Tattoos, Desire and Violence Karin Beeler,2015-01-27 Whether they graphically depict an individual s or a community s beliefs express the defiance of authority or brand marginalized groups tattoos are a means of interpersonal communication that dates back thousands of years Evidence of the tattoo s place in today s popular culture is all around in advertisements on the stereotypical outlaw character in films and television in supermarket machines that dispense children s wash away tattoos and even in the production of a tattooed Barbie doll This book explores the tattoo s role primarily as an emblem of resistance and marginality in recent literature film and television The association of tattoos with victims of the Holocaust slaves and colonized peoples with gangs inmates and other marginalized groups and the connection of the tattoo narrative to desire and violence are discussed at length The Crossroads of Crime Writing Meghan P. Nolan,Rebecca Martin,2024-03-05 This volume argues that we must examine the boundaries in fiction and non fiction crime writing with an awareness of and turn toward the unseen structures and spatial uncertainties that so often lead to and reflect collective fears and anxieties Drawing upon the insights and expertise of an international array of scholars the chapters within explore the interplay of the literary historical social and cultural in various modes of crime writing from the 1890s to as recent as 2017 They examine unseen structures and uncertain spaces and simultaneously provide new insights into the works of iconic authors such as Christie and iconic fictional figures like Holmes as well as underexplored subjects including Ukrainian detective fiction of the Soviet period and crime writing by a Bengali police detective at the turn of the twentieth century The breadth of coverage of both time and place is an indicator of a text in which seasoned readers advanced students and academics will find new perspectives on crime writing employing theories of cultural memory and deep mapping
