A Companion to Public History David M. Dean, 2018-10-08 An authoritative overview of the developing field of public history reflecting theory and practice around the globe This unique reference guides readers through this relatively new field of historical inquiry exploring the varieties and forms of public history its relationship with popular history and the ways in which the field has evolved internationally over the past thirty years Comprised of thirty four essays written by a group of leading international scholars and public history practitioners the work not only introduces readers to the latest scholarly academic research but also to the practice and pedagogy of public history It pays equal attention to the emergence of public history as a distinct field of historical inquiry in North America the importance of popular history and history from below in Europe and European colonial settler states and forms of historical consciousness in non Western countries and peoples It also provides a timely guide to the state of the discipline and offers an innovative and unprecedented engagement with methodological and theoretical problems associated with public history Generously illustrated throughout The Companion to Public History s chapters are written from a variety of perspectives by contributors from all continents and from a wide variety of backgrounds disciplines and experiences It is an excellent source for getting readers to think about history in the public realm and how present day concerns shape the ways in which we engage with and represent the past Cutting edge companion volume for a developing area of study Comprises 36 essays by leading authorities on all aspects of public history around the world Reflects different national regional interpretations of public history Offers some essays in teachable forms an interview a roundtable discussion a document analysis a photo essay Covers a full range of public history practice including museums archives memorial sites as well as historical fiction theatre re enactment societies and digital gaming Discusses the continuing challenges presented by history within our broad collective memory including museum controversies repatriation issues textbook wars and commissions for Truth and Reconciliation The Companion is intended for senior undergraduate students and graduate students in the rapidly growing field of public history and will appeal to those teaching public history or who wish to introduce a public history dimension to their courses Graphic Design in Museum Exhibitions Jona Piehl,2020-12-30

Graphic Design in Museum Exhibitions offers an in depth analysis of the multiple roles that exhibition graphics perform in contemporary museums and exhibitions Drawing on a study of exhibitions that took place at the Victoria and Albert Museum London the Museum of London and the Haus der Geschichte Bonn Piehl brings together approaches from museum studies design practice and narrative theory to examine museum exhibitions as multimodal narratives in which graphics account for one set of narrative resources The analysis underlines the importance of aspects such as accessibility and at the same time problematises conceptualisations that focus only on the effectiveness of graphics as display device by drawing attention to the contributions that graphics make towards the content on display and to the ways in which it is experienced in the museum space Graphic Design in Museum Exhibitions argues for a critical reading of and engagement with exhibition graphic design as part of wider debates around meaning making in museum studies and exhibition making practice As such the book should be essential reading for academics researchers and students from the fields of museum and design studies Practitioners such as exhibition designers graphic designers curators and other exhibition makers should also find much to interest them in the book Fashion and Museums Marie Riegels Melchior,Birgitta Svensson,2014-06-19 Why is fashion in fashion in museums today This timely volume brings together expert scholars and curators to examine the reasons behind fashion s popularity in the twenty first century museum and the impact this has had on wider museum practice Chapters explore the role of fashion in the museum across a range of international case studies including the Costume Institute at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York The Fashion Museum at Bath ModeMuseum in Antwerp and many more Contributions look at topics such as how fashion has made museums accessible to diverse audiences and how curators present broader themes and issues such as gender class and technology innovatively through exhibiting fashion Drawing on approaches from dress history fashion studies museum studies and curatorship this engaging book will be key reading for students and scholars across a range of disciplines Teaching Life Writing Orly Lael Netzer, Amanda Spallacci, 2024-07-05

Teaching Life Writing Theory Methodology and Practice combines research in life writing and pedagogy to examine the role of life stories in diverse learning contexts disciplines and global settings While life stories are increasingly integrated into curricula their incorporation raises the risk of reducing them to mere historical evidence Recognizing the importance of teaching life stories in a manner that goes beyond a surface understanding life writing scholars have been consistently exploring innovative pedagogical practices to engage with these stories in ways that encourage dynamic and nuanced conversations about identity agency authenticity memory and truth as well as the potential of these narratives to instigate social change This book assembles contributions from a diverse group of international educators weaving together life writing research critical reflection and concrete pedagogical strategies The chapters are organized around three overarching conversations the materials practices and mediations involved in teaching life writing within the context of contemporary social change The unique perspectives presented in this collection provide educators with valuable insights into effectively incorporating life stories into their teaching practices Featuring works by over a dozen educators the volume interlaces life writing research critical reflection and tangible pedagogical practices The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of a b Auto Biography Studies Displaced Things in Museums and Beyond Sandra H. Dudley, 2020-11-29

Displaced Things in Museums and Beyond looks anew at the lives effects and possibilities of things Starting from the perspectives of things themselves it outlines a particular displacement approach to the museum anthropology and material culture The book explores the ways in which the objects are experienced in their present displaced settings and the implications and potentialities they carry It offers insights into matters of difference and the hope that may be offered by transformative encounters between persons and things Drawing on anthropological studies of ritual to conceptualise and examine displacement and its implications and possibilities Dudley develops her arguments through exploration of displaced objects now in museums and dislocated or exiled from their prior geographical historical cultural intellectual and personal contexts The book s approach and conclusions are relevant far beyond the museum showing that even in the most difficult of circumstances there is agency distinction and dignity in the choices and impacts that are made and that things and places as well as people have efficacy and potency in those choices In Displaced Things displacement emerges as fundamental to understanding the lives of things and their relationships with human beings and the places however defined that they make and pass within The book will be essential reading for academics and students engaged in the study of museums heritage anthropology culture and history From Concept to Monument: Time and Costs of Construction in the Ancient World Simon J. Barker, Christopher Courault, Javier Á. Domingo, Dominik Maschek, 2023-07-13

21 papers focus on modelling the costs of construction over the course of 2 500 years from Bronze Age Greece to the early Middle Ages They discuss both broader issues of methodology and particular case studies with particular attention to the exploitation of raw materials e.g. quarries transport and construction processes on building sites

Design and Heritage Grace Lees-Maffei, Rebecca Houze, 2021-12-29 Design and Heritage provides the first extended study of heritage from the point of view of design history Exploring the material objects and spaces that contribute to our experience of heritage the volume also examines the processes and practices that shape them Bringing together 18 case studies written by authors from the United States the United Kingdom Canada Brazil Norway India South Africa Australia and New Zealand the book questions how design functions to produce heritage Including provocative case studies of objects that reinterpret visual symbols of cultural identity and buildings and monuments that evoke feelings of national pride and historical memory as well as landscapes embedded with trauma contributors consider how we can work to develop adequate shared conceptual models of heritage and apply them to design and its histories Exploring the distinction between tangible and intangible heritages the chapters consider what these categories mean for design history and heritage Finally the book questions whether it might be possible to promote a truly equitable understanding of heritage that illuminates the social cultural and economic roles of design Design and Heritage demonstrates that design historical methods of inquiry contribute significantly to critical heritage studies Academics researchers and students engaged in the study of heritage design history material culture folklore art history architectural history and social and cultural history will find much to interest them within the pages of the book
