Notes On A Shared Landscape Making Sense Of The American West:

Notes on a Shared Landscape David Bayles, 2005 A rich collage of stories and photographs exploring our imperfect love affair with the American West The View From The Studio Door Ted Orland, 2006-04-01 In the perennial best seller Art Fear Ted Orland with David Bayles examined the obstacles that artists encounter each time they enter their studio and stand before a new blank canvas Now in The View From The Studio Door Orland turns his attention to broader issues that stand to either side of that artistic moment of truth In a text marked by grace brevity and humor Orland argues that when it comes to art making theory and practice are always intertwined There are timeless philosophical questions How do we make sense of the world that address the very nature of art making as well as gritty real world questions Is there art after graduation that artists encounter the moment they re off the starting blocks and producing work on a regular basis Simply put this is a book of practical philosophy As a teacher and working artist himself Orland brings authentic insight and encouragement to all those who face the challenge of making art in an uncertain world The breadth of material covered is reflected in chapters that include Making Sense of the World Art Society The Education of the Artist Surviving Graduation Making Art That Matters The Artistic Community and more The View From The Studio Door is the perfect companion piece to Art Fear and will appeal to a similar and already established audience of students working artists teachers and professionals For students benefit The View is also modestly priced with wide page margins for easy note taking and Art & Fear David Bayles, Ted Orland, 2001-04-01 This is a book about making art Ordinary art Ordinary art annotation means something like all art not made by Mozart After all art is rarely made by Mozart like people essentially statistically speaking there aren t any people like that Geniuses get made once a century or so yet good art gets made all the time so to equate the making of art with the workings of genius removes this intimately human activity to a strangely unreachable and unknowable place For all practical purposes making art can be examined in great detail without ever getting entangled in the very remote problems of genius from the Introduction Art Fear explores the way art gets made the reasons it often doesn t get made and the nature of the difficulties that cause so many artists to give up along the way The book s co authors David Bayles and Ted Orland are themselves both working artists grappling daily with the problems of making art in the real world Their insights and observations drawn from personal experience provide an incisive view into the world of art as it is experienced by artmakers themselves This is not your typical self help book This is a book written by artists for artists it s about what it feels like when artists sit down at their easel or keyboard in their studio or performance space trying to do the work they need to do First published in 1994 Art Fear quickly became an underground classic Word of mouth response alone now enhanced by internet posting has placed it among the best selling books on artmaking and creativity nationally Art Fear has attracted a remarkably diverse audience ranging from beginning to accomplished artists in every medium and including an exceptional concentration among students and teachers The original Capra Press edition of Art Fear sold 80 000 copies An excerpt Today more than it was however many years ago art is hard because you have to keep after it so consistently On so many different fronts For so little external reward Artists become veteran artists only by making peace not just with themselves but with a huge range of issues You have to find your work

Into the Sunset Eva Respini,2009 This volume explores how photography has shaped and transformed the American West in the collective imagination from 1850 to today This investigation includes a broad range of styles from nineteenth century works made a few years after the invention of photography to iconic images of the twentieth century to pictures made in the early twenty first century Includes works by famous photographers and artists such as Cindy Sherman Diane Arbus Larry Sultan

How to Make a Gorgeous Photo Book The Publishers Weekly ,2005 Oral History, Community, and Work in the American West Jessie L.

The Publishers Weekly ,2005 Embry, 2013-10-03 Nurses show girls housewives farm workers casino managers and government inspectors together these hard working members of society contributed to the development of towns across the West The essays in this volume show how oral history increases understanding of work and community in the twentieth century American West In many cases occupations brought people together in myriad ways The Latino workers who picked lemons together in Southern California report that it was baseball and Cinco de Mayo Queen contests that united them Mormons in Fort Collins Colorado say that building a church together bonded them together In separate essays African Americans and women describe how they fostered a sense of community in Las Vegas Native Americans detail the Indian economy in Northern California As these essays demonstrate the history of the American West is the story of small towns and big cities places both isolated and heavily populated It includes groups whose history has often been neglected Sometimes western history has mirrored the history of the nation at other times it has diverged in unique ways Oral history adds a dimension that has often been missing in writing a comprehensive history of the West Here an array of oral historians including folklorists librarians and public historians record what they have learned from people who have in their own ways made history Reading Westworld Alex Goody, Antonia Mackay, 2019-05-09 Reading Westworld is the first volume to explore the cultural textual and theoretical significance of the hugely successful HBO TV series Westworld The essays engage in a series of original enquiries into the central themes of the series including conceptions of the human and posthuman American history gaming memory surveillance AI feminism imperialism free will and contemporary capitalism In its varied critical engagements with the genre narratives and contexts of Westworld this volume explores the show s wider and deeper meanings and the questions it poses as well considering how Westworld reflects on the ethical implications of artificial life and technological innovation for our own futurity With critical essays that draw on the interdisciplinary strengths and productive intersections of media cultural and literary studies Reading Westworld seeks to respond to the show s fundamental question Have you ever questioned the nature of your reality It will be of interest to students academics and general readers seeking to engage with Westworld and the far reaching questions it poses about our current engagements with technology American Book Publishing Record

