The Voice of Silence Rabbi Dr. Analia Bortz, 2017-08-17 Do you feel as if you are drowning in an ocean of difficulties and successes This unique book invites you to resurface by recognizing your own inner space and inner peace New Media and the Mediatization of Religion Gabriel Faimau, William O. Lesitaokana, 2018-10-01 New media including digital and social media play a central role in producing and reproducing socio cultural and religious practices Its presence has not only resulted in changes to the ways in which religious beliefs are practiced but has also altered the way religious meanings are expressed How has new media technology informed and influenced religious engagement and participation In what ways has new media technology enabled religious groups to practice and preach their religious beliefs to a broader audience To what extent has the emergence of social media and social networking sites shaped religious discourses and religious practices This volume offers a unique Africa centred perspective in response to these questions While presenting new scholarly developments in the fields of media religion and culture in Africa this book also provides empirical and theoretical insights into the intersection between new media and religion Troubling Motherhood Lucy B. Hall, Anna L. Weissman, Laura J. Shepherd, 2020 In global politics women's bodies are policed objectified surveilled and feared with particular attention paid to both their met or unmet procreative potential While the significance of motherhood varies across cultures it is as this book argues connected not just to gender and sexuality but also to religion and nationality Reproduction is central to the flourishing of any nation or culture and therefore motherhood is a major signifier of women's relationship to the state This is so much the case that states enact laws about which women can bear children and have supported sterilization efforts in cases where women are not deemed appropriate bearers of the nation States also legislate reproductive technologies adoption and government support for parenting By considering representations and narratives of maternity this volume shows how practices of global politics shape and are shaped by the gendered norms and institutions that underpin motherhood Motherhood matters in global politics Yet the diverse ways in which performances and practices of motherhood are constituted by and are constitutive of other dimensions of political life are frequently obscured or assumed to be of little interest to scholars policymakers and practitioners Featuring innovative and diverse chapters on the politics of motherhood as an institution this collection shows that maternity is troubled complicated and heterogeneous in global politics Thus performances and practices of motherhood warrant closer and more sustained scrutiny This book builds on work by feminist international relations scholars extending into disruptive spaces of queer theory literary critique and post colonial studies The chapters in this book consider the meaning of motherhood particularly during times of war versus peace the connections between motherhood and nationhood and reproduction of the state and care work and maternal labor particularly as performed by transnational workers Ultimately this book demonstrates the complex interconnections between the individual the state and the global through the lens of maternity A Poetry Pedagogy for Teachers Maya Pindyck, Ruth Vinz, Diana

Liu, Ashlynn Wittchow, 2022-08-25 A Poetry Pedagogy for Teachers generates imaginative encounters with poetry and invites educators to practice a range of poetry exercises in order to inform instructional approaches to reading and writing. Guided by pedagogical principles prompted by their readings of Wallace Stevens' Thirteen Ways of Looking at a Blackbird, Maya Pindyck and Ruth Vinz provide critical discussion of prominent literacy practices in secondary classrooms and offer alternative approaches to encountering a text. They do this by way of experimental readings of Wallace Stevens' poem toward a set of thirteen pedagogical principles that anchor a pedagogy of poetic practices. The book also offers invitational exercises, the authors' own engagements with poetry practices as well as student examples, visual modes of theorizing, and a gathering of relevant resources compiled by two classroom teachers. This is a book for secondary English teachers, teaching artists, English educators, college writing professors, readers, and writers of poetry, both existing and aspirational, and any educator interested in poetry's capacities to pedagogically inform their subject matter and/or literacy practices. Bodies of Pain

Scott E. Pincikowski, 2013-12-16 This study provides a much needed re-evaluation of the role of pain and suffering in Hartmann von Aue. By critically and carefully combining traditional philology with modern theoretical analysis, drawing on theorists such as Mary Douglas, Michele Foucault, Norbert Elias, and Elaine Scarry, the author shows how the body is symbolically structured in Hartmann's work to create a distinctly medieval signification system of pain. This system is analysed through an examination of the physical body and social body of the court and the harmonious and refined image of courtly society as depicted in Hartmann's work, where it is shown that the very ideological system that informs courtly life causes suffering in both the physical and social bodies. I Hear You

