understanding of Iranians and their culture The fall of Nahavand in 642 CE marked the end of a glorious fourteenth century history of Iran a fascinating and dynamic history spanning the years from 700 BCE to 700 CE For two centuries thereafter a brutally long chilling silence cast its shadow over the history and language of Iran Professor Zarinkoob explores the reason behind the Sasanian downfall and how the uncouth Bedouins triumphed over an immense and glorious civilization such as that During these two centuries about which our recent historians have remained silent why did Farsi become a lost language obscure and traceless In the time when Iranian swordsmen revolted against the Arabs under any pretext fighting the Arabs and Muslims how did Zoroastrian priests argue and debate in the light of knowledge and wisdom against the Muslim faith Finally why a book that tells the tale of a most turbulent period of Iran's history is titles Two Centuries of Silenceand not Two Centuries of Chaos and Uproar Prof Zarinkoob's colorful narrative unravels these mysteries through Iranian eyes and is delivered here only as they may An Encounter with Dylan Thomas Ebrahim Golestan, 2022-09-27 Abadan 1951 Iran and Britain are bracing for battle over the continued British monopoly of Iran s oil Twenty nine year old Ebrahim Golestan who was to become a towering figure in Iranian cinema and literature encounters Dylan Thomas the famous Welsh poet who died two years later at the age of thirty nine from bronchial disease and pneumonia More for his celebrity than an intimate knowledge of the subject Thomas had been sent to Iran by the Anglo Iranian Oil Company to write a script for a propaganda film about the company's supposedly salutary role in the country But for a few hours Golestan and Thomas pause amidst the escalating standoff between their two countries and speak candidly about poetry history philosophy and the perils of translation Published here for the first time is the English translation with facing pages in the original Persian of Golestan's unflinching portrayal of that encounter revealing all too clearly how unsuited Thomas was for the task in hand Accompanying the translation is an account of Thomas s time in Iran written by Abbas Milani Director of the Iranian Studies Program at Stanford University together with Alina Utrata a Ph D candidate and Gates Cambridge scholar Based on the poet's letters journals and archival material in England and Wales it helps to shed further light on an episode long shrouded in mystery and plagued by controversy Publication of this book coincides with the hundredth birthday in October 2022 of Ebrahim Golestan To mark the occasion Professor Milani has included a personal and erudite introductory essay on Golestan's life and work examining his pioneering approach to film and his important contribution to Iranian literature despite living in exile for most of his adult life With a filmography and selected bibliography of the works by or about Golestan this multifaceted volume offers not only a striking commentary on Iranian arts politics and history set against the tense backdrop of the impending geopolitical clash between Britain and Iran but also a commemoration of the work of one of the most eminent and influential representatives of Iranian culture in modern times Arabic Literary Culture, 500-925 Michael Cooperson, Shawkat M.