,2003 Intercultural Understanding After Wittgenstein Carla Carmona, David Perez-Chico, Chon Tejedor, 2023-03-14 This volume addresses from a Wittgensteinian perspective the philosophical guestion of how to understand other cultures It develops an approach to this question that emphasizes the connection between its epistemological ethical and political aspects bringing into conversation Wittgensteinian and other cultural philosophical traditions notably from Japan China India and the West African Yoruba communities Public and Popular History Jerome De Groot, 2013-09-13 This interdisciplinary collection considers public and popular history within a global framework seeking to understand considerations of local domestic histories and the ways they interact with broader discourses Grounded in particular local and national situations the book addresses the issues associated with popular history in a globalised cultural world such as how the study of popular history might work in the future new ways in which the terms popular and public might inform one another and nuance scholarship transnational intercultural models of pastness cultural translatability and the demand for high quality work on new technologies and history A wide range of international contributors consider a broad selection of locale and media from American television and Canadian heritage to the representation of history in contemporary Chinese culture They consider the way in which the study of public or popular texts invoke multiple historiographies and demonstrate our need to think about public and popular aspects of the past in new emerging locales such as China Eastern Europe and South America This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Rethinking History Playing House in the American West Cathryn Halverson, 2013-11-26 Examines an eclectic group of western women s autobiographical texts canonical and otherwise Playing House in the American West argues for a distinct regional literary tradition characterized by strategic representations of unconventional domestic life The controlling metaphor Cathryn Halverson uses in her engrossing study is playing house From Caroline Kirkland and Laura Ingalls Wilder to Willa Cather and Marilynne Robinson from the mid nineteenth to the late twentieth centuries western authors have persistently embraced wayward or eccentric housekeeping to prove a woman's difference from western neighbors and eastern readers alike The readings in Playing House investigate the surprising textual ends to which westerners turn the familiar terrain of the home evaluating community arguing for different conceptions of race and class and perhaps most especially resisting traditional gender roles Western women writers Halverson argues render the home as a stage for autonomy resistance and imagination rather than as a site of sacrifice and obligation The western women examined in Playing House in the American West are promoted and read as representatives of a region as insiders offering views of distant and intriguing ways of life even as they conceive of themselves as outsiders By playing with domestic conventions they recast the region they describe portraying the West as a place that fosters female agency individuality and subjectivity Hunger for the Wild Michael L. Johnson, 2007 Americans have had an enduring yet ambivalent obsession with the West as both a place and a state of mind Michael L Johnson considers how that obsession originated how it has determined attitudes toward and activities in the West and how it has changed over the centuries

