Narrative Imagination Preaching The Worlds That Shape Us:

Narrative & Imagination Richard L. Eslinger, 1995 Eslinger's book provides a short course on narrative hermeneutics and imagination theory along with a proposal for integrating the two in preaching Kiwimade Narrative Sermons Myk Habets, 2015-01-29 This collection of over forty narrative sermons illustrate the science and art of taking a text of Scripture almost any text and crafting it into a narrative that effectively and affectively communicates the content of Holy Scripture in ways that impact the congregation Spanning the canon of Holy Scripture the present volume represents a snapshot of current preaching by Baptist women and men from Aotearoa New Zealand in an attempt to teach by illustration what narrative sermons may look like and to model the potential they have to communicate God's Word written Originally preached to a diverse range of congregations each sermon has been re-written for publication and illustrates biblical fidelity imaginative creativity and contextual sensitivity Kiwimade Narrative Sermons is a key resource text for classes on homiletics a refresher course for seasoned ministers of the Word and a devotional aid in its own right Preaching Jesus Charles L. Campbell, 2006-09-01 The post liberal cultural linguistic theology of the Yale School has been one of the most important theological developments in the United States during the latter twentieth century In this unique book which combines theological analysis and homiletical reflection Charles Campbell examines post liberal theology as it is embodied in the work of Hans Frei and develops the implications of this theological position for the theory and practice of preaching Arguing that the trouble with homiletics today is fundamentally theological Campbell offers Frei's theological position as a means for enriching the Christian pulpit and renewing the church Pitfalls in Preaching Richard Eslinger, 1996 Richard Eslinger discusses with insight humor and concision what he sees as the most critical pitfalls in the various contexts of preaching and offers practical strategies for avoiding them Apologetics after Lindbeck Jeremiah Gibbs, 2015-11-04 Postmodern challenges to the reliability of Christian belief have left many pastors and theologians wondering whether Christian belief should be rationally defended at all Gibbs investigates this possibility by a case study of postmodern theologian George Lindbeck Lindbeck's modern classic The Nature of Doctrine is a prime example of theology that is both faithful to the church and highly critical of modern conceptions of faith and reason Gibbs's careful analysis of Lindbeck shows a way forward that embraces Christian apologetics while transforming it to answer postmodern criticisms of modern apologetics The result is a sure confidence that the truth of Christian belief is reasonable even if not able to be proven Not only is Christian truth shown reliable Gibbs argues that apologists can and should defend the reliability of the Christian narrative as the most beautiful and good account of the world as well Apologetics after Lindbeck is a transformation of apologetics that calls the church to faithfully form Christians who can tell a beautiful good and true story of the grace of Jesus Christ Preaching Jesus Christ Today Annette Brownlee, 2018-05-15 This book approaches preaching as a theological practice and a spiritual discipline in a way that is engaging straightforward and highly usable for busy preachers Bringing to bear almost three decades of practical experience in the pulpit and the classroom Annette Brownlee explores six questions to help preachers listen to Scripture move from text to interpretation for weekly sermon preparation and understand the theological significance of the sermon Each chapter explains one of the Six Questions of Sermon Preparation provides numerous examples and illustrations and contains theological reflections The final chapter includes sample sermons which put the Six Question method into practice

The Witness of Preaching Thomas G. Long, 2005-01-01 This thorough revision of this classic text is even clearer and more helpful than the first edition Long has updated the language expanded the key chapter on biblical exegesis and has included more examples of sermon forms illustrations and conclusions

Preaching Through Time Casey C. Barton, 2017-07-28 As preachers who come to the pulpit before God and before God's people each and every week how do we make sense of the text as we live a new moment of its ongoing story Most options available to the preacher necessitate a hermeneutical step that requires us to preach outside of time in timeless truths experiences or realities But the gospel is the drama of God appearing to and working with and loving God's people in time Preaching Through Time gives the preacher a timely homiletic for preaching together the times of God's gospel then and now while calling God's people to perform their own roles in today's moment of that gospel drama Anachronism preaching together the moments of God's drama is the language event that will get us from text to timely sermon week by week

