchers in the social sciences as they plan and conduct education research in post socialist settings as well as disseminate their research findings Through an interdisciplinary inquiry that spans the fields of education political science sociology anthropology and history the book explores three broad questions How can we re imagine research to articulate new theoretical insights about post socialist education transformations in the context of globalization How can we re imagine methods to pursue alternative ways of producing knowledge And how can we navigate various ethical dilemmas in light of academic expectations and fieldwork realities Drawing on case studies conceptual and theoretical essays autoethnographic accounts as well as synthetic introductory and conclusion chapters by the editors this book advances an important conversation about these complicated questions in geopolitical settings ranging from post socialist Africa to Eastern Europe and Central Asia The contributors not only expose the limits of Western conceptual frameworks and research methods for understanding post socialist transformations but also engage creatively in addressing the persisting problems of knowledge hierarchies created by abstract universals epistemic difference and geographical distance inherent in comparative and international education research This book challenges the readers to question the existing education narratives and rethink taken for granted beliefs theoretical paradigms and methodological frameworks in order to reimagine the world in more complex and pluriversal ways Heritage Knowledge in the Curriculum Joyce E. King, Ellen E. Swartz, 2018-04-27 Moving beyond the content integration approach of multicultural education this text powerfully advocates for the importance of curriculum built upon authentic knowledge construction informed by the Black intellectual tradition and an African episteme By retrieving examining and reconnecting the continuity of African Diasporan heritage with school knowledge this volume aims to repair the rupture that has silenced this cultural memory in standard historiography in general and in PK 12 curriculum content and pedagogy in particular This ethically informed curriculum approach not only allows students of African ancestry to understand where they fit in the world but also makes the accomplishments and teachings of our collective ancestors available for the benefit of all King and Swartz provide readers with a process for making overt and explicit the values actions thoughts and behaviors reflected in an African episteme that serves as the foundation for African Diasporan sociohistorical phenomenon events With such knowledge teachers can conceptualize curriculum and shape instruction that locates people in all cultures as subjects with agency whose actions embody their ongoing cultural legacy
