Roberta Maisel, 2000-11 Many parents in their 50s and 60s don't know how to parent their adult children. Yet increases in health and longevity mean that parents and their children may share 40 or more years together as adults. All Grown Up describes how mid-life parents and their grown children can celebrate this new lease on life together by developing loving and egalitarian friendships that are positive and guilt-free. Using conflict resolution strategies borrowed from the field of mediation, a healthy respect for generation gap issues engendered by the social revolutions of the 1960s and 70s, and a broad spiritual perspective, the author provides both practical solutions to ongoing problems as well as thought-provoking discussions of how these problems came to be. Unlike other books in the field, All Grown Up addresses the cultural changes of the late 20th century which deeply affect how we approach parenting, self-development, and lifestyle issues. The book provides guidance on how parents of adult children can communicate with their adult children without judgments or fear of giving praise, let go and share activities in a stress-free, equal way, deal with crises in their adult children's lives, knowing when and when not to give advice, set boundaries, limits, and deadlines, avoid over-identification with their child's successes and failures, and avoid competitiveness and build understanding, trust, and compassion without prying. Wise, compassionate, and helpful, All Grown Up will appeal to all mid-life and older parents and children, as well as mediators, therapists, and counselors. Marketing for All Grown Up: National print advertising, National print radio, and web publicity. Co-op available. Roberta Maisel is a sociologist, educator, and professional mediator. A parent of three adult children, she watches over her 93-year-old mother and lives in Berkeley, California.

Nobody's Baby Now Susan Newman, 2003-04-01 Offers strategies and techniques for improving the relationship between adult children and their parents, discussing familiar challenges such as holiday conflicts, money issues, children, and guilt trips.