Out of Egypt: Biblical Theology and Biblical Interpretation Zondervan, 2011-03-01 Biblical theology attempts to explore the theological coherence of the canonical witnesses no serious Christian theology can overlook this issue The essays in the present volume illustrate the complexity and richness of the conversation that results from attentive consideration of the question In a time when some voices are calling for a moratorium on biblical theology or pronouncing its concerns obsolete this collection of meaty essays demonstrates the continuing vitality and necessity of the enterprise Richard B Hays George Washington Ivey Professor of New Testament The Divinity School Duke University USA This volume on biblical theology jumps into the fray and poses the right kind of questions It does not offer a single way forward Several of the essays are quite fresh and provocative breaking new ground Bray Reno others set out the issues with clarity and grace Bartholomew others offer programmatic analysis Webster Bauckham others offer a fresh angle of view Chapman Martin The success of this series is in facing the challenge of disarray in biblical studies head on and then modeling a variety of approaches to stimulate our reflection Christopher Seitz Professor of Old Testament and Theological Studies St Andrews University UK

Engaging Unbelief Curtis Chang, 2007-11-01 How can we present the truth about Jesus to a world that rejects all truth claims as arbitrary Can we find way to engage in meaningful conversation without appearing arrogant or manipulative Can we witness to the gospel without simply enlisting in the ongoing culture wars Curtis Chang has found a unique way to address these pressing questions of our age He argues that similar challenges confronted Christians at two key moments in church history and stimulated creative responses by two monumental thinkers Augustine AD 413 faced a fragmenting society where pagans accused Christians of causing the mounting social ills afflicting Rome Thomas Aquinas AD 1259 pondered the disorienting Muslim challenge that provoked most medieval Christians to crusade rather than converse Through a careful study of Augustine s City of God and Aquinas s Summa Contra Gentiles Chang argues that both followed a brilliant rhetorical strategy for engaging unbelief Such a captivating strategy is critical in our cultural context where Christian witness seems as difficult as ever Connecting these ancient writers to the contemporary analysis of thinkers like Alasdair MacIntyre James Davison Hunter Lesslie Newbigin and Stanley Hauerwas Chang puts forth his own bold recommendations for Christian rhetoric in the twenty first century This book will be of vital interest to a wide audience Scholars will find a fresh reading of these important texts Pastors and teachers of evangelism and apologetics will discover crucial resources from our Christian past And all Christians seeking a faithful strategy for communicating the gospel will receive inspiration and hope for today That Which They Can't See David Van Brugge,2025-01-20 In this retrieval study David Van Brugge addresses how the current understanding of a homiletical use of imagination for expository preaching might be strengthened The current need for strengthening becomes apparent when the various understandings of imagination and their implications for practical theology are realized This is compounded as trends in homiletics seem to minimize the imagination or embrace it in modern or postmodern ways The original contribution of this study is recognizing that the homiletical use of imagination can be strengthened by retrieving the Puritan baroque characteristics of Jonathan Edwards imagination as evidenced in his sermons to the Stockbridge Indians of 1751 1758 Edwards drew on a rich background to display an imagination that synthesized thoughts and ideas thought beyond the senses and that by the grace of God transformed thought and practice Through that creative thought Edwards maintained Biblical exposition and appeal to the affections Van Brugge further develops and evaluates the idea of Puritan baroque characteristics concluding that it is a helpful characterization of Edwards Stockbridge Indian sermons In these sermons Edwards imaginatively used imagery light space movement and glorification for the ultimate goal of directing the affections of his audience towards God Such a use of imagination for affective purpose becomes a key for the strengthening of a homiletical use of imagination today Transforming Culture Christine Gunn-Danforth,2009-01-01 This book introduces Jonahre a Biblically based Prophetic Imagination cinematic genre Jonahre can be implemented by following a three phase interdisciplinary process that allows production teams to submit their content intent style and format to reflect a Biblical pattern of storytelling and establish an alternative consciousness with the audience When implemented this process creates a powerful tool for transforming culture by combining communication theory and theology into a mold for communicating Spirit filled messages via moving image media The first in a trilogy of Jonahre films will be released November 2009 A Reader on Preaching David Day,2017-09-08 Every Sunday all over the world people rise up and claim to speak in the name of God It is an astonishing thing to do and an astonishing claim to make It is small wonder that the sermon has been the focus of debate discussion and investigation It has been dismissed as irrelevant in today s culture and has become the butt of numerous jokes and caricatures Yet the claim persists that these human words in some way can become God's message to these hearers This collection of twenty nine articles by international experts in the area of homiletics coincides with the revival of interest in preaching over the last twenty five years It is practical without being merely tips for preachers and it offers the necessary theoretical discussion for anyone who wants to take the art of preaching seriously No important issue has been omitted and taken as a whole the book constitutes a first class introduction to the principles processes context and theology of preaching Contributors include Walter Brueggemann David Buttrick Fred Craddock Edward Farley John Killinger Richard Lischer Thomas Long Elaine Lawless Jolyon Mitchell Cheryl Sanders and Thomas Troeger

