maybe it was something much worse Digging a new drift down in Level 8 the lowest level of the mine an immense shaft opens up Boyd and a few others volunteer to explore it Some 400 feet down they find a passage that leads to an immense cavern from prehistory A petrified world A prehistoric graveyard Then a cave in traps them down there In the darkness and dank shadows of a fossilized world they realize they are not alone Something has woken in the stone Something ancient and terrible and coldly intelligent And it is lonely In the Flesh Tim Curran,2018-01-03 Available for the first time in a collection three of Tim Curran s novellas Worm Blackout and The Underdwelling WORM On Pine Street the houses begin to shake The earth begins to move The streets crack open and yards split asunder and rising from subterranean depths far below a viscid black muck bubbles up and floods the neighborhood In it are a ravenous army of gigantic worms seeking human flesh They wash into houses they come up through the sewers through plumbing filling toilets and tubs seeking human prey Cut off from the rest of the town the people of Pine Street must wage a war of survival or they ll never see morning As bad as the worms are there s something worse and far larger waiting to emerge BLACKOUT In the midst of a beautiful summer in a perfectly American suburban middle class neighborhood a faraway evil is lurking waiting to strike the unsuspecting residents First come the flashing lights then the heavy rains high winds and finally a total blackout But that s only the beginning When the whipping black tentacles fall from the sky and begin snatching people at random the denizens of Piccamore Way must discover the terrifying truth of what these beings have planned for the human race THE UNDERDWELLING With a kid on the way Boyd needed the job bad But the idea of going underground at the Hobart Mine down into the dark labyrinth of tunnels to get at the raw ore left him with a brooding sense of unease Maybe it was the fact that his father had died down in the mines or maybe it was something much worse Digging a new drift down in Level 8 the lowest level of the mine an immense shaft opens up Boyd and a few others volunteer to explore it Some 400 feet down they find a passage that leads to an immense cavern from prehistory A petrified world A prehistoric graveyard Then a cave in traps them down there In the darkness and dank shadows of a fossilized world they realize they are not alone Something has woken in the stone Something ancient and terrible and coldly intelligent And it is lonely Trial Unhinged John Alan Pearson,2016-12-03 Graham Gowan is a new lawyer starting in a prestigious criminal defence firm His first client is Edward Boyd a rounder for a powerful organized crime family Boyd tells Graham that he is being held in separate custody and labelled mentally unfit to keep Boyd from exposing a conspiracy involving rogue police officers and international human traffickers Graham follows the evidence to confirm Boyd s story but Graham feels suppressed by his sister a tax lawyer who falls in love with another junior lawyer at Graham s firm and by his mother who is worried that Graham is out of control Graham must make a choice either listen to Boyd and follow the evidence or play it safe and dismiss the client as too crazy to be believed In Levittown's Shadow Tim Keogh,2023-11-03 Named one of the best nonfiction books of 2023 by Publishers Weekly There is a familiar narrative about American suburbs after 1945 white residents left cities for leafy affluent subdivisions and the prosperity they seemed to embody In Levittown's Shadow tells us there's more to this story offering an eye opening account of diverse poor residents living and working in those same neighborhoods Tim Keogh shows how public policies produced both suburban plenty and deprivation and why ignoring suburban poverty doomed efforts to reduce inequality Keogh focuses on the suburbs of Long Island home to Levittown often considered the archetypal suburb Here military contracts subsidized well paid employment welding airplanes or filing paperwork while weak labor laws impoverished suburbanites who mowed lawns built houses scrubbed kitchen floors and stocked supermarket shelves Federal mortgage programs helped some families buy orderly single family homes and enter the middle class but also underwrote landlord efforts to cram poor families into suburban attics basements and sheds Keogh explores how policymakers ignored suburban inequality addressing housing segregation between cities and suburbs rather than suburbanites demands for decent jobs housing and schools By turning our attention to the suburban poor Keogh reveals poverty wasn't just an urban problem but a suburban one too In Levittown's Shadow deepens our understanding of suburbia's history and points us toward more effective ways to combat poverty today

Never Again Adela Rogers St. Johns, 1949 Shadow Sophia Celia E. Deane-Drummond, 2021-02-25 Why do humans who seem to be exemplars of virtue also have the capacity to act in atrocious ways What are the roots of tendencies for sin and evil A popular assumption is that it is our animalistic natures that are responsible for human immorality and sin while our moral nature curtails and contains such tendencies through human powers of freedom and higher reason This book challenges such assumptions as being far too simplistic Through a careful engagement with evolutionary and psychological literature Celia Deane Drummond argues that tendencies towards vice are more often than not distortions of the very virtues that are capable of making us good After beginning with Augustine's classic theory of original sin the book probes the philosophical implications of sin's origins in dialogue with the philosophy of Paul Ricoeur Different vices are treated in both individual and collective settings in keeping with a multispecies approach Areas covered include selfishness pride violence anger injustice greed envy gluttony deception lying lust despair anxiety and sloth The work of Thomas Aquinas helps to illuminate and clarify much of this discussion on vice including those vices which are more distinctive for human persons in community with other beings Such an approach amounts to a search for the shadow side of human nature shadow sophia Facing that shadow is part of a fuller understanding of what makes us human and thus this book is a contribution to both theological anthropology and theological ethics post Christian justice The work engages Heidegger s interpretation of Nietzsche s destruction of the Platonic Christian worldview showing how Heidegger s hermeneutic overlooked Nietzsche s powerful confrontation with revelation and justice by working through the Christian body as set forth in the Epistles of Saint Paul and reread both by Martin Luther and by German Idealism Franck shows systematically how Nietzsche transvalued the metaphysical tenets of the Christian body of believers In so doing he provides an unparalleled demonstration of the coherence of Nietzsche s project and the ways in which the revaluation of values amor fati and the trials of eternal recurrence reshape the living self toward a creative existence beyond original sin indeed beyond an ethics of good versus evil Bergo and Farah s clear translation introduces this work to an English speaking audience for the first time
