Drawing Investigations Sarah Casey,Gerry Davies,2020-06-11 Using close visual analysis of drawings artist interviews critical analysis and exegesis Drawing Investigations examines how artists use drawing as an investigative tool to reveal information that would otherwise remain unseen and unnoticed How does drawing add shape to ideas How does the artist accommodate to challenges and restraints of a particular environment To what extent is a drawing complementary and continuous with its subject and where is it disruptive and provocative Casey and Davies address these questions while focusing on artists working collaboratively and the use of drawing in challenging or unexpected environments Drawing Investigations evaluates the emergence of a way of thinking among an otherwise disconnected group of artists by exploring commonalities in the application of analytical drawing to the natural world urban environment social forces and lived experience Examples represent a spectrum of research in international contexts an oceanographic Institute in California the archives of Amsterdam s Rijksmuseum the Antarctic Survey geothermal research in Japan and the Kurdish diaspora in Iraq Issues are situated in the contemporary theory and practice of drawing including relationships to historical precedents By exploring drawing s capacity to capture and describe experience to sharpen visual faculties and to bridge embodied and conceptual knowledge Drawing Investigations offers a fresh critical perspective on contemporary drawing practice Nancy Spero Interview Museum of Contemporary Art (Chicago, Ill.),1988 Interview with Nancy Spero on the occasion of the exhibition Nancy Spero Works Since 1950 held at the MCA July 1 August 28 1988 The interview begins with Spero explaining what feminism means to her not accepting that which is seemingly predetermined and timeless She briefly mentions the angst expressed in her Paris paintings Fuck you and Merde as well as her earlier Black paintings that tried to capture the spontaneity and essence of figures Spero discusses the shift in her work around 1966 resulting from a period of self questioning and eventually leading to her Vietnam inspired War series Spero also talks about the strong influence of the writings of Antonin Artaud on her work the themes of suffering and anxiety on the behalf of the artist and problems of artists in bourgeois society Spero acknowledges feeling suffocated in the 5 years following the War series and how the sensation of not having an identity or voice is reflected in the tongue imagery that recurs throughout her work Addressing the other woman Kimberly Lamm,2018-01-29 This book analyses how three artists Adrian Piper Nancy Spero and Mary Kelly worked with the visual dimensions of language in the 1960s and 1970s