Metamorphosis Sarah Travis, 2019-07-30 Post Christendom Christian leaders and preachers in North America struggle to respond to anxiety and despair about the future of the church Declining participation fewer resources decreased influence and confusion about pastoral and ecclesial identity lead to fear for the survival of the institutional church Preaching must speak to the despair and confusion faced by congregations today as well as cast a hopeful vision for an uncertain future This book argues that preachers can change the narrative of the church post Christendom by urging an exit from Christendom ecclesiology and promoting the construction of an identity that embraces vulnerability and incarnation instead of power and permanence Counterintuitively failure decrease and marginalization constitute good news for the church Through wide ranging conversation partners including postcolonial theory and theology social science systematic theology and homiletic literature this book engages preachers and scholars who seek to reimagine both gospel and ecclesial identity in order to bring new life to communities in despair Preachers participate in a process of metamorphosis in which the church's self understanding is transformed into a vulnerable incarnate community that leaves behind the character of Christendom

The Four Pages of the Sermon Paul Scott Wilson, 1999 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two

Preaching John Robert Kysar, With this helpful guide preachers can find new and powerful resources for preaching in Johannine language and thought as well as its use of narrative and discourse It combines the practical with proposals for understanding the Gospel and 1 John

Feminist Reconstructions of Christian Doctrine Kathryn Greene-McCreight, 2000-03-09 What is the relationship between feminist theology and classical Christian theology Is feminist theology Christian and if so in what respect and to what extent This study seeks to analyze and evaluate the relation of feminist reconstructions to traditional Christian teaching Greene McCreight uses the extent to which the biblical depiction of God is allowed to guide theological hermeneutics as a test of orthodoxy She looks at the writings of a wide range of contemporary feminist theologians discusses their doctrinal patterns and demonstrates how the Bible is used in undergirding their theological reconstructions

Professional Chaplaincy and Clinical Pastoral Education Should Become More Scientific Larry Van De Creek, 2013-04-03 Does the scientific process belong in pastoral counseling Professional Chaplaincy and Clinical Pastoral Education Should Become More Scientific Yes and No examines the widespread ambivalence among pastoral caregivers and educators over the growing inclusion of science in pastoral care and counseling methodologies Twenty three seasoned professionals in the field give candid and sometimes emotional accounts of their interest in and reservations about the role scientific research plays in their profession Some authors look at the issue from a historical perspective others voice additional concerns A few make concrete proposals on how chaplaincy can become more scientific The result is a unique insight into the relationship between the secular and the religious The question of whether science belongs in pastoral care and counseling is moot pastoral care already makes extensive use of psychological testing and psychotherapeutic skills all products of scientific thinking But as technology becomes more dominant and health care delivery reflects a more corporate perspective pastoral caregivers and educators are divided on whether the changes represent the significant opportunity to improve a ministry or the surrender of the ministry's very essence The essays collected in Professional Chaplaincy and Clinical Pastoral Education Should Become More Scientific Yes and No go a step farther breaking down the issue of faith versus science into more specific questions for pastoral caregivers such as Can what you do be measured Do you have an obligation to embrace the challenge of change Is becoming more scientific a necessity for staying in touch with your health care peers How cost effective is the pastoral care you provide if it doesn't include the scientific process Could a reluctance to incorporate science into your counseling cost you your job Professional Chaplaincy and Clinical Pastoral Education Should Become More Scientific Yes and No presents thoughtful and thought provoking debate that is a must read for all pastoral caregivers and educators

Preaching After God Phil Snider, 2012-08-01 Preaching After God is written for progressive preachers trying to find ways to effectively communicate with those who increasingly identify as the nones i e those who aren't sure what to make of God and or Christianity including those who believe in God some of the time or none of the time or all of the time which Snider tends to think includes all of us some of the time and some of us all of the time By drawing on the insights of several prominent postmodern theologians and philosophers Snider provides possibilities for preaching that highly resonate with postmodern listeners who are often suspect of religion Six lectionary based sermons are included as examples www.philsnider.net

Preaching with Humanity Geoffrey Stevenson, Stephen Wright, 2008 How can old fashioned preaching survive in today's culture How can we preach with humanity not to it or at it Whether you're a new enthusiast or an experienced practitioner this book will help you in the life long process of becoming a preacher with humanity
