Narrative Form Suzanne Keen, 2015-07-28 This revised and expanded handbook concisely introduces narrative form to advanced students of fiction and creative writing with refreshed references and new discussions of cognitive approaches to narrative nonfiction and narrative emotions

The Routledge Companion to Narrative Theory Paul Dawson, Maria Mäkelä, 2022-07-18 The Routledge Companion to Narrative Theory brings together top scholars in the field to explore the significance of narrative to pressing social cultural and theoretical issues How does narrative both inform and limit the way we think today From conspiracy theories and social media movements to racial politics and climate change future scenarios the reach is broad This volume is distinctive for addressing the complicated relations between the interdisciplinary narrative turn in the academy and the contemporary boom of instrumental storytelling in the public sphere The scholars collected here explore new theories of causality experientiality and fictionality challenge normative modes of storytelling and offer polemical accounts of narrative fiction nonfiction and video games Drawing upon the latest research in areas from cognitive sciences to complexity theory the volume provides an accessible entry point for those new to the myriad applications of narrative theory and a point of departure for new scholarship

Empathy and Reading Suzanne Keen, 2022-06-23 This pioneering collection brings together Suzanne Keen's extensive body of work on empathy and reading charting the development of narrative empathy as an area of inquiry in its own right and extending cross disciplinary conversations about empathy evoked by reading The volume offers a brief overview of the trajectory of research following the 2007 publication of Empathy and the Novel with empathy understood as a suite of related phenomena as stimulated by representations in narratives The book is organized around three thematic sections theories empathetic readers and interdisciplinary applications each preceded by a short framing essay The volume features excerpts from the author's seminal works on narrative empathy and makes available her harder to access contributions The book brings different strands of the author's research into conversation with existing debates with the aim of inspiring future interdisciplinary research on narrative empathy This book will be of interest to students and scholars in such fields as literary studies cognitive science emotion studies affect studies and applied contexts where empathetic practitioners work

New Approaches to the Twenty-First-Century Anglophone Novel Sibylle Baumbach, Birgit Neumann, 2019-12-20 This book discusses the complex ways in which the novel offers a vibrant arena for critically engaging with our contemporary world and scrutinises the genre's political ethical and aesthetic value Far reaching cultural political and technological changes during the past two decades have created new contexts for the novel which have yet to be accounted for in literary studies Addressing the need for fresh transdisciplinary approaches that explore these developments the book focuses on the multifaceted responses of the novel to key global challenges including migration and cosmopolitanism posthumanism and ecosickness human and animal rights affect and biopolitics human cognition and anxieties of inattention and the transculturality of terror By doing so it testifies to the ongoing cultural relevance of the genre Lastly it examines a range of 21st century Anglophone novels to encourage new critical discourses in literary studies

Narrative Theory Kent Puckett, 2016-11-07 Kent Puckett's Narrative Theory: A Critical Introduction provides an account of a methodology increasingly central to literary studies film studies history psychology and beyond In addition to introducing readers to some of the field's major figures and their ideas Puckett situates critical and philosophical approaches towards narrative within a longer intellectual history The book reveals one of narrative theory's founding claims that narratives need to be understood in terms of a formal relation between story and discourse between what they narrate and how they narrate it both as a necessary methodological distinction and as a problem characteristic of modern thought Puckett thus shows that narrative theory is not only a powerful descriptive system but also a complex and sometimes ironic form of critique Narrative Theory offers readers an introduction to the field's key figures methods and ideas and it also reveals that field as unexpectedly central to the history of ideas

Sources and Interpretation in Ancient Judaism Meron Piotrkowski, Geoffrey Herman, Saskia Doenitz, 2018-07-17 Sources and Interpretation in Ancient Judaism: Studies for Tal Ilan at Sixty a collection of studies by 14 scholars is designed to honor an outstanding scholar in the field of Ancient Judaism Tal Ilan These studies reflect realms within the broad field of Ancient Judaism that are central to Ilan's scholarship Second Temple literary sources and history Gender Jewish papyrology and rabbinic literature The studies within this volume are of an interdisciplinary nature offering new readings and interpretations of known sources such as Josephus and rabbinic texts but also introducing the reader to an entirely new body of sources namely Jewish papyri The volume therefore aims to introduce specialists and non specialists to new fields of research

