Tiberghien, 2014-01-01 A retrospective catalog featuring vintage prints as well as recent unpublished work by an internationally acclaimed photographer This retrospective catalog features vintage prints as well as recent unpublished work by internationally acclaimed photographer Josef Koudelka b 1938 A leading member of the photo agency Magnum co founded by his close friend Henri Cartier Bresson Koudelka has been a legend since the publication of his unforgettable eyewitness photographs taken during the invasion of Czechoslovakia by Soviet led troops in 1968 In addition to Invasion and Exiles Koudelka s most ambitious project Gypsies is featured with the complete set of twenty two prints first exhibited in 1967 Koudelka s impressive imagery is accompanied here by five essays that provide a thorough understanding of and appreciation for this outstanding artist willfully independent and reclusive despite his renown More Matter John Updike, 2009-02-19 In this collection of nonfiction pieces John Updike gathers his responses to nearly two hundred invitations into print each an opportunity to make something beautiful to find within oneself a treasure that would otherwise remain buried Introductions reviews and humorous essays paragraphs on New York religion and lust here is more matter commissioned by an age that as the author remarks in his Preface calls for real stuff not for the obliquities and tenuousities of fiction Still the novelist s shaping hand his gift for telling detail can be detected in many of these literary considerations Books by Edith Wharton Dawn Powell John Cheever and Vladimir Nabokov are incisively treated as are biographies of Isaac Newton Abraham Lincoln Queen Elizabeth II and Helen Keller As George Steiner observed Updike writes with a solicitous almost tender intelligence The critic and the poet in him are at no odds with the novelist the same sharpness of apprehension bears on the object in each of Updike s modes Flashback, Eclipse Romy Golan, 2021-11-02 From a leading art historian a provocative exploration of the intersection of art politics and history in 1960s Italy Flashback Eclipse is a groundbreaking study of 1960s Italian art and its troubled but also resourceful relation to the history and politics of the first part of the twentieth century and the aftermath of World War II Most analyses have treated the 1960s in Italy as the decade of presentism par excellence a political decade but one liberated from history Romy Golan however makes the counterargument that 1960s Italian artists did not forget Italian and European history but rather reimagined it in oblique form Her book identifies and explores this imaginary through two forms of nonlinear and decidedly nonpresentist forms of temporality the flashback and the eclipse In view of the photographic and filmic nature of these two concepts the book s analysis is largely mediated by black and white images culled from art design and architecture magazines photo books film stills and exhibition documentation The book begins in Turin with Michelangelo Pistoletto s Mirror Paintings moves on to Campo urbano a one day event in the city of Como and ends with the Vitalit del Negativo exhibition in Rome What is being recalled and at other moments occluded are not only episodes of Italian nationalism and Fascism but also various liberatory moments of political and cultural resistance The book

s main protagonists are in order of appearance artists Michelangelo Pistoletto and Gioetta Fioroni photographer Ugo Mulas Ettore Sottsass as critic rather than designer graphic designer Bruno Munari curators Luciano Caramel and Achille Bonito Oliva architect Piero Sartogo Carla Lonzi as artist as much as critic filmmakers Michelangelo Antonioni and Bernardo Bertolucci and in flashback among the departed painter Felice Casorati writer Massimo Bontempelli art historian Aby Warburg architect Giuseppe Terragni and Renaissance friar philosopher mathematician Giordano Bruno as patron saint of the sixty eighters
