investigation is distinguished by a critical consideration of cross cultural theories of nationalism and the illuminating use of a broad range of data from Mexican culture and history including interviews with contemporary indigenous intellectuals and students an analysis of public school textbooks and information gathered from indigenous organizations Gutierrez argues that the modern Mexican state is buttressed by pervasive nationalist myths of foundation descent and heroism These myths expressed and reinforced through the manipulation of symbols public education and political discourse downplay separate ethnic identities and work together to articulate an overriding nationalist ideology The ideology girding the Mexican state has not been entirely successful however This study reveals that indigenous intellectuals and students are troubled by the relationship between their nationalist and ethnic identities and are increasingly questioning official policies of integration
