Other Pasts Different Presents Alternative Futures:

Other Pasts, Different Presents, Alternative Futures Jeremy Black, 2015-08-03 The most robust defense of historical counterfactuals to date For those interested in this fascinating subject Black's book is indispensable Publishers Weekly starred review What if there had been no World War I or no Russian Revolution What if Napoleon had won at Waterloo in 1815 or if Martin Luther had not nailed his complaints to the church door at Wittenberg in 1517 or if the South had won the American Civil War The questioning of apparent certainties or known knowns can be fascinating and indeed What if books are very popular However this speculative approach known as counterfactualism has had limited impact in academic histories historiography and the teaching of historical methods In this book Jeremy Black offers a short guide to the subject one that is designed to argue its value as a tool for public and academia alike He demonstrates that in skillful hands counterfactual history is more than just fun as one ingredient among many it can be an extremely fertile source of explanation History Today Black's illustrative examples of what if how and why will make readers sit back and wonder Kirkus Reviews With a unique methodology Black performs a what if analysis of history to show how little it takes to change the world's fate This book provokes thought and speculation while also entertaining Foreword Reviews A sparkling defense of the legitimacy and utility of counterfactual history of what ifs and the best single work on its subject available Weekly Standard

Dismantling the Nation Florencia San Martín, Carla Macchiavello Cornejo, Paula Solimano, 2024-01-31 The first academic volume to theorize and historicize contemporary artistic practices and culture from Chile in the English language Dismantling the Nation takes as its point of departure a radical criticism against the nation state of Chile and its colonial capitalist heteronormative and extractivist rule proposing otherwise forms of inhabiting creating and relating in more fluid contingent ecocritical feminist and caring worlds From the case of Chile the book expands the scholarly discussion around decolonial methodologies attending to artistic practices and discourses from distinct and distant locations from Arica and the Atacama Desert to Wallmapu and Tierra del Fuego and from the Central Valley the Pacific coast and the Andes to territories beyond the nation's modern geographical borders Analyzing how these practices refer to issues such as the environmental and cultural impact of extractivism as well as memory trauma collectivity and resistance towards neoliberal totality the volume contributes to the fields of art history and visual culture memory ethnic gender and Indigenous studies filmmaking critical geography and literature in Chile Latin America and other regions of the world envisioning art history and visual culture from a transnational and transdisciplinary perspective

Deleuze and Derrida Vernon W. Cisney, 2018-11-27 Examines independent documentary film production in India within a political context

Competition Stefan Arora-Jonsson, Nils Brunsson, Raimund Hasse, Katarina Lagerström, 2021-06-30 One of the predominant trends of modern society is the pervasive presence of competition No longer just a function of economic markets or democratic systems competition has become a favoured tool for governing people and organizations from the provision of schooling and elder care to the way we consume popular culture Yet social scientists have played a surprisingly modest role in analysing its implications as the discussion of competition has largely been confined to its narrow economic meaning This book opens up competition for the study of social scientists Its central message is that while competition seems ubiquitous it should not be taken for granted or be naturalized as an inevitable aspect of human existence Its emergence maintenance and change are based on institutions and organizational efforts and a central challenge for social science is to learn more about these processes and their outcomes With the use of a novel definition of competition more fundamental questions can be addressed than merely whether or not competition works How is competition constructed and by whom Which behaviours result from competition What are its consequences Can competition be removed And how do these factors vary with the object of competition be it money attention status or other scarce and desired objects This book investigates these and more questions in studies of competition among and within schools universities multinational corporations auditors waste disposal firms fashion designers and more

The Holocaust Jeremy Black, 2016-08-14 A compact and cogent academic account of the Holocaust Kirkus Reviews Brilliant and wrenching The Holocaust History and Memory tells the story of the brutal mass slaughter of Jews during World War II and how that genocide has been remembered and misremembered ever since Taking issue with generations of scholars who separate the Holocaust from Germany's military ambitions historian Jeremy M Black demonstrates persuasively that Germany's war on the Allies was entwined with Hitler's war on Jews As more and more territory came under Hitler's control the extermination of Jews became a major war aim particularly in the east where many died and whole Jewish communities were exterminated in mass shootings carried out by the German army and collaborators long before the extermination camps were built Rommel's attack on Egypt was a stepping stone to a larger goal the annihilation of 400 000 Jews living in Palestine After Pearl Harbor Hitler saw America's initial focus on war with Germany rather than Japan as evidence of influential Jewish interests in American policy thus justifying and escalating his war with Jewry through the Final Solution And the German public knew In chilling detail Black unveils compelling evidence that many everyday Germans must have been aware of the genocide around them In the final chapter he incisively explains the various ways that the Holocaust has been remembered downplayed and even dismissed as it slips from horrific experience into collective consciousness and memory Essential concise and highly readable The Holocaust History and Memory bears witness to those forever silenced and ensures that we will never forget their horrifying fate A balanced and precise work that is true to the scholarship comprehensive yet not overwhelming clearly written and beneficial for the expert and informed public alike Jewish Book Council A demanding but important work Choice Reviews Bills of Union Aaron

