from 1882 to 1899 were among the most dramatic and hard fought in British military history In 1882 the British sent an expeditionary force to Egypt to quell the Arabic Revolt and secure British control of the Suez Canal its lifeline to India The enigmatic British Major General Charles G Gordon was sent to the Sudan in 1884 to study the possibility of evacuating Egyptian garrisons threatened by Muslim fanatics the dervishes in the Sudan While the dervishes defeated the British forces on a number of occasions the British eventually learned to combat the insurrection and ultimately largely through superior technology and firepower vanquished the insurgents in 1898 British Operations in Egypt and the Sudan A Selected Bibliography enumerates and generally describes and annotates hundreds of contemporary current and hard to find books journal articles government documents and personal papers on all aspects of British military operations in Egypt and the Sudan from 1882 to 1899 Arranged chronologically and topically chapters cover the various campaigns focusing on specific battles leading military personalities and the contributions of imperial nations as well as supporting services of the British Army This definitive volume is an indispensable reference for researching imperialism colonial history and British military operations leadership and tactics

A Photographic History of London's Ceremonial Regiments Ben Skipper, 2024-10-30 This richly illustrated volume tells the story of the seven regiments of the Household Division along with the supporting personalities and units of London District A subject as fascinating as it is multifarious From the key personalities responsible for the razor sharp execution of state ceremonial and public duties to the historical figures who helped establish and shape a military dynasty Travel through the history of the Household Division from its birth in 1660 with the restoration of Charles II to its role in establishing Britain's Special Forces It is a journey of political intrigue cementing empire and fighting terrorism From the founding fathers such as George Monck who laid the foundations for a professional British Army to adventurers like David Stirling and Sir Frederick Boy Browning the history of the Household Division is one of almost continuous action and innovation Supported by the honorable Artillery Company and the King's Troop The Royal Horse Artillery London's Ceremonial Regiments put the pomp in circumstance the distinction in battle and the sobriety in the sombre notes of The Last Post

Wellington's Foot Guards at Waterloo Robert Burnham, Ron McGuigan, 2018-11-30 During the Waterloo Campaign Wellington had only one division that was composed entirely of British infantry the 1st Division This consisted of two brigades of the most famous regiments of the British Army the three regiments of Guards The exploits of the Guards at Waterloo have passed into legend On that day Wellington entrusted the most crucial part of his line to the men he knew would hold their position at all cost That vital position was the Chateau d'Hougoumont and those men were the Guards As the great battle unfolded the French threw more and more troops at the walls of Hougoumont setting some of the Chateaus buildings on fire and almost forcing their way in through its northern gateway Though almost an entire French corps was engaged in the struggle for Hougoumont the detachment of the Guards valiantly resisted every attack Then as the battle reached its climax Napoleon launched his Imperial Guard at the centre of Wellingtons line Just as the French believed that victory was in their grasp up stood the 1st Guards Brigade to deliver a devastating volley followed by a ferocious bayonet charge from which the French never recovered The experienced duo of Robert Burnham and Ron McGuigan have compiled the first comprehensive study of the Guards Division throughout the entire Waterloo campaign from the initial deployment in Belgium to the Occupation of Paris The book also includes an explanation of the organisation and composition of the two brigades and personal details of many of the Guards officers the men who saved the day at Waterloo
