Talk for Teaching: Rethinking Professional Development in Schools Paul Garvey, 2017-03-17 Paul Garvey uses his experience as a teacher inspector and a National Strategies consultant to advise educators and schools on how his Talk For Teaching method can help them take control of their Professional Development without it increasing costs or taking up valuable lesson time Educators learn how Talk for Teaching can be applied by utilising experiences from all members of your teaching staff from TAs to heads All play a vital role in the improvement of the teaching quality throughout the school whilst improving morale as well Full of experiences from teachers headteachers and inspectors as well as Garvey s own personal experiences this is not a book to be missed for anyone looking to journey towards teaching excellence Talk for Teaching clearly works This is what Ofsted said about the result of putting Talk for Teaching at the heart of a school s programme for improving the quality of teaching The quote is taken from Barnsole Primary s Ofsted report in April 2016 Together with the deputy headteacher the headteacher has led the Talk for Teaching programme that has been an instrumental part of transforming the quality of teaching over time The high quality teaching in this school now leads to outstanding outcomes for pupils The school has used this professional development programme to involve leaders teachers teaching assistants governors and other members of the school staff in observing teaching together They have detailed conversations about the effectiveness of what is seen and how it can be improved Staff discuss the quality of teaching regularly and freely share ideas about what works well with colleagues

Getting it Right in Reception Neil Farmer, 2016-07-14 Reception it s a funny old term rather like a waiting room a foyer or a gathering place before the main event The main event here being the start of Key Stage One and school life Reception has in many ways been seen as a holding pen a preparation for school readiness rather than a stage and age in its own right Neil Farmer draws upon his experience of working with and supporting schools and leaders up and down the country and abroad in many instances going right back to the basics and putting forward suggestions and strategies that will assist teachers in gaining an ownership of their classroom and a true understanding of their vital role as a facilitator mediator and coach It is not a one cap fits all solution but rather some practical tips that Reception teachers may decide to employ alter and make their own

Effective Practices in Continuing Professional Development Peter Earley, Vivienne Porritt, 2009 Effective Practices in Continuing Professional Development presents case studies of schools journeys towards effective CPD practice as part of a TDA national project It tells the story of the goals set and achieved and the challenges and successes along the way Each case study makes specific reference to the nine factors or approaches to CPD identified in the book as underpinning effective practice This includes how a clarity of purpose was established at the outset of CPD activity and how the London Centre for Leadership in Learning s clear and rigorous impact evaluation framework supported and challenged projects to develop their thinking and practice All of this is contextualised within the wider literature about the successful leadership of CPD and the effective practice of school workforce development The editors introduce why effective CPD matters and conclude with the lessons learnt and ways forward Among the many cases provided by leaders in this field Sara Bubb writes how coaching in a special school was used to make teachers and support staff feel more valued John Tandy describes how primary school heads came together with the Local Authority to jointly develop a Leadership Charter that was a summary of effective leadership practice in the Borough The book will interest practitioners and professionals who design and develop CPD opportunities and practice within all sectors of education as well as all working within the strategic leadership of CPD It also complements the TDA s national development programme for the leadership of CPD by showing how the strategic implications of the nine CPD approaches identified can improve the overall quality and impact of professional development and so enhance the learning for all children and young people supplement Developing Early Maths Skills Outdoors Marianne Sargent, 2020-01-09 Developing Early Maths Skills Outdoors provides practitioners with practical planning for how to develop and enhance the outdoor area to facilitate mathematical learning. It includes up to 80 activities to embed each learning experience into daily provision with dedicated plans to develop specific skills and aspects of mathematics. The activities throughout the book are low cost and easy to set up aiming to reassure practitioners and give them the confidence to plan more mathematical learning experiences outdoors. This is further supported with planning guidance and resource ideas as well as advice on observation and assessment including suggestions for how to reduce the paperwork burden and a useful observation template. The book is divided into sections that represent the different aspects of mathematics and includes an introduction to each aspect explaining why it is important and outlining the fundamental skills and concepts that underpin it. Ideas for adult led and adult initiated activities that aim to develop children's early mathematical knowledge, skills and understanding, suggestions for how to enhance continuous outdoor provision so that it promotes independent investigation, fostering creative and critical thinking, pointers and tips about teaching mathematics in the early years, ideas for how to involve parents and carers and links to all four British early years curriculum frameworks.

Playful Mathematics Helen J. Williams, 2022-03-10 Nursery World Professional Book of the Year 2022 Children are naturally mathematical in their play. They play with mathematics. Early years practitioners often struggle to make mathematics relevant and engaging for their young learners. In their play, children are naturally mathematical, yet practitioners are often unsure about how to build on this or how this observed play fits in with the mathematics they teach. This Nursery World Award Winning Book Empowers early years teachers to see the learning in this play and to remain committed to play based practice. Outlines recent research on how children best learn mathematics. Supports early years practitioners to know why preparation works better than planning and why thinking space matters more than you think.
