locations Upstone offers a wide range of examples from other postcolonial authors including Michael Ondaatje Keri Hulme J M Coetzee Arundhati Roy Tsitsi Dangarembga and Abdulrazak Gurnah The result is a strong case for what Upstone terms the postcolonial spatial imagination independent of geography though always fully contextualised Written in accessible and unhurried prose Upstone's study is marked by its respect for the ways in which the writers themselves resist not only geographical boundaries but academic categorisation Deleuze and the Postcolonial Simone Bignall,2010-04-15 This is the first collection of essays bringing together Deleuzian philosophy and postcolonial theory Bignall and Patton assemble some of the world's leading figures in these fields including Reda Bensmaia Timothy Bewes Rey Chow Philip Leonard Nick Nesbitt John K Noyes Patricia Pisters Marcelo Svirsky and Simon Tormey to explore rich linkages between two previously unrelated areas of study They deal with colonial and postcolonial social cultural and political issues in Asia Africa the Americas Australia and Palestine Topics include colonial government nation building and ethics in the contemporary context of globalisation and decolonisation issues relating to resistance transformation and agency and questions of representation and discursive power as practiced through postcolonial art cinema and literature This book constitutes a timely intervention to debates in poststructuralist postcolonial and postmodern studies It will be of interest to students in cultural studies cinema and film studies languages and literature political and postcolonial studies critical theory social and political philosophy is Professor of English Literature in the Department of Foreign Languages University of Bergen and coordinator in the north of the research project Understanding Postcolonialism Jane Hiddleston, 2014-12-05 Postcolonialism offers challenging and provocative ways of thinking about colonial and neocolonial power about self and other and about the discourses that perpetuate postcolonial inequality and violence Much of the seminal work in postcolonialism has been shaped by currents in philosophy notably Marxism and ethics Understanding Postcolonialism examines the philosophy of postcolonialism in order to reveal the often conflicting systems of thought which underpin it In so doing the book presents a reappraisal of the major postcolonial thinkers of the twentieth century Ranging beyond the narrow selection of theorists to which the field is often restricted the book explores the work of Fanon and Sartre Gandhi Nandy and the Subaltern Studies Group Foucault and Said Derrida and Bhabha Khatibi and Glissant and Spivak Mbembe and Mudimbe A clear and accessible introduction to the subject Understanding Postcolonialism reveals how almost half a century after decolonisation the complex relation between politics and ethics continues to shape postcolonial thought Local Cosmopolitanism Kristof Van Assche, Petruta Teampău, 2015-05-15 This book offers a unique perspective on cosmopolitanism examining the ways it is constructed and reconstructed on the small scale in an ongoing process of matching the local with the global a process entailing mutual transformation Based on a wide range of literatures and a series of case studies it analyzes the different versions and functions of cosmopolitanism and points to the need to critically re examine current conceptions of globalization The book first illustrates the interplay between networks and narratives in the construction of cosmopolitan communities in three specific cities Trieste Odessa and Tbilisi Each has a past more cosmopolitan than the present and each uses that cosmopolitan past to guide them towards the future Next the book focuses on narrative dynamics by isolating several discourses on the cosmopolitan place and figure in European cultural history It then goes on to detail the internal representations and local functions of larger wholes in smaller communities shedding a new light on issues of inter disciplinary interest self governance participation local knowledge social memory scale planning and development Of interest to political scientists anthropologists economists geographers and philosophers this book offers an insightful contribution to theories of globalization and global local interaction bringing the local discursive mechanics into sharper focus and also emphasizing the semi autonomous character of narrative constructions of self and community in a larger world William James, Sciences of Mind, and Anti-Imperial Discourse Bernadette M. Baker, 2013-09-30 In the past few decades the humanities and social sciences have developed new methods of reorienting their conceptual frameworks in a world without frontiers In this book Bernadette M Baker offers an innovative approach to rethinking sciences of mind as they formed at the turn of the twentieth century via the concerns that have emerged at the turn of the twenty first The less visited texts of Harvard philosopher and psychologist William James provide a window into contemporary debates over principles of toleration anti imperial discourse and the nature of ethics Baker revisits Jamesian approaches to the formation of scientific objects including the child mind exceptional mental states and the ghost to explore the possibilities and limits of social scientific thought dedicated to mind development and discipline formation around the construct of the West Curriculum History, 2019-02-11 Rereading the historical record indicates that it is no longer so easy to argue that history is simply prior to its forms Since the mid 1990s a new wave of research has formed around wider debates in the humanities and social sciences such as decentering the subject new analytics of power reconsideration of one dimensional time and three dimensional space attention to beyond archival sources alterity Otherness the invisible and more In addition broader and contradictory impulses around the question of the nation transnational post national proto national and neo national movements have unearthed a new series of problematics and focused scholarly attention on traveling discourses national imaginaries and less formal processes of socialization bonding and subjectification New Curriculum History challenges prior occlusions in the field building upon and departing from previous waves of scholarship extending the focus beyond the insularity of public schooling the traditional framework of the self contained nation state and the psychology of the schooled individual Drawing on global studies historical sociology postcolonial studies critical race theory visual culture theory disability studies psychoanalytics Cambridge school structuralisms poststructuralisms and infra and transnational approaches the volume holds together not despite but because of differences and incommensurabilities in rereading historical records Tracing Global Democracy Vladimir Biti, 2016-01-15 Focused on the recently hotly debated topic at the crossroads of various human and social sciences this book investigates the emergence of the cosmopolitan idea of literature and its impact on the reconfiguration of the European and non European political spaces The birthplace of this idea is its designers traumatic experience as induced by the disconcerting condition of their abode The thesis is that the eighteenth and nineteenth century s cosmopolitan projects that grow out of such deep frustrations trace the twentieth century s global democracy This hidden origin of cosmopolitan projects dismantles the usual European representation of modernization as universal progress as myopic Rather than being a generous action of prominent subjects such as Voltaire Kant and Goethe or Bakhtin Derrida and Deleuze cosmopolitanism is an enforced reaction of the instances dispossessed by injury that search for the ways of healing it Yet as soon as their remedy establishes itself as the ground for universal reconciliation it risks suppressing other s trauma i e turns from politics into a police Articulating the author s position in the recent debates on the structure of democracy the epilogue suggests an alternative strategy Space, Place and Hybridity in the National Imagination Christine Vandamme, André Dodeman, 2021-10-26 This volume explores space place and hybridity in today's multicultural societies with a strong emphasis on the role of art and spatial representations in order to map out the complexity of modern nations and celebrate the creative powers of their highly dynamic communities and cultures It considers how the very idea of the nation has evolved since the emergence and development of the idea of the nation state at the end of the eighteenth century and how art can reinvigorate representations of nation states worldwide without relegating their minorities to the margin Instead of merely focusing on the role of place and land in national representations the book adopts a wider and more critical approach to space in the arts by investigating the notions of both hybridity and Bhabha's Third Space in the fields of aesthetics film studies and literature with a particular emphasis on postcolonial literature
