Reflective Learning in Management, Development and Education David Higgins, 2017-07-05 In recent years there has been a growing interest in the ideas surrounding reflective practice specifically in the areas of learning in management development and education This interest has developed in a growing number of professional fields thus making for very diverse understandings of what can be regarded as complex approaches to learning In order to understand how reflective practice can support and aid learning it is helpful to acknowledge how we learn First all learners start from their own position of knowledge and have their own set of experiences to draw upon Second learning is contextual something which managers need to acknowledge To make sense and achieve a deep understanding of material and experiences one needs to relate new information to existing knowledge and experiences This is best achieved through a process of reflection Indeed the underlying rationale for the chapters in this publication is to explore how the role of practice reflection and critical reflection are understood and developed within a learning process which is supported through the application of reflective tools This book recognises and makes explicit the diverse yet inclusive nature of the field By including a range of contributions from both subject specific disciplines and professional contexts it seeks to enable the reader in documenting some of the current uses of reflection and critical reflection while also illustrating some of the newer methods in use as well as the current contributions to thinking in the subject domain Through this publication the editor and authors hope to provide a basis from which continuing professional development and education can be enhanced This book was originally published as a special issue of Reflective Practice International and Multidisciplinary Perspectives Resources in Education ,1981 Research-based Principles for Adult Basic Education Reading Instruction John Kruidenier, 2002

This is a research report on the findings of the Partnership in Reading project. Its aim was to identify and evaluate existing research in adult literacy reading instruction and provide a summary of scientifically based principles and practices. Topics covered include Emerging principles, trends, ideas, and comments; Reading assessment profiles; Phonemic awareness and word analysis; Fluency; Vocabulary; Reading comprehension; Computer technology and ABE reading instruction. Varney's Midwifery Tekoa L. King, King, Mary C. Brucker, Jan M. Kriebs, Jenifer O. Fahey, 2013-10-21. Important Notice: The digital edition of this book is missing some of the images or content found in the physical edition. The gold standard for midwives and students is back with Varney's Midwifery Fifth Edition. New to this edition are chapters describing the profession of midwifery, reproductive physiology, clinical genetics, and support for women in labor. Interwoven throughout is information on primary care, gynecology, maternity care, and neonatal care. With chapters written by a variety of expert midwives and an increased emphasis on reproductive anatomy and physiology, this new edition assists students and clinicians in understanding not only what to do but why. Updated to reflect evidence-based care, this edition also discusses the pathophysiology of various conditions in the context of normal changes in the reproductive cycle. Also included are numerous new anatomical and clinical illustrations. ESL (ELL) Literacy Instruction Lee Gunderson, 2008-08. This comprehensive research-based text provides both ESL and mainstream teachers with the background and expertise necessary to plan and implement reading programs that match the particular needs and abilities of their students. ESL/ELL Literacy Instruction: A Guidebook for Theory and Practice Second Edition applies current ESL and reading research and theory to practice. It is designed for use by pre-service and in-service teachers at all levels from kindergarten to adult learners. It explains different models of literacy instruction.