Graham, 2021-03-12 This book brings together for the first time more than half a dozen proposals for an imperial paper currency in the mid eighteenth century British Atlantic to show how manage colonial currency and banking in the expanding empire Existing studies have looked at the successes and failures of schemes in individual colonies But some had grander ambitions such as Benjamin Franklin and offered proposals for imperial or continental paper currencies and monetary unions which would help knit together colonial territories throughout North America and even the Caribbean into a cohesive whole during a moment of imperial reform This book brings together these proposals for the first time including several never studied before to show how thinkers and writers on empire currency and finance drew on financial practices precedents and principles from across the British Atlantic to present their own visions of monetary union and the future of empire In doing so it makes an important and original contribution to the wider histories of monetary and financial thought and theory and the roots of American monetary policy and the links between finance empire politics reform and revolution It will be of interest to academics working on the history of finance banking and currency in the British Isles North America and the Caribbean in the eighteenth century as well as those working on the political economy of the British Empire including mercantilism trade warfare and the politics of empire in the decades leading up to the American Revolution Air Power Jeremy

Black,2016-03-10 This essential book offers a compelling and original interpretation of the rise of military aviation Jeremy Black one of the world s finest scholars of military history provides a lucid analysis of the use of airpower over land and sea both during the two world wars and the more limited wars of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Considering both the theory and praxis of air power the author begins with hot air balloons and then highlights the use of zeppelins piston engine fighters jet bombers and finally the so called Military Revolution of today While discussing the growth of American and European military aviation Black a pioneer in emphasizing the importance of non Western military history for understanding global developments also traces the emergence of air power in Latin America Africa and Asia Black breaks new ground by exploring not only to conventional war both inside and outside Europe but also to the use of air power in unconventional wars especially critical given to the spread of insurgencies around the globe He vividly describes traditional debates over the pros and cons of strategic bombing and aircraft carriers versus battleships and gives equal attention to managerial doctrinal and technological innovations The author shows how better management resulted in increasing lethality of close air support of the RAF during the latter part of World War II and at the same times highlights the limits of air power with case studies of the two Gulf Wars The author goes beyond our traditional understanding of air power associated with bombing and fighter engagements adding the important elements associated with naval power including ground logistics support anti aircraft measures and political constraints As he explains air power has become Western politicians weapon of choice spreading maximum destruction with the minimum of commitment His current and comprehensive study considers how we got to this point and what the future has in store Anyone seeking a balanced accurate understanding of air power in history will find this book an essential introduction Plotting Power Jeremy Black,2017-05-22 An examination of strategy in war and international relations that links military ideas and practice political concepts diplomacy and geopolitics Military strategy takes place as much on broad national and international stages as on battlefields In a brilliant reimagining of the impetus and scope of eighteenth century warfare historian Jeremy Black takes us far and wide from the battlefields and global maneuvers in North America and Europe to the military machinations and plotting of such Asian powers as China Japan Burma Vietnam and Siam Europeans coined the term strategy only two centuries ago but strategy as a concept has been practiced globally throughout history Taking issue with traditional military historians Black argues persuasively that strategy was as much political as battlefield tactics and that plotting power did not always involve outright warfare but also global considerations of alliance building trade agreements and intimidation This is both an overview of eighteenth century warfare and an interpretation of how war was made a polemical contribution to a debate on the nature of strategy and a contribution to global history Alan Forrest author of Napoleon Life Legacy and Image A Biography A refreshing new look at how meanings behind these terms strategy and strategic culture were understood and employed in the eighteenth century With his vast knowledge and insights of the period he is able to take us on a wide ranging exploration that provides stimulating food for thought for historians of all periods Richard Harding author of The Emergence of Britain's Global Naval Supremacy The War of 1739 1748

Pelevin and Unfreedom Sofya Khagi, 2020-12-15 Sofya Khagi's Pelevin and Unfreedom Poetics Politics Metaphysics is the first book length English language study of Victor Pelevin one of the most significant and popular Russian authors of the post Soviet era The text explores Pelevin's sustained Dostoevskian reflections on the philosophical question of freedom and his complex oeuvre and worldview shaped by the idea that contemporary social conditions pervert that very notion Khagi shows that Pelevin uses provocative and imaginative prose to model different systems of unfreedom vividly illustrating how the present world deploys hyper commodification and technological manipulation to promote human degradation and social deadlock Rather than rehearse Cold War era platitudes about totalitarianism Pelevin holds up a mirror to show how social control now covert yet far more efficient masquerades as freedom and how eagerly we accept even welcome control under the techno consumer system He reflects on how commonplace discursive markers of freedom like the free market are in fact misleading and disempowering Under this comfortably self occluding bondage the subject loses all power of self determination free will and ethical judgment In his work Pelevin highlights the unprecedented subversion of human society by the techno consumer machine Yet Khagi argues however circumscribed and ironically qualified he holds onto the emancipatory potential of ethics and even an emancipatory humanism

