Assessment and Data Systems in Early Childhood Settings Claire McLachlan, Tara McLaughlin, Sue Cherrington, Karyn Aspden, 2023-01-01 This book describes the use of data systems in early childhood settings birth to eight years for the purposes of assessment evaluation and curriculum planning It presents an international collection of research examining ways in which teachers and researchers have revisited notions of what constitutes effective assessment revised ways in which they assess children's learning and development and use the knowledge gained for curriculum planning. It offers insights into contemporary research on how teachers and children are engaging with data systems as part of effective assessment and how these approaches influence practice. This book presents recent theorizing and examples of research which have investigated innovative approaches to assessment using data systems in early years settings. It represents both early childhood and junior primary contexts and includes research which focusses on teachers' perspectives and reflections on use of data systems. It also examines research which reflects on what children gain from being involved in these data systems. Year 3 Basic Skills Tests Alan Horsfield, 2006 Revise in a Month

The professional learning framework this book presents is designed to support teachers' understandings of how language functions in their academic disciplines. This framework, a 4 x 4 metalinguistic toolkit, is informed by systemic functional linguistic theory and international educational research on academic and disciplinary literacies. The book shows and explains how teachers have applied specific 4 x 4 toolkits with students in middle school classrooms across a range of subjects for curriculum literacy instruction, assessment and feedback, resulting in substantial growth for their students in high stakes national tests of literacy as well as writing assessments in a number of subjects. In its focus on disciplinary literacies in diverse sociocultural settings, Academic Literacies in the Middle Years responds to contemporary international curricula for English language and literacy and the need for a strong evidence base.
