Nail 'Em! Eric Dezenhall, 2009-12-04 This fascinating expos provides sobering insights on how falsehoods and distortions can play a role in determining what issues wind up taking center stage in our culture you can help change the system Former Surgeon General C Everett Koop We're gonna nail 'em That's the threat made against Eric Dezenhall's clients usually corporations and well known people by aggressors trying to launch media hyped smear campaigns and attacks because they feel they've been wronged or just because they want publicity From Pepsi and ValuJet to Michael Ovitz and Kathy Lee Gifford businesses and celebrities today are finding themselves the front line targets of attacks by the headline seekers the news media corporate stalkers disgruntled former employees individuals looking for a few minutes of fame and many others And it's crisis managers like Dezenhall who step in to reduce the damage fight the bad publicity and sometimes even turn the wave of negative opinion on the attackers themselves Nail 'Em is an exploration of the personalities conflicts and motivations involved in such attacks and Dezenhall's unique communications approach to slowing preventing and reversing such situations While illustrating that these attacks are not merely communications problems but real conflicts that can only be stopped when the aggressor is placed in jeopardy the author examines the psychology of the attacker notorious recent cases his personal experiences facts versus falsehoods the role of the news media and the popularity of victims in contemporary America Nail 'Em lays out a blueprint for reclaiming the public's good favor while erasing the attacker's allegations Eric Dezenhall is a founding partner of Nichols Dezenhall a Washington DC firm that oversees hard news media relations crises and marketplace assaults A graduate of Dartmouth College he also served in Ronald Reagan's White House Office of Communications

Social Media and Integrated Marketing Communication Jeanne M. Persuit, 2013-07-18 Social Media and Integrated Marketing Communication A Rhetorical Approach explores social media in the areas of corporate identity brand narratives and crisis response from a rhetorical perspective Key ideas in this text are social media as epideictic rhetoric the rhetorical setting that deals with the present and matters of virtue and education and how rhetorical decorum a component of Cicero's third Canon of Style can guide organizations and their audiences toward more ethical and effective integrated marketing communication IMC This strategy emphasizes changing behavior not just attitudes Because social media leaves traces of communication that may be with us for the foreseeable future Social Media and Integrated Marketing Communication frames the conversation about social media and IMC to move away from a risk reward or a return on investment orientation and toward a focus on social media as communicative action that is attentive to this historical moment to organizations and their audiences and to communication ethics Through this Persuit asks how organizations can engage in decorum in their online IMC efforts while at the same time considering how their audiences can engage in decorum as well Neither romanticizing nor demonizing the areas of social media and IMC instead this text offers a pragmatic understanding of these areas that finds a place in the theory of the communication discipline All Crises are Global Marion
