Women Writers of the American West, 1833-1927 Nina Baym, 2012-08-17 This book recovers the names and works of women who wrote about the American West during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries some of them long forgotten and others better known such as Willa Cather and Mary Austin Holley It reveals how the authors showed women making lives for themselves in the West how they represented the diverse region and how they represented themselves

Women Writers in the Romantic Age John Claiborne Isbell, 2025-04-17 This groundbreaking book offers a comprehensive review of six hundred and fifty women writers from over fifty national traditions spanning Europe and the Americas during the transformative years of 1776 to 1848 Framed by revolutionary upheavals the book explores how women writers shaped and reflected Romanticism s global currents It fills a critical scholarly gap connecting disparate traditions and uncovering voices often overlooked in male dominated literary histories Through concise entries the book names every woman writer identified in its vast research from celebrated figures like Phillis Wheatley to lesser known authors whose manuscripts lay buried in archives Each entry provides essential biographical details while select excerpts in seventeen languages bring these voices to life revealing how women navigated the era s revolutionary ideals and patriarchal barriers Structured democratically the volume treats all writers equally whether anonymous pseudonymous or celebrated in their time It highlights their diverse experiences poets and novelists abolitionists and suffragists mothers and mill workers From memoirs to political tracts their works testify to the rich tapestry of women s contributions to Romanticism By illuminating these stories this book challenges national silos offering a panoramic view of Romanticism as a truly transnational female inclusive phenomenon It represents a go to resource for students and interested readers while setting the ground for future scholars to expand this vital field of study

Pacific Northwest Quarterly, 1996 Out Where the West Begins, Volume 2 Philip F. Anschutz, 2017-12-15 In 1790 it was not a given that the young United States bruised and healing from its struggle for independence and populated by fewer than 4 million inhabitants would even survive much less flourish But the great adventure that came next the exploration and settlement of the lands lying to the west and stretching to the Pacific Ocean would build a nation where only a patchwork of eastern seaboard colonies had existed before The first book in this series Out Where the West Begins Profiles

Visions Strategies of Early Western Business Leaders profiled fifty individuals who made significant contributions to the economic development of a young nation This second volume follows the saga of more than one hundred influential men and women political and military leaders religious thinkers civil rights proponents suffragettes African American pioneers writers and artists explorers and surveyors architects inventors innovators medical professionals and conservationists who together wove the story of early western frontier America The engaging account of their lives forms a unique tapestry of human experience In the words of the author Understanding our distinctive past helps us better comprehend who we are now and who we wish to become

Oregon's Doctor to the World Kimberly Jensen, 2012-12-01 Esther Clayson Pohl Lovejoy whose long life stretched from 1869 to 1967 challenged convention from the time she was a young girl Her professional life began as one of Oregon's earliest women physicians and her commitment to public health and medical relief took her into the international arena where she was chair of the American Women's Hospitals after World War I and the first president of the Medical Women's International Association Most disease suffering and death she believed were the result of wars and social and economic inequities and she was determined to combat those conditions through organized action Lovejoy's early life and career in the Pacific Northwest gave her key experiences and strategies to use for what she termed constructive resistance the ability to take effective action against unjust power She took a political and pragmatic approach to what she called woman's big job achieving a full female citizenship and emphasized the importance of votes for women In this engaging biography Kimberly Jensen tells the story of this important western woman exploring her approach to politics health and society and her civic economic and medical activism Watch the book trailer <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=blyfLWnCTV0>

The Aesthetics of Island Space Johannes Riquet, 2019-12-18 Oxford Textual Perspectives is a series of informative and provocative studies focused upon literary texts conceived of in the broadest sense of that term and the technologies cultures and communities that produce inform and receive them It provides fresh interpretations of fundamental works and of the vital and challenging issues emerging in English literary studies By engaging with the materiality of the literary text its production and reception history and frequently testing and exploring the boundaries of the notion of text itself the volumes in the series question familiar frameworks and provide innovative interpretations of both canonical and less well known works The Aesthetics of Island Space discusses islands as central figures in the modern experience of space It examines the spatial poetics of islands in literary texts from Shakespeare's The Tempest to Ghosh's The Hungry Tide in the journals of explorers and scientists such as James Cook and Charles Darwin and in Hollywood cinema It traces the ways in which literary and cinematic islands have functioned as malleable spatial figures that offer vivid perceptual experiences as well as a geopoetic oscillation between the material energies of words and images and the energies of the physical world The chapters focus on America's island gateways Roanoke and Ellis Island visions of tropical islands Tahiti and imagined South Sea islands the islands of the US Canadian border region in the Pacific Northwest and the imaginative appeal of mutable islands It argues that modern voyages of discovery posed considerable perceptual and cognitive challenges to the experience of space and that these challenges were negotiated in complex and contradictory ways via poetic engagement with islands Discussions of island narratives in postcolonial theory have broadened understanding of how islands have been imagined as geometrical abstractions bounded spaces easily subjected to the colonial gaze There is however a second story of islands in the Western imagination which runs parallel to this colonial story In this alternative account the modern experience of islands in the age of discovery went hand in hand with a disintegration of received models of understanding global space Drawing on and rethinking post phenomenological geocritical and geopoetic theories The Aesthetics of Island Space argues that the modern experience of islands as mobile and shifting territories implied a dispersal fragmentation and diversification of spatial experience and it explores how this disruption is registered and negotiated by both non fictional and fictional responses

Home Lands Virginia Scharff, Carolyn Brucken, 2010-05-18 The storybook history of the American West is a male dominated narrative of drifters dreamers hucksters and heroes a tale that relegates women assuming they appear at all to the distant background Home Lands How Women Made the West upends this view to remember the West as a place of homes and habitations brought into being by the women who lived there Virginia Scharff and Carolyn Brucken consider history's long span as they explore the ways in which women encountered and transformed three different archetypal Western landscapes the Rio Arriba of northern New Mexico the Front Range of Colorado and the Puget Sound waterscape This beautiful book companion volume to the Autry National Center's pathbreaking exhibit is a brilliant aggregate of women's history the history of the American West and studies in material culture While linking each of these places peoples to one another over hundreds even thousands of years Home Lands vividly reimagines the West as a setting in which home has been created out of differing notions of dwelling and family and differing concepts of property community and history Copub Autry National Center of the American West
