Paul Gauguin Dario Gamboni, 2014-09-15 French artist Eug ne Henri Paul Gauguin 1848 1903 once reproached the Impressionists for searching around the eye and not at the mysterious centre of thought But what did he mean by this enigmatic phrase In this innovative investigation into Gauguin's art and thought Dario Gamboni illuminates Gauguin's quest for this mysterious centre and offers a fresh look at the artist s output in all media from ceramics and sculptures to prints paintings and his large corpus of writings Foregrounding Gauguin's conscious use of ambiguity Gamboni unpacks what the artist called the language of the listening eye Gamboni shows that the interaction between perception cognition and imagination was at the core of Gauguin's work and he traces a line of continuity in them that has been previously overlooked Emulating Gauguin's wide ranging curiosity with literature psychology theology and the natural sciences not to mention the whole of art history this richly illustrated book provides new insight into the life and works of this well known yet little understood artist Gauguin's Challenge Norma Broude, 2018-03-08 Several decades have now passed since postcolonial and feminist critiques presented the art historical world with a demythologized Paul Gauguin 1848 1903 a much diminished image of the artist hero who had once been universally admired as the father of modernist primitivism In this volume both long established and more recent Gauguin scholars offer a provocative picture of the evolution of Gauguin scholarship in the recent postmodern era as they confront and consider how the dismantling of the longstanding Gauguin myth positions us now in the 21st century to deal with and assess the life work and legacy of this still perennially popular artist To reassess the challenges that Gauguin faced in his own day as well as those that he continues to present to current and future scholarship they explore the multiple contexts that influenced Gauguin's thought and behavior as well as his art and incorporate a variety of interdisciplinary approaches from anthropology philosophy and the history of science to gender studies and the study of Pacific cultural history Dealing with a wide range of Gauguin's production they challenge conventional art historical thinking highlight transnational perspectives and offer clues to the direction of future scholarship as audiences worldwide seek to make multicultural peace with Gauguin and his art Broude has raised the bar of Gauguin scholarship ever higher in this groundbreaking volume which will be necessary reading for students and scholars of art history late 19th century French and Gauguin Gloria Lynn Groom, 2017-01-01 An unprecedented exploration of Pacific culture gender studies and beyond Gauguin's works in various media from works on paper to clay and furniture Paul Gauguin 1848 1903 was a creative force above and beyond his legendary work as a painter Surveying the full scope of his career spanning experiments in different media and formats clay works on paper wood and paint as well as furniture and decorative friezes this volume delves into his enduring interest in craft and applied arts reflecting on their significance to his creative process Gauguin Artist as Alchemist draws on extensive new research into the artist s working methods presenting him as a consummate craftsman one whose transmutations of the ordinary yielded new and remarkable forms Beautifully designed and illustrated this book includes essays by an international team of scholars who offer a rich analysis of Gauguin's oeuvre beyond painting By embracing other art forms which offered fewer dominant models to guide his work Gauguin freed himself from the burden of artistic precedent In turn these groundbreaking creative forays especially in ceramics gave new direction to his paintings The authors insightful emphasis on craftsmanship deepens our understanding of Gauguin's considerable achievements as a painter draftsman sculptor ceramist and printmaker within the history of modern art Getty Research Journal, No. 13 Gail Feigenbaum, 2021-03-09 The Getty Research Journal features the work of art historians museum curators and conservators around the world as part of Getty's mission to promote the presentation conservation and interpretation of the world's artistic legacy Articles present original scholarship related to Getty collections initiatives and broad research interests This issue features essays on a Parthian stag rhyton and new epigraphic and technical discoveries gendered devotion and owner portraits in illuminated manuscripts from northern France around 1300 a technical analysis of heraldic devices in a missal from Renaissance Bologna a new social and collective practice of drawing among French architect pensionnaires of the 1820s and 1830s at Pompeii artist Malvina Hoffman's representations of race during her travels to Southeastern Europe as part of her work with the American Yugo Slav Relief Raimundo de Madrazo y Garreta s painting Reverie The Letter and the small world sensation as a methodology for global art history arguments that disprove the attribution of the I Paul Getty Museum's sculpture Head with Horns to artist Paul Gauguin Head with Horns and Gauguin's creative appropriation of objects and the unpublished first draft of critic Clement Greenberg's essay Towards a Newer Gauguin Belinda Thomson, 2021-04-06 This authoritative account of the life and work of Paul Gauguin one of Laocoon the most original artists of the late nineteenth century is revised and updated with color illustrations throughout Artist Paul Gauguin achieved a high public profile during his lifetime and was one of the first artists of his generation to achieve international recognition But his prominence has always been tangled up with the dramatic and problematic events of his life his self imposed exile on a remote South Sea island and his turbulent relationships with his peers as with the appeal of his art In this revised and updated edition art historian Belinda Thomson gives a comprehensive and accessible account of the life and work of one of the most complicated artists of the late nineteenth century Gauguin's painting sculpture prints and ceramics are discussed in the light of his public persona his relations with his contemporaries his exhibitions and their critical reception His private world beliefs and aspirations emerge through his extensive cache of journals letters and other writings Fully illustrated in color and drawing on the new more global conversation surrounding the artist Gauguin is the definitive volume on this controversial and often contradictory figure Gauguin and Polynesia Nicholas Thomas, 2024-02-01 Paul Gauguin