Into the Heart of European Poetry John Taylor, 2017-07-05 John Taylor's brilliant new book examines the work of many of the major poets who have deeply marked modern and contemporary European literature. Venturing far and wide from the France in which he has lived since the late 1970s, the polyglot writer-critic not only delves into the more widely translated literatures of Italy, Greece, Germany, and Austria but also discovers impressive and overlooked work in Slovenia, Bosnia, Hungary, Finland, Norway, and the Netherlands, in this book that ranges over nearly all of Europe, including Russia. While providing this stimulating and far-ranging critical panorama, Taylor brings to light key themes of European writing: the depth of everyday life, the quest of the thing-in-itself, metaphysical aspiration and anxiety, the dialectics of negativity and affirmation, subjectivity and self-effacement, and uprootedness as a category that is as ontological as it is geographical, historical, political, or cultural. The book pays careful attention to the intersection of writing and history or politics, as several poets featured here have faced the Second World War, the Holocaust, Communism, the fall of Communism, or the war in the former Yugoslavia. Taylor gives the work of renowned, upcoming, and still little-known poets a thorough look, all the while scrutinizing recent translations of their verse. He highlights several poets who are also masters of the prose poem. He includes a few novelists who have fashioned a particularly original kind of poetic prose, that stylistic category that has proved so difficult for critics to define. Into the Heart of European Poetry should be of immediate interest to any reader curious about the aesthetic and philosophical ideas underlying major trends of contemporary European writing. In a day and age when much too little is translated and thus known about foreign literature, and when Europeans themselves are pondering the common denominators of their own culture, this book is a

W.G. Sebald's Artistic Legacies Leonida Kovac, Christa-Maria Lerm Hayes, Ilse Rijn, Ihab Saloul, 2025-10-01 When the mind turns more than one would wish towards questions of as W.G. Sebald puts it, the natural history of destruction, comparative consideration by artists and interdisciplinary scholars is directed to the interstices between images, novel, essay, auto biography, memorial, and travelogue. Artists have been among Sebald's most prolific interpreters, as they are among the more fearless and holistic researchers on questions concerning what it means never to be able to fix an identity, to tell a migrant's story, or to know where a historical trauma ends. Sebald has, as this book attests, also given artists and scholars a means to write with images, to embrace ambiguity, and to turn to today's migrants with empathy and responsibility, as well as to let academic research, creation, and institutional engagement blend into or substantially inform one another in order to account for and enable such necessary work in the most diverse contexts.

W.G. Sebald's Hybrid Poetics Lynn L. Wolff, 2014-04-02 This book offers a new critical perspective on the perpetual problem of literature's relationship to reality, and in particular on the sustained tension between literature and historiography. The scholarly and literary works of W.G. Sebald (1944–2001) serve as striking examples for this discussion, for the way in which they demonstrate the emergence of a new hybrid discourse of literature as historiography. This book critically reconsiders the claims and aims of historiography by re evaluating core questions of the literary discourse and by assessing the ethical imperative of literature in the 20th and 21st centuries Guided by an inherently interdisciplinary framework this book elucidates the interplay of epistemological aesthetic and ethical concerns that define Sebald s criticism and fiction Appropriate to the way in which Sebald s works challenge us to rethink the boundaries between discourses genres disciplines and media this work proceeds in a methodologically non dogmatic way drawing on hermeneutics semiotics narratology and discourse theory In addition to contextualizing Sebald within postwar literature in German the book is the first English language study to consider Sebald s uvre as a whole Of interest for Sebald experts and enthusiasts literary scholars and historians concerned with the problematic of representing the past Ghostwriting Richard T.

Gray,2017-11-16 Ghostwriting provides the first comprehensive analysis of the fictional prose narratives of one of contemporary Germany s most recognized authors the migr writer W G Sebald Examining Sebald s well known published texts in the context of largely unknown unpublished works and informed by documents and information from Sebald s literary estate this book offers a detailed portrait of his characteristic literary techniques and how they emerged and matured out of the practices and attitudes he represented in his profession as a literary scholar The title Ghostwriting signals the convergence in Sebald s works of a set of diverse historical questions philosophical views and literary practices Many historical ghosts haunt Sebald s narratives on the level of story Moreover Sebald s narrator plays the role of a ghostwriter in the profound sense that his stories fictionally re enact the histories of obscure but once living individuals whose lives they revitalize and whose fates are tied up with the most virulent historical conjunctures of the modern world This study thus seeks to comprehend the constitutive elements of Sebald s poetics of history his implementation of literary tools for effective historical memorializing Late Europeans and Melancholy Fiction at the Turn of the Millennium Ian