Women Artists of the American West Susan R. Ressler, 2003 Profiles more than 150 women artists of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from the American West offers fifteen interpretive essays and includes nearly three hundred The Governance of Western Public Lands Martin Nie, 2008-02-08 Issues like clearcutting reproductions of their works wilderness preservation and economic development have dominated debates over public lands for years yet we seem no closer to resolving these matters than we ever were Martin Nie now looks at why there continues to be so much conflict about public lands and resource management and how we can break through these impasses Showing that such conflicts have been driven by interrelated factors ranging from scarcity to mistrust and politics he charts the present status and future prospects of public lands management in America Nie looks closely at two of today s most intractable conflicts the designation of U S Forest Service roadless areas and management of the Tongass National Forest in Alaska He uses these cases to investigate more inclusive issues about governing federal lands in the West such as the contested use of science and litigation lengthy planning processes and controversial practices of Congress and the president in managing environmental disputes Along the way he addresses such other conflict areas as snowmobiles in Yellowstone bear and wolf protection fire and forest health drilling in Montana's Rocky Mountain Front and federal grazing policy Nie emphasizes the complicated and often contentious interaction between the branches of the federal government as a major factor in misunderstandings He particularly cites the problem of vague statutory language which tells our public land agencies little about what they should be doing but lots about how they should be doing it Nie reexamines this confusing body of law and policy in which the rulemaking process wags the dog and agencies are caught in political quagmires to show how the pieces fit but more often don't Throughout the book Nie considers the factors that make some public land conflicts so controversial revisits how they have been dealt with in the past and proposes ways they might be better managed in the future Eschewing the single policy approach to public lands management such as encouraging free markets he instead surveys a diverse array of other available options His big picture outlook for the twenty first century is a bold call for reshaping ongoing conflicts and for reinvesting in The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of the American West Steven Frye, 2016-04-26 This our public lands Companion provides a comprehensive introduction to one of the most vibrant and expansive traditions in world literature The American West occupies a unique place in the global imagination and the literature it produced transcends the category of region in theme and form Written by prominent international scholars the essays cover a diverse group of key texts and authors including major figures in the Native American Hispanic Asian American and African American movements Treatments range from environmental and ecopoetic to transnational and transcultural reflecting the richness of the field This volume places the literature in deep historical context and features a chronology and a bibliography for further reading It will be an essential guide for students of literature of the American West and of American literature generally Music in the Western Kathryn Kalinak, 2012-05-22 Music in the Western Notes from the Frontier presents essays from both film studies scholars and musicologists on core issues in western film scores their history their generic conventions their operation as part of a narrative system their functioning within individual filmic texts and their ideological import especially in terms of the western's construction of gender sexuality race and ethnicity The Hollywood western is marked as uniquely American by its geographic setting prototypical male protagonist and core American values Music in the Western examines these conventions and the scores that have shaped them But the western also had a resounding international impact from Europe to Asia and this volume distinguishes itself by its careful consideration of music in non Hollywood westerns such as Ravenous and The Good the Bad and the Ugly and in the easterns which influenced them such as Yojimbo Other films discussed include Wagon Master High Noon Calamity Jane The Big Country The Unforgiven Dead Man Wild Bill There Will Be Blood and No Country for Old Men Contributors Ross Care Corey K Creekmur Yuna de Lannoy K J Donnelly Caryl Flinn Claudia Gorbman Kathryn Kalinak Charles Leinberger Matthew McDonald Peter Stanfield Mariana Whitmer Ben Winters The Routledge Music and Screen Media Series offers edited collections of original essays on music in particular genres of cinema television video games and new media These edited essay collections are written for an interdisciplinary audience of students and scholars of music and film and media studies Landscapes of Conflict William G. Robbins, 2009-11-23 Post World War II Oregon was a place of optimism and growth a spectacular natural region from ocean to high desert that seemingly provided opportunity in abundance With the passing of time however Oregon's citizens rural and urban would find themselves entangled in issues that they had little experience in resolving The same trees that provided income to timber corporations small mill owners loggers and many small towns in Oregon also provided a dramatic landscape and a home to creatures at risk The rivers whose harnessing created power for industries that helped sustain Oregon's growth and were dumping grounds for municipal and industrial wastes also provided passageways to spawning grounds for fish domestic water sources and recreational space for everyday Oregonians The story of Oregon's accommodation to these divergent interests is a divisive story between those interested in economic growth and perceived stability and citizens concerned with exercising good stewardship towards the state s natural resources and preserving the state s livability In his second volume of Oregon's environmental history William Robbins addresses efforts by individuals and groups within and outside the state to resolve these conflicts Among the people who have had roles in this process journalists and politicians Richard Neuberger and Tom McCall left substantial legacies and demonstrated the ambiguities inherent in the issues they confronted

William Maxwell Barbara A. Burkhardt,2005 Best known as the longtime fiction editor at The New Yorker William Maxwell worked closely with greats like Vladimir Nabokov John Updike Mary McCarthy John Cheever and many others His own novels include They Came Like Swallows and So Long See You Tomorrow and have become so highly acclaimed that many now consider him to be one of the twentieth century s most important writers Barbara A Burkhardt s William Maxwell A Literary Life represents the first major critical study of Maxwell s life and work Writing with an economy and elegance befitting her subject Burkhardt addresses Maxwell s highly autobiographical fiction by skillfully interweaving his biography with her own critical interpretations She begins each chapter with commentary on the biographical circumstances and literary influences that affected each of his compositions By contextualizing his novels and short stories in terms of events including his mother's early death from influenza his marriage and the role of his psychoanalysis under the guidance of Theodore Reik Burkhardt's subsequent literary analyses achieve an unprecedented depth Drawing on a wide range of previously unavailable material Burkhardt includes letters written to Maxwell by authors like Eudora Welty and Louise Bogan excerpts from Maxwell's unpublished manuscripts and correspondence and her own interviews with key figures from his life including John Updike Roger Angell New Yorker fiction editor Robert Henderson and Maxwell's family and friends She also presents several lengthy sessions with Maxwell himself A must for anyone already familiar with the understated charms of Maxwell's writing this volume also represents a major addition to the growing collection of New Yorker lore sure to fascinate anyone interested in the fiction history and personalities connected with the most influential weekly Barbara A Burkhardt is an assistant professor of English at the University of Illinois at Springfield A close acquaintance of Maxwell she organized his correspondence for the Maxwell archives at the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign library as well as writing the catalog for two exhibitions Harrowing the Gospels: A Cambodian (American) Rereading of Agriculture in Mark and Matthew Kristofer Dale Phan Coffman, 2025-06-30 Despite the growth in archaeology in the Galilee and sustained interest in the economic background of the Jesus movement agriculture and agrarian life remain under theorized in the study of the Gospels Harrowing the Gospels A Cambodian American Rereading of Agriculture in Mark and Matthew interrogates constructions of ethnography economy and ethnicity in previous Gospel research to both situate itself in and critique the gaps in the attention to these subjects By reading from a Cambodian American perspective and through the tools of postcolonial and social scientific analysis this volume constructs a new working methodology fit to the problems of reading agriculture Postagrarian Analysis