Nidhi Upadhyay, 2023-04-17 Most expectant mothers talk to their unborn. But what if the unborn starts to respond? Mahika is hoping that a baby will breathe new life into her dead marriage. But all her pregnancies meet the same fate because no baby is perfect for Shivam, her genius geneticist husband. Until there is one: Rudra, the world's first genetically altered foetus, is Shivam's perfect creation and Mahika's last hope. The six-week pregnant Mahika has just walked into her fertility clinic when she discovers an anonymous note that discloses the ugly truth behind her pregnancy. Before Mahika can come to terms with the fact that her husband's quest for perfection has marked its territory in her womb, she finds herself locked in her own house. But then she discovers that her unborn son has extraordinary powers. As weeks pass by, Rudra calibrates and recalibrates his powers with one aim: Mahika's freedom. But Rudra needs more than his newly acquired powers to free his mother. He needs to betray his creator, his father. And he must do it before it's too late. Pages of Pain

Kimberly Floria, 2015-04-20 A book of poetry that speaks to today's challenges that humanity is facing. Kimberly's words are fierce and unapologetic. Her words and emotions are raw and to the point. Words she hopes will inspire world peace or at the least change. Getting Past the Pain Between Us

Marshall B. Rosenberg, 2004-09-01 In this important and insightful work, Marshall B. Rosenberg, PhD, demonstrates the powerful healing potential of the Nonviolent Communication (NVC) process. You can transform emotional pain, depression, shame, and conflict.

Emotion, Affective Practices, and the Past in the Present Laurajane Smith, Margaret Wetherell, Gary Campbell, 2018-06-14 Emotion Affective Practices and the Past in the Present is a response to debates in the humanities and social sciences about the use of emotion This timely and unique book explores the ways emotion is embroiled and used in contemporary engagements with the past particularly in contexts such as heritage sites museums commemorations political rhetoric and ideology debates over issues of social memory and touristic uses of heritage sites Including contributions from academics and practitioners in a range of countries the book reviews significant and conflicting academic debates on the nature and expression of affect and emotion As a whole the book makes an argument for a pragmatic understanding of affect and in doing so outlines Wetherell s concept of affective practice a concept utilised in most of the chapters in this book Since debates about affect and emotion can often be confusing and abstract the book aims to clarify these debates and through the use of case studies draw out their implications for theory and practice within heritage and museum studies Emotion Affective Practices and the Past in the Present should be essential reading for students academics and professionals in the fields of heritage and museum studies The book will also be of interest to those in other disciplines such as social psychology education archaeology tourism studies cultural studies media studies anthropology sociology and history

Silent Grief Clara Hinton, 1998-02 Almost 200 000 couples in America each year suffer through the tragedy of miscarriage And that statistic only tells us about first trimester miscarriages The emotional pain of longer term miscarriages and the untold numbers of mothers and fathers who keep silent about their hurt make this form of child loss especially cruel But in Silent Grief author Clara Hinton brings a clear message of hope through the cold mourning Writing of her own grief and interviewing scores of women and men she offers not pat answers but instead show us this You are not alone

Honesty Over Silence Patrick Regan, 2023-01-31 The Bible is way more honest than most churches about the actual levels of pain and confusion in life That s why we need this book It s going to provoke ten thousand honest conversations helping to bring healing hope and understanding to many who currently suffer in silence Pete Greig Founder of 24 7 Prayer and leader of Emmaus Rd Church Guildford IT S OK NOT TO BE OK Honesty Over Silence seeks to open up conversations around topics that many find difficult such as trusting God when life is painful dealing with anxiety and depression learning to look after ourselves developing our character and living with thankful hearts even in tough seasons It examines our strength in letting go of our need to be in control as well as looking at how we can stop comparing ourselves to others and instead live authentically and honestly as we grow into the people God has created us to be The power of this book is in its piercing honesty and vulnerability It gives a voice to those issues that we as Christians sometimes want silenced what happens when darkness falls Where is God in mental illness Can I ever be enough Through Patrick s stories of his own life and those of others he powerfully reminds us that a life of faith is smattered with but not shattered by dark places This is an amazing book which will bless encourage and comfort many Tim and Rachel Hughes Lead Pastors at Gas Street Church Birmingham