Ellison,2022-04-01 This book is the first comparative study of novels by Patrick Modiano W G Sebald and Antonio Mu oz Molina Drawing on many literary figures movements and traditions from the Spanish Golden Age to German Romanticism to French philosophy via Jewish modernist literature Ian Ellison offers a fresh perspective on European fiction published around the turn of the millennium Reflecting on what makes European fiction European this book examines how certain novels understand themselves to be culturally and historically late expressing a melancholy awareness of how the past and present are irreconcilable Within this framework however it considers how backwards facing tradition oriented self consciousness burdened by a sense of exhaustion in European culture and the violence of its past may yet suggest the potential for re enchantment in the face of obsolescence Literature and Meat Since 1900 Seán McCorry,John Miller,2019-10-29 This collection of essays centers on literary representations of meat eating bringing aesthetic questions into dialogue with more established research on the ethics and politics of meat From the decline of traditional animal husbandry to the emergence of intensive agriculture and the biotechnological innovation of in vitro meat the last hundred years have seen dramatic changes in meat production Meat consumption has risen substantially inciting the emergence of new forms of political subjectivity such as the radical rejection of meat production in veganism Featuring essays on both canonical and lesser known authors Literature and Meat Since 1900 illustrates the ways in which our meat regime is shaped reproduced and challenged as much by cultural and imaginative factors as by political contestation and moral reasoning Trauma and Guilt Susanne Vees-Gulani,2008-08-22 This book analyzes postwar literary works on large area bombings of German cities both in the context of trauma theory and questions of guilt and shame about Germany's Nazi past embedding the recent debate surrounding the air war of World War II and its influence on German culture in a broader historical societal and psychological context The Ethics of Forgiveness Christel Fricke,2013-03-01 We are often pressed to forgive or in need of forgiveness Wrongdoing is common Even after a perpetrator has been taken to court and punished forgiveness still has a role to play How should a victim and a perpetrator relate to each other outside the courtroom and how should others relate to them Communicating about forgiveness is particularly urgent in cases of civil war and crimes against humanity inside a community where if there were no forgiveness the community would fall apart Forgiveness is governed by social and in particular by moral norms Do those who ask to be forgiven have to fulfil certain conditions for being granted forgiveness And what does the granting of forgiveness consist in We may feel like refusing to forgive those perpetrators who have committed the most horrendous crimes But is such a refusal justified even if they repent their crimes Could there be a duty for the victim to forgive Can forgiveness be granted by a third party Under which conditions may we forgive ourselves The papers collected in the present volume address all these questions exploring the practice of forgiveness and its normative constraints Topics include the ancient Chinese and the Christian traditions of forgiveness the impact of forgiveness on the moral dignity and self respect of the victim self forgiveness the narrative of forgiveness as well as the limits of forgiveness Such limits may arise from the personal historical or political conditions of wrongdoing or from the emotional constraints of the victims Germans as Victims in the Literary Fiction of the Berlin Republic Stuart Taberner,Karina Berger,2009 An opening section on the 1950s a decade of intense literary engagement with German victimhood before the focus shifted to German perpetration provides context drawing parallels but also noting differences between the immediate postwar period and today The second section focuses on key texts written since the mid 1990s and examines shifts in perspectives on the Nazi past on perpetration and victimhood on ordinary Germans and on the balance between historical empathy and condemnation BOOK JACKET Untying Things Together Eric L. Santner,2022-04-05 In 1905 Freud published his Three Essays on the Theory of Sexuality the book that established the core psychoanalytic thesis that sexuality is central to formations of the unconscious Inverting Freud's title Eric Santner here takes up the sexuality of theory or more exactly its sex appeal the modes of enjoyment to be found in the kinds of critical thinking that since the 1960s have laid claim to that ancient word theory Untying Things Together is both an intellectual history of major theoretical paradigms and a call for their reexamination and renewal in light of the postcritical turn away from them Santner organizes this intellectual history autobiographically as the story of his own encounters and involvements with key theorists and theoretical projects He thereby shows that to reduce these theoretical projects to so many exercises in a hermeneutics of suspicion a move associated with certain post critique authors is to miss what is most vital most alive indeed life changing about them It is to miss the gay science they elaborate Santner s explorations yield new ways of accounting for the sublime object of theory the libidinal charge it carries for those susceptible to its charms