is commonly regarded as one of the greatest modern artists He is renowned for resplendent mythic imagery from Oceania for a life of restless travel and for his supposed immersion in Polynesian life But he has long been regarded ambivalently and in recent years both Gauguin's sexual behaviour and his paintings have been considered exploitative Gauguin and Polynesia offers a fresh view on the artist not from the perspective of European art history but from the contemporary vantage point of the region Oceania which he so famously moved to Gauguin s art is revealed for the first time to be richer and more eclectic than has been recognised. The artist indeed did invent enigmatic and symbolic images but he also depicted Polynesia's colonial modernity acknowledging the life of the time and the dignity and power of some of the Islanders he encountered Gauquin and Polynesia neither celebrates nor condemns an extraordinary painter who at times denounced and at other times affirmed the French empire that shaped his own life and the places he moved between It is a revelation of a formative artist of modern life and of multicultural worlds in the making Tales Linda Goddard, 2019-09-03 An original study of Gauguin's writings unfolding their central role in his artistic practice and negotiation of colonial identity As a French artist who lived in Polynesia Paul Gauguin 1848 1903 occupies a crucial position in histories of European primitivism This is the first book devoted to his wide ranging literary output which included journalism travel writing art criticism and essays on aesthetics religion and politics It analyzes his original manuscripts some of which are richly illustrated reinstating them as an integral component of his art The seemingly haphazard collage like structure of Gauguin's manuscripts enabled him to evoke the primitive culture that he celebrated while rejecting the style of establishment critics Gauguin's writing was also a strategy for articulating a position on the margins of both the colonial and the indigenous communities in Polynesia he sought to protect Polynesian society from civilization but remained implicated in the imperialist culture that he denounced This critical analysis of his writings significantly enriches our understanding of the complexities of artistic encounters in the French colonial context Publisher's description Dark Tovs David Hopkins, 2021-01-01 A wide ranging look at surrealist and postsurrealist engagements with the culture and imagery of childhood We all have memories of the object world of childhood For many of us playthings and images from those days continue to resonate Rereading a swathe of modern and contemporary artistic production through the lens of its engagement with childhood this book blends in depth art historical analysis with sustained theoretical exploration of topics such as surrealist temporality toys play nostalgia memory and 20th century constructions of the child The result is an entirely new approach to the surrealist tradition via its engagement with childish things Providing what the author describes as a long history of surrealism this book plots a trajectory from surrealism itself to the art of the 1980s and 1990s through to the present day It addresses a range of figures from Marcel Duchamp Giorgio de Chirico Max Ernst Hans Bellmer Joseph Cornell and Helen Levitt at one end of the spectrum to Louise Bourgeois Eduardo Paolozzi Claes Oldenburg Susan Hiller Martin Sharp Helen Chadwick Mike Kelley and Jeff Koons at the other On Modern Beauty Richard R. The Brain-Eye Eric Alliez, 2015-12-11 A detailed and inventive study of the thinking at work in modern painting drawing on a formidable body of scholarly evidence to challenge modernist and phenomenological readings of art history The Brain Eye presents a series of interlinked case studies in which philosophical thought encounters the hallucinatory sensations unleashed by painter researchers Rather than outlining a new philosophy of art The Brain Eye details the singular problems pursued by each of its protagonists Striking readings of the oeuvres of Delacroix Seurat Manet Gauguin and C zanne recount the plural histories of artists who worked to free the differential forces of colour discovered by Goethe in his Colour Theory in the name of a true hallucination and of a logic proper to the Visual A rigorous renewal of the philosophical thinking of visual art The Brain Eye explores the complex relations between concept and sensation theory and practice the discursive and the visual and draws out the political and philosophical stakes of the aesthetic revolution in modern painting Van Gogh's Bedrooms Louis van Tilborgh, David J. disciplines and which made shared knowledge seem unattainable A crisis of sense made art and science look for conceptual foundations underlying the diverging subjective responses and perceptions of individuals Unlike other studies of this period Pop s focus is not on how individual artists may have absorbed bits of scientific theories but rather on the philosophical questions that were relevant to both domains The problem of subjectivity in particular of what in one s experience can and cannot be shared was crucial to the possibility of collaboration within science and to the communication of artistic innovation Pop s brilliant close readings of the literary and visual practices of Manet and Mallarm of drawings by Ernst Mach William James and Wittgenstein of experiments with color by Bracquemond and Van Gogh and of the philosophical systems of Frege and Russell add up to a startling but coherent picture of the symbolist heritage of modernity and its consequences

Landscape and Earth in Early Modernity Christine Göttler, Mia Mochizuki, 2025-10-01 Early modern views of nature and the earth upended the depiction of land Landscape emerged as a site of artistic exploration at a time when environments and ecologies were reshaped and transformed This volume historicizes the contingency of an ever changing elemental world reframing and reimagining landscape as a mediating space in the interplay between the natural and the artificial the real and the imaginary the internal and the external The lens of the unruly reveals the latent landscapes that undergirded their conception the elemental resources that resurfaced from the bowels of the earth the staged topographies that unsettled the boundaries between nature and technology and the fragile ecologies that undermined the status quo of human environs Landscape and Earth in Early Modernity Picturing Unruly Nature argues for an art history attentive to the vicissitudes of circumstance and attributes the regrounding of representation during a transitional age to the unquiet landscape