Emotions and Everyday Nationalism in Modern European History Andreas Stynen, Maarten Van Ginderachter, Xosé Manoel Núñez Seixas, 2020-04-28 This volume examines how ideas of the nation influenced ordinary people by focusing on their affective lives Using a variety of sources methods and cases ranging from Spain during the age of Revolutions to post World War II Poland it demonstrates that emotions are integral to understanding the everyday pull of nationalism on ordinary people

The Power of Parables, 2023-11-07 The Power of Parables documents the surprising ways in which Jewish and Christian parables bridge religion with daily life This 2019 conference volume rediscovers the original power of parables to shock and affect their audience which has since been reduced by centuries of preaching and repetition Not only do parables enhance the perspective on Scripture or the kingdom of heaven they also change the sensory regime of the audience in perceiving the outer world The theological differences in their applications appear secondary in view of their powerful rhetoric and suggest a shared genre

Cosmopolitan Strangers in US Latinx Literature and Culture Esther Álvarez-López, Andrea Fernández-García, 2023-03-30 This book presents a study of the figure of the stranger in US Latinx literary and cultural forms ranging from contemporary novels through essays to film and transborder art activism The focus on this abject figure is twofold first to explore its potential to expose the processes of othering to which Latinxs are subjected and second to foreground its epistemic response to neocolonial structures and beliefs Thus this book draws on relevant sociological literature on the stranger to unveil the political and social processes behind the recognition of Latinxs as out of place On the other hand and most importantly this volume follows the path of neo cosmopolitan approaches to bring to the fore processes of interrelatedness interaction and conviviality that run counter to criminalizing discourses around Latinxs Through an engagement with these theoretical tenets the goal of this book is to showcase the role of the Latinx stranger as a cosmopolitan mediator that transforms walls into bridges

New Forms of Self-Narration Ana Belén Martínez García, 2020-08-21 This book is a timely study of young women's life writing as a form of human rights activism It focuses on six young women who suffered human rights violations when they were girls and have gone on to become activists through life writing Malala Yousafzai Hyeonseo Lee Yeonmi Park Bana Alabed Nujeen Mustafa and Nadia Murad Their ongoing life writing projects diverge to some extent but all share several notable features they claim a testimonial collective voice they deploy rights discourse they excite humanitarian emotions they link up their context bound plight with bigger social justice causes and they use English as their vehicle of self expression and self construction This strategic use of English is of vital importance as it has brought them together as icons in the public sphere within the last six years New Forms of Self Narration is the first ever attempt to explore all these activists life writing texts side by side encompassing both the written and the audiovisual material online and offline and taking all texts as belonging to a unique single though multifaceted project

A Short Media History of English Literature Ingo Berensmeyer, 2022-08-01 This book explores the history of literature as a history of changing media and modes of communication from manuscript to print from the codex to the computer and from paper to digital platforms It argues that literature has evolved and continues to evolve in sync with material forms and formats that engage our senses in multiple ways Because literary experiences are embedded in and enabled by media the book focuses on literature as a changing combination of material and immaterial features The principal agents of this history are no longer genres authors and texts but configurations of media and technologies In telling the story of these combinations from prehistory to the present Ingo Berensmeyer distinguishes between three successive dominants of media usage that have shaped literary history performance representation and connection Using English literature as a test case for a long view of media history this book combines an unusual bird's eye view across periods with illuminating readings of key texts It will prove an invaluable resource for teaching and for independent study in English or comparative literature and media studies

Football in Fiction Lee McGowan, 2019-09-26 Football in Fiction represents the most comprehensive historical mapping and analysis of novels related to association football soccer It offers a theoretically informed field guide a scholarly cartography of football fiction's uncertain and until now only partially explored terrain

Combining an extensive search for texts with up to date academic research journals surveys catalogues and reviews the book demonstrates a topographic perspective of the field one that captures and establishes its breadth depth and distinctive identity The book uses and adapts two distinct reading models of abstraction in conjunction with closer textual analyses Together they assist in realising a set of demonstrable conventions outline a taxonomy of fictive types establish the genre s current state of play and advance the football novel as a form with its own literary history and traditions This book is a valuable resource for those studying and researching in the areas of the social and cultural aspects of football sports fiction sports writing creative writing and literary and genre studies Furthermore related industry professionals will find this a fascinating read particularly football writers fans of the sport and those interested in sports history and cultural phenomena