Creaturely Forms in Contemporary Literature Dominic O'Key,2022-01-13 We are living through a period of planetary crisis a time in which the mass production and consumption of some animals is made possible by the mass extinction of many others What is the role of literature in responding to this war against animals How might literary criticism read for animals In Creaturely Forms in Contemporary Literature Dominic O Key develops the bold argument that deep attention to literary form enables us to rethink human animal relations Through chapters on W G Sebald J M Coetzee and Mahasweta Devi as well as close readings of works by Arundhati Roy and Richard Powers O Key reveals how literary forms can unsettle the fictions of human supremacy and craft alternative creaturely forms of relation An intervention into both the humanism of literary theory and the representational focus of animal studies this provocative work makes the case for a new formalism in light of our obligation to fellow creatures Born Under Auschwitz

German Ecocriticism in the Anthropocene Caroline Schaumann,Heather I. Sullivan,2017-04-18 This book offers essays on both canonical and non canonical German language texts and films advancing ecocritical models for German Studies and introducing environmental issues in German literature and film to a broader audience This volume contextualizes the broad ranging topics and authors in terms of the Anthropocene beginning with Goethe and the Romantics and extending into twenty first century literature and film Addressing the growing need for environmental awareness in an international humanities curriculum this book complements ecocritical analyses emerging from North American and British studies with a specifically German Studies perspective opening the door to a transnational understanding of how the environment plays an integral role in cultural political and economic issues

Narrating the Past A. Robinson,2011-10-04 In recent years controversy has surrounded the narrative turn in history and the historical turn in fiction This book clarifies what is at stake tracing connections between historiography and life writing arguing that the challenges posed in representing the past illuminate issues which are central to all literary narrative

Expatriate Writing Gerhard Fischer,2009 This volume presents the work of internationally renowned scholars from Australia Germany Italy South Africa the UK and the US The focus on W G Sebald s writing as that of an expatriate author offers a fresh and productive approach to Sebald scholarship In one way or another all 28 essays in this innovative bi lingual collection take up the notion of Sebald s experience as an expatriate writer be it in the analysis of intertextual transmedial and generic border crossings on the exposure to the other and the experience of alterity on the question of identity construction and performance on affinities with other expatriate writers on the recurring topics of home exile dislocation and migration or on the continuing work of memory to work through and to preserve the consciousness of a destructive past that has informed the childhood as much as the adult life world of the author Gerhard Fischer is Head of German Studies at the University of New South Wales in Sydney Australia His research interests and publications are in modern theatre and drama World War I and migration history and multiculturalism As convenor of the Sydney German Studies Symposia he has edited a number of volumes on modern German literature including Heiner Müller ConTEXTS and HISTORY T bingen 1995 Debating Enzensberger Great Migration and Civil War T bingen 1996 and with David Roberts Schreiben nach der Wende Ein Jahrzehnt deutscher Literatur 1989 1999 2nd ed T bingen 2008 The latest volume in the series is The Play within the Play with Bernhard Greiner Amsterdam New York NY 2007

Sebald's Bachelors Helen Finch, 2017-12-02 Why do queer bachelors and homosexual desire haunt the works of the German writer W G Sebald 1944 2001 In a series of readings of Sebald's major texts from After Nature to Austerlitz Helen Finch's pioneering study shows that alternative masculinities subvert catastrophe in Sebald's works From the schizophrenic poet Ernst Herbeck to the alluring shade of Kafka in Venice the figure of the bachelor offers a form of resistance to the destructive course of history throughout Sebald's critical and literary writing Sebald's poetics of homosexual desire trace a line of flight away from the patriarchal and repressive order of German society which in Sebald's view led to the disasters of Nazism This study shows that the potential for subversion personified by Sebald's solitary males is essential for understanding his celebrated work while also demonstrating the contribution that Sebald made to the German tradition of queer writing Helen Finch is Academic Fellow in German at the University of Leeds

