The Future of Banking

Benton E. Gup, 2002-09-30

The basic functions of banking: lending, deposit taking and making payments are constant. What changes are the forms banking takes in response to increases in competition, globalization, new laws and emerging technologies? Among the most visible of these changes will be an increase in the consolidation and globalization of banking in the world's major trading countries. Now prestigious academics and practitioners including regulators from around the world join Benton E. Gup in exploring these coming changes and by doing so define a global perspective on banking's future. They find that the consolidation of banking will persist on a global scale. Electronic banking in all its forms will increase in importance and banking in mature economies will be even more different from what it is now in developing economies. While focusing on the financial system in the United States, Gup's panel of contributors also explores financial systems in Europe, Asia and elsewhere. Like Gup, they predict that a small handful of very large banks will control a disproportionate share of bank assets. Their views provide an unusual survey of current thinking in the domains of banking and finance and an important source of current information, background and foresights for banking and finance practitioners, students and academics.

Crafting the Future of International Higher Education in Asia via Systems Change and Innovation

Angela Yung Chi Hou, Joshua Smith, Ka Ho Mok, Chao-Yu Guo, 2023-05-29

The book discusses the most essential topics in understanding the development and changes of higher educational systems in Asia after the outbreak of the pandemic and explores the transformative, international and innovative moves from an Asian perspective. The topics covered in the book are timely in that higher education in Asia was severely limited during the tumultuous time of the pandemic, including three themes: 1. How the pandemic drives system reform and quality management; 2. How can universities maintain transnational partnerships and attract global talent; 3. How would faculty members innovate teaching pedagogy and reassess student learning experiences. This timely and well-researched book provides valuable insights into the challenges and opportunities for national, regional and international higher education created by the recent pandemic as well as technological and geopolitical changes. The lucid analysis of key issues and trends will be useful to academics, policymakers and researchers within Asia and beyond.

Professor Jane Knight, Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, University of Toronto This book sets out important thinking for the post pandemic era in Asian higher education Based on valuable experience across a diverse region this book highlights the opportunity to reimagine the future trajectory for higher education As more of the Asia Pacific moves toward mass and even universal systems of higher education it exerts greater influence on higher education around the world This book offers practical analysis that is culturally grounded in the rich civilizations of Asia about ubiquitous issues in higher education including social equity human agency program quality innovative pedagogy academic governance private sector initiative knowledge building and a new form of internationalization It offers a sensible launchpad for a policy agenda Professor Gerard Postiglione Emeritus Professor The University of Hong Kong
