Patricia Va a California , Desert Christians William Harmless, 2004-06-17 In the fourth century the deserts of Egypt became the nerve center of a radical new movement what we now call monasticism Groups of Christians from illiterate peasants to learned intellectuals moved out to the wastelands beyond the Nile Valley and in the famous words of Saint Athanasius made the desert a city In so doing they captured the imagination of the ancient world They forged techniques of prayer and asceticism of discipleship and spiritual direction that have remained central to Christianity ever since Seeking to map the soul's long journey to God and plot out the subtle vagaries of the human heart they created and inspired texts that became classics of Western spirituality These Desert Christians were also brilliant storytellers some of Christianity's finest This book introduces the literature of early monasticism It examines all the best known works including Athanasius Life of Antony the Lives of Pachomius and the so called Sayings of the Desert Fathers Later chapters focus on two pioneers of monastic theology Evagrius Ponticus the first great theoretician of Christian mysticism and John Cassian who brought Egyptian monasticism to the Latin West Along the way readers are introduced to path breaking discoveries to new texts and recent archeological finds that have revolutionized contemporary scholarship on monastic origins Included are fascinating snippets from papyri and from little known Coptic Syriac and Ethiopic texts Interspersed in each chapter are illustrations maps and diagrams that help readers sort through the key texts and the richly textured world of early monasticism Geared to a wide audience and written in clear jargon free prose Desert Christians offers the most comprehensive and accessible introduction to early monasticism The Sounds of Early Cinema Richard Abel, Rick R.