Sebald's Vision Carol Jacobs, 2015-10-20 W G Sebald's writing has been widely recognized for its intense nuanced engagement with the Holocaust the Allied bombing of Germany in WWII and other episodes of violence throughout history Through his inventive use of narrative form and juxtaposition of image and text Sebald's work has offered readers new ways to think about remembering and representing trauma In Sebald's Vision Carol Jacobs examines the author's prose novels and poems illuminating the ethical and aesthetic questions that shaped his remarkable oeuvre Through the trope of vision Jacobs explores aspects of Sebald's writing and the way the author's indirect depiction of events highlights the ethical imperative of representing history while at the same time calling into question the possibility of such representation Jacobs's lucid readings of Sebald's work also consider his famous juxtaposition of images and use of citations to explain his interest in the vagaries of perception Isolating different ideas of vision in some of his most noted works including Rings of Saturn Austerlitz and After Nature as well as in Sebald's interviews poetry art criticism and his lecture Air War and Literature Jacobs introduces new perspectives for understanding the distinctiveness of Sebald's work and its profound moral implications

The Worlds of Elias Canetti William Collins Donahue, Julian Preece, 2009-03-26

Though he died in the last decade of the twentieth century the satirist social thinker memoirist and dramatist Elias Canetti lives on into the present Testifying to the author's undeniable cultural afterlife the essays gathered together here represent a wide swath of the latest Canetti scholarship Contributors examine Canetti's Jewish identity the Marxist politics of his youth his influence on writers as diverse as Bachmann Jelinek and Sebald the undiscovered poetry of his literary testament Nachlass his status as a self-cancelling satirist and his complex and sometimes ambivalent citation of Chinese and French cultural icons In addition this volume presents a treatment of Canetti as philosopher as contributor to the great debate on the genesis of violence as a chronicler of the WWII exile experience as well as a personal reminiscence by one of the great Canetti scholars of our time Gerald Stieg The Worlds of Elias Canetti challenges conventional wisdom about this Nobel laureate and opens up new areas to scholarly investigation The Worlds of Elias Canetti convenes diverse disciplinary perspectives on one of the most enigmatic and ambidextrous authors of the twentieth century An internationally renowned team of scholars places Canetti's social thought and literary oeuvre within intriguing new contexts highlighting as yet underexplored connections within areas such as philosophy Jewish Studies cultural anthropology literary intertextuality and beyond Compellingly this volume introduces us to a Canetti we have not yet known and one who equally belongs to the twenty-first century In its scope and originality The Worlds of Elias Canetti sets a new standard and not just for Canetti scholarship Jochen Vogt Professor of German Literature University of Essen

German Culture and the Uncomfortable Past Helmut Schmitz, 2017-07-05 Beginning with the question of the role of the past in the shaping of a contemporary identity this volume spans three generations of German and Austrian writers and explores changes and shifts in the aesthetics of Vergangenheitsbewältigung coming to terms with the past The purpose of the book is to assess contemporary German literary representations of National Socialism in a wider context of these current debates The contributors address questions arising from a shift over the last decade triggered by a generation change questions of personal and national identity in Germany and Austria and the aesthetics of memory One of the central questions that emerges in relation to the Hitler youth generation is that of biography as examined through Günter Grass and Martin Walser's conflicting views on the subject of National Socialism Other themes explored here are the conflict between the post-war generations and the contributions of that conflict to West German mentality and the growing historical distance and its influence on the aesthetics of representation

Landmarks in the German Novel Peter Hutchinson, Michael Minden, 2007 The nine essays in this volume deal with major achievements in the German novel since 1959 They range from the very well known such as Brussig's Helden wie wir an extravagant treatment of life under the Stasi and the fall of the Berlin Wall to the much more recondite such as Hubert Fichte's Detlevs Imitationen Gr nspan one of the first and most important products of the abolition of the discrimination against gays in 1969 What is most surprising about this collection is that in contrast to the majority of successful novels written in German before 1959 only one of these is by a clearly West German author Hubert Fichte There is by contrast a surprising number who have their roots in the GDR Plenzdorf Wolf Brussig Schulze or in Austria Bachmann Bernhard This is also a period in which women writers emerge powerfully Bachmann Wolf and zdamar Virtually all these novels aroused controversy in some quarters at the time of their publication often for their treatment of semi taboo or at least uncomfortable subject matter These essays all by specialists in the relevant field were originally delivered as lectures in the University of Cambridge
