Horton, Justin McLendon, 2025-06-01 Edited by Joshua M Greever D A Horton and Justin McLendon Let Justice Flow Like Water addresses the strained relationship between social justice the gospel and the mission of the church In response to the misuse of Scripture to promote personal ends the volume reorients the conversation around justice and centers it in the biblical text and its theological implications The authors provide practical wisdom and points of application to pastors ministry leaders and students The authors examine the most frequently cited texts on biblical justice through a coherent biblical and systematic theological method The result is a glimpse into God s heart for justice and his desire for humanity especially the church to share this heart The volume s theology is supplemented by practical guidance to pastors so that they can lead their churches to embrace the gospel and social justice properly understood Let Justice Flow Like Water serves as an irenic reminder to pastors students and educated lay people to return to the biblical text to understand it more accurately and to reengage and understand one another in a winsome fashion for the sake of the gospel the mission of the church and the glory of God The Promise Land Chris Oyakhilome PhD., 1997-01-09

Pentecostalism is a growing movement in world Christianity However the growth of Pentecostalism in South Africa has faced some challenges including the abuse of religion by some prophets This book first names these prophets and the churches they lead in South Africa and then makes use of literary and media analysis to analyse the religious practices by the prophets in relation to cultism Additionally the book analyses the celebrity cult and how it helps promote the prophets in South Africa The purpose of this book is threefold First to draw parallels between the abuse of religion and cultism Second to illustrate that it is cultic tendencies including the celebrity cult that has given rise to many prophets in South Africa Last to showcase that the challenge for many of these prophets is that the Pentecostal tradition is actually anti cultism and thus there is a need for them to rethink their cultic tendencies in order for them to be truly relevant in a South African context The Christian

Pastors Harry N Agina,2010-03-15 When I left Nigeria as a boy for the USA in search of the proverbial greener pastures there was Christianity and there was the African Culture in Nigeria both of which I had grown up in Christianity fed me with the word of God while my African Culture made me desirably and proudly different from a white man an Indian Mexican or Asian That was many years ago in the mid1900s Today when I visit my little remote African village to enjoy some of the cultural values that I have missed so much while in the western world my brethren in the village tell me that the culture is no more Indeed the entire Christian community of Nigeria seems to be heading towards the notion that the African Culture is suddenly out of fashion The people s excuse is that they have seen the light in their new wave Christianity Some traditionalists are not taking the culture abuse lying down and with their fire for fire response to the Christian zealots there is truly a war of cultures in Nigeria I am right in the middle of it and this is my story I must prepare my reader s mind for my general hardnosed criticism of Nigerian Commercial Church in this story I lament that too many Christians are willfully making mischief and a whole lot of money all in the name of God I am a devout Christian and would never advertently say one bad word against Christianity or any religion for that matter My grouse is with the growing number of mischievous funky pastors their zombie like followers their gross misinterpretation of the Holy Bible and the war that they have declared against the African Culture One might even say that my criticism is venomous but I call it brutally frank or frankly brutal

Heinrich Bullinger on Prophecy and the Prophetic Office (1523-1538) Daniël Timmerman,2015-02-18 It has often been noted that the Protestant Reformation of the early sixteenth century witnessed a revived interest in the scriptural notions of prophets and prophecy Drawing from both late medieval apocalyptic expectations of the immanent end of the world and from a humanist revival of biblical studies the prophet appeared to many as a suitable role model for the Protestant preacher A prominent proponent of this prophetic model was the Swiss theologian and church leader Heinrich Bullinger 1504 1575 This study by Daniël Timmerman presents the first in depth investigation of Bullinger s concept of prophecy and his understanding of the prophetic office It also engages with the history of the Zurich institute for the study of the Scriptures which has become widely known as the Prophezei

The Final Prophecy of Jesus Oral E. Collins, 2007-06-01 This commentary is the first major work on the book of Revelation in many years that expounds the historicist interpretation. The historicist school of interpretation was the dominant approach from Reformation times through most of the nineteenth century. The reasons for the current disaffection are too complex to address in a few words, but it is the author's conviction that from the standpoint of sound principles of biblical hermeneutics, the historicist interpretation is still the most creditable approach for an accurate understanding of this the last book of the Bible and the final prophecy of Jesus.

Power in Contemporary Zimbabwe Erasmus Masitera, Fortune Sibanda, 2018-04-20 In recent years the Zimbabwe crisis rendered the country and its citizens to be a typical case of failed states. The world over, Zimbabwean society was and is still confronted with different challenges which include political, economic, and social problems. Attempts to overcome these challenges have thrown light on the power that rests within individuals and/or groups to change and even revolutionize their localities, communities, states, and ultimately the world at large. Through experience, individuals and groups have promoted ideas that have aided in changing mentalities, attitudes, and behaviors in societies at different levels. This book brings together contributors from various academic disciplines to reflect on and theorize the contours of power, including the intrinsic and/or extrinsic models of power which pertain to individuals, communities, and/or groups in order to transform society. Reflections are on various groups such as political movements, environmental movements, religious groups, advocacy groups, gender groups, to mention but a few, as they struggle against marginalization, discrimination, exploitation, and other forms of oppression, showing their agency or compliance.

Prophets, Profits and the Bible in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Masiwa Ragies Gunda, Joachim Kügler, 2014-04-17 The Islamic Antichrist Joel Richardson, 2009 In The Islamic Antichrist, Joel Richardson exposes Western readers to the traditions of Islam and predicts that the end times may not be far away. His book will stun readers unaware of the similarities between the Antichrist and the Islamic Jesus. His research on the relationship between Christian end-time prophecy and Islamic expectations of world domination will shock readers and shape the debate over radical Islam for years to come. This is the book to read to understand Islam's potential role in fulfilling the prophecies of the Bible. Page 2 of cover