Contemporary Educational Researches: Theory and Practice in Education Nevide Akpınar Dellal, Susanne Koch, 2019-12-21 Contemporary Educational Researches Theory and Practice in Education A Companion to Literary Theory David H. Richter, 2018-03-19 Introduces readers to the modes of literary and cultural study of the previous half century A Companion to Literary Theory is a collection of 36 original essays all by noted scholars in their field designed to introduce the modes and ideas of contemporary literary and cultural theory Arranged by topic rather than chronology in order to highlight the relationships between earlier and most recent theoretical developments the book groups its chapters into seven convenient sections I Literary Form Narrative and Poetry II The Task of Reading III Literary Locations and Cultural Studies IV The Politics of Literature V Identities VI Bodies and Their Minds and VII Scientific Inflections Allotting proper space to all areas of theory most relevant today this comprehensive volume features three dozen masterfully written chapters covering such subjects as Anglo American New Criticism Chicago Formalism Russian Formalism Derrida and Deconstruction Empathy Affect Studies Foucault and Poststructuralism Marx and Marxist Literary Theory Postcolonial Studies Ethnic Studies Gender Theory Freudian Psychoanalytic Criticism Cognitive Literary Theory Evolutionary Literary Theory Cybernetics and Posthumanism and much more Features 36 essays by noted scholars in the field Fills a growing need for companion books that can guide readers through the thicket of ideas systems and terminologies Presents important contemporary literary theory while examining those of the past The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Literary Theory will be welcomed by college and university students seeking an accessible and authoritative guide to the complex and often intimidating modes of literary and cultural study of the previous half century The Lukan Passion Narrative Jay M. Harrington, 2000-01-01 This volume offers a detailed chronological and systematic history of the debate surrounding Luke s use of Mark s Gospel and special sources in a section of the passion narrative concluding with an exegesis of Lk 23 6 16 as a testing ground of material derived from the survey An extensive bibliography and useful appendices round out the volume

North Carolina Slave Narratives William L. Andrews, David A. Davis, Tarnpathia Evans, Ian Frederick Finseth, Andreá N. Williams, 2006-05-26 The autobiographies of former slaves contributed powerfully to the abolitionist movement in the United States fanning national even international indignation against the evils of slavery The four texts gathered here are all from North Carolina slaves and are among the most memorable and influential slave narratives published in the nineteenth century The writings of Moses Roper 1838 Lunsford Lane 1842 Moses Grandy 1843 and the Reverend Thomas H Jones 1854 provide a moving testament to the struggles of enslaved people to affirm their human dignity and ultimately seize their liberty Introductions to each narrative provide biographical and historical information as well as explanatory notes Andrews s general introduction to the collection reveals that these narratives not only helped energize the abolitionist movement but also laid the groundwork for an African American literary tradition that inspired such novelists as Toni Morrison and Charles Johnson

Babel Samuel L. Boyd, 2023-06-20 In Babel Political Rhetoric of a Confused Legacy Samuel L Boyd offers a new reading of the Tower of Babel in Genesis 11 1 9 Using recent insights on the rhetoric of Neo Assyrian politics and its ideology of governance as well as advances in biblical studies Boyd shows how the Tower of Babel was not originally about a tower Babylon or the advent of multilingualism at least in the earliest phases of the history and literary context of the story Rather the narrative was a critique against the Assyrian empire using themes of human overreach found in many places in Genesis 1 11 Boyd clarifies how idioms of Assyrian governance could have found their way into the biblical text and how the Hebrew of Genesis 11 1 9 itself leads to a different translation of the passage than found in versions of the Bible one that does not involve language This new reading sheds light on how the story became about language Boyd argues that this new understanding of Babel also illuminates aspects of the call of Abram when the Tower of Babel is interpreted as a story about something other than the origin of multilingualism Finally he frames the historical critical research on the biblical passage and its reception in ancient Jewish Christian and Islamic sources with the uses of the Tower of Babel in modern politics of language and nationalism He demonstrates how and why Genesis 11 1 9 has become so useful in often detrimental ways to the modern nation state Boyd explores this intellectual history of the passage into current events in the twenty first century and offers perspectives on how a new reading of the Tower of Babel can speak to the current cultural and political moment and offer correctives on the uses and abuses of the Bible in the public sphere