Geopolitics and the Quest for Dominance Jeremy Black, 2015-11-25 History and geography delineate the operation of power not only its range but also the capacity to plan and the ability to implement Approaching state strategy and policy from the spatial angle Jeremy Black argues that just as the perception of power is central to issues of power so place and its constraints and relationships is partly a matter of perception not merely map coordinates Geopolitics he maintains is as much about ideas and perception as it is about the actual spatial dimensions of power Black's study ranges widely examining geography and the spatial nature of state power from the 15th century to the present day He considers the rise of British power geopolitics and the age of

Imperialism the Nazis and World War II and the Cold War and he looks at the key theorists of the latter 20th century including Henry Kissinger Francis Fukuyama and Samuel P Huntington Philip Bobbitt Niall Ferguson and others

Geographies of an Imperial Power Jeremy Black,2018-01-06 From explorers tracing rivers to navigators hunting for longitude spatial awareness and the need for empirical understanding were linked to British strategy in the 1700s This strategy in turn aided in the assertion of British power and authority on a global scale In this sweeping consideration of Britain in the 18th century Jeremy Black explores the interconnected roles of power and geography in the creation of a global empire Geography was at the heart of Britain s expansion into India its response to uprisings in Scotland and America and its revolutionary development of railways Geographical dominance was reinforced as newspapers stoked the fires of xenophobia and defined the limits of cosmopolitan Europe as compared to the barbarism beyond Geography provided a system of analysis and classification which gave Britain political cultural and scientific sovereignty Black considers geographical knowledge not just as a tool for creating a shared cultural identity but also as a key mechanism in the formation of one of the most powerful and far reaching empires the world has ever known

From the Big Bang to the Big Crunch and Everything in Between Vlad Van Rosenthal,2011-10-07 In our passionate curiosity to unravel the mysteries of the world life and the universe humans have contrived numerous theories both scientific and religious with each claiming more relevance than the last Despite all of these influential postulates however the real truth remains obscured to us as it likely will until the moment of our eventual extinction In From the Big Bang to the Big Crunch and Everything in Between A Simplified Look at a Not So Simple Universe Dr Vlad Van Rosenthal explores the subjects made complex by science and religion those concerning our planet our solar system and our civilization Van Rosenthal s compelling and accessible style introduces us to the fundamental explanations of the origin and future of our universe and of human life From the cataclysmic explosion at the beginning to the one at the end either from asteroids colliding with the earth the nuclear explosion of nearby stars or the fatal swelling of our own sun we are a unique species on an unique planet that has most likely seen numerous civilizations and will hopefully see many more We are all invited to form and debate our own perspectives on the earth time and space for we are truly beholden to no one s mind but our own

The Past is the Present; It's the Future Too Christine Ross, 2012-06-28 The term temporality often refers to the traditional mode of the way time is a linear procession of past present and future As philosophers will note this is not always the case Christine Ross builds on current philosophical and theoretical examinations of time and applies them to the field of contemporary art films video installations sculpture and performance works Ross first provides an interdisciplinary overview of contemporary studies on time focusing on findings in philosophy psychology sociology communications history postcolonial studies and ecology She then illustrates how contemporary artistic practices play around with what we consider linear time Engaging the work of artists such as Guido van der Werve Melik Ohanian Harun Farocki and Stan Douglas allows investigation through the art as opposed to having art taking an ancillary role The Past is the Present It's the Future Too forces the reader to understand the complexities of the significance of temporal development in new artistic practices

The Past, Present, and Future of Evangelical Mission Narry F. Santos, Xenia Ling-Yee Chan, 2022-07-15 Crisis is an invitation to both prophetic evaluation and new imagination In this volume Canadian missiologists and practitioners consider the past and how the past might enable the church to move forward in Christian mission in the academy agency assembly and the agora How can the Canadian church welcome different voices from the periphery What must be done to empower the next generation How can we respond in light of the injustices done to our Indigenous brothers and sisters Where does reconciliation fit into the picture How might we navigate between secularization and fundamentalisms How ought we move together in mission and in unity across denominational difference How can we equip laypeople to live their callings faithfully in the agora How can work in the marketplace be ministry And lastly how is the Spirit at work in our contexts in this day and age These questions among others onboard us into the ongoing conversation about the state of evangelical mission in Canada and each of these essays adeptly lead us into the beginnings of answers to these questions These essays address how the past informs our future and how we might answer the prophetic call with both hope and renewed vigor to participate in the mission of God
