A Companion to the Anthropology of Religion Janice Boddy, Michael Lambek, 2015-12-14 A Companion to the Anthropology of Religion presents a collection of original ethnographically informed essays that explore the variety of beliefs practices and religious experiences in the contemporary world and asks how to think about religion as a subject of anthropological inquiry Presents a collection of original ethnographically informed essays exploring the wide variety of beliefs practices and religious experiences in the contemporary world Explores a broad range of topics including the perspectivism debate the rise of religious nationalism reflections on religion and new media religion and politics and ideas of self and gender in relation to religious belief Includes examples drawn from different religious traditions and from several regions of the world Features newly commissioned articles reflecting the most up to date research and critical thinking in the field written by an international team of leading scholars Adds immeasurably to our understanding of the complex relationships between religion culture society and the individual in today's world The Blackwell Companion to Sociology of Religion Richard K. Fenn, 2003-03-07 The Blackwell Companion to Sociology of Religion is presented in three comprehensive parts Written by a range of outstanding academics the volume explores the current status of the sociology of religion and how it might look in future Explores the current status of the sociology of religion and how it might look at the beginning of the next millennium Traces the boundaries between sociology and other closely related disciplines such as theology and social anthropology Edited by one of the best known and most widely respected sociologists of religion Accessibly presented in three comprehensive parts Christianity and the Limits of Materiality Minna Opas, Anna Haapalainen, 2017-06-29 Despite the fact that Christianity is understood to be thoroughly intertwined with matter objects and things Christians struggle to cope with this materiality in their daily lives This volume argues that the ambivalent relationships many Christians have with materiality is a driving force that contributes to the way people in different Christian traditions and in different parts of the world understand and live out their religion By placing the questions of limits and boundary work to the fore the volume addresses the question of exactly how Christianity takes place materially addressing a gap in studies to date Christianity and the Limits of Materiality presents ground breaking research on the frameworks and contexts in relation to and within which Christian logics of materiality operate The volume places the negotiations at the limits of materiality within the larger framework of Christian identities and politics of belonging The chapters discuss case studies from North and South America Europe and Africa and demonstrate that the limits preoccupying Christians delimit their lives but also enable many things Ultimately Christianity and the Limits of Materiality demonstrates that it is at the interfaces of materiality and the transcendent that Christians create and legitimise their religion Toward an Anthropology of Ambient Sound Christine Guillebaud, 2017-05-12 This volume approaches the issue of ambient sound through the ethnographic exploration of different cultural contexts including Italy India Egypt France Ethiopia Scotland Spain

Portugal and Japan It examines social religious and aesthetic conceptions of sound environments what types of action or agency are attributed to them and what bodies of knowledge exist concerning them Contributors shed new light on these sensory environments by focusing not only on their form and internal dynamics but also on their wider social and cultural environment The multimedia documents of this volume may be consulted at the address milson_fr@routledge_media

Systematic Theology and Climate Change Michael S. Northcott, Peter M. Scott, 2014-06-05 This book offers the first comprehensive systematic theological reflection on arguably the most serious issue facing humanity and other creatures today Responding to climate change is often left to scientists policy makers and activists but what understanding does theology have to offer In this collection the authors demonstrate that there is vital cultural and intellectual work for theologians to perform in responding to climate science and in commending a habitable way forward Written from a range of denominations and traditions yet with ecumenical intent the authors explore key Christian doctrines and engage with some of the profound issues raised by climate change Key questions considered include What may be said about the goodness of creation in the face of anthropogenic climate change And how does theology handle a projected future without the human The volume provides students and scholars with fascinating theological insight into the complexity of climate change

Diglossic Translanguaging Esther Jahns, 2024-05-06 This book examines how German speaking Jews living in Berlin make sense and make use of their multilingual repertoire With a focus on lexical variation the book demonstrates how speakers integrate Yiddish and Hebrew elements into German for indexing belonging and for positioning themselves within the Jewish community Linguistic choices are shaped by language ideologies e g authenticity prescriptivism nostalgia Speakers translanguange when using their multilingual repertoire but do so in a diglossic way using elements from different languages for specific domains Things: Dick Houtman, Birgit Meyer, 2012-09-12 The relation between religion and things has long been conceived in antagonistic terms privileging spirit above matter belief above ritual and objects meaning above form and inward contemplation above outward action This book addresses these issues

The Routledge Companion to Cultural Text and the Nation Sheera Talpaz, Anuradha Dingwaney Needham, 2025-03-31 The Routledge Companion to Cultural Text and the Nation brings together over 30 articles by leading and emerging scholars from around the world who engage fresh critical lenses from affect studies to the medical humanities and re energize established frameworks to examine the interplay between cultural production and conceptualizations of the nation and nationalism The scholarship in this volume takes as its objects of analysis various forms of aesthetic and cultural production from film and literature to museums and costume books enriching the conversation that has often siloed these forms Geared toward scholars graduate students and upper level undergraduates across the humanities and social sciences this timely interdisciplinary collection is issued at a critical juncture in the transformation of the nation and the global resurgence of regressive and populist nationalist movements Both offering new insights reorienting our understanding of canonical materials and bringing noncanonical works to light this volume challenges long held assumptions about the nation while establishing its continued significance and future possibilities Overture to Practical Theology Jeanne Stevenson-Moessner,2016-11-10 In Overture to Practical Theology Jeanne Stevenson Moessner takes a new route to introduce theology students and others to the field of practical theology Although she is certainly aware of relatively recent efforts to show the academic credentials of practical theology through careful definition citing that of David Tracy analysis of components and linkages to other disciplines within and without the overall framework of theology she proceeds by means of a double analogy rather than abstract academic precision to illumine practical theology Actual case studies also helpfully illumine aspects of her work From the Foreword by James N Lapsley The book examines biblical foundations historical roots and current manifestations of social justice ministry Stevenseon Moessner shows how practical theology addresses racism sexism violence anti Semitism ecological imbalance and life at the margins of society the vexing issues of today s ministry The Trinitarian Dharma Pabitra Mani

Bhandari,2025-02-25 As the gospel continues to spread to the farthest corners of the world the Christian faith encounters an array of diverse cultures religions philosophies and belief systems This encounter serves as a catalyst for transformation as Christianity both influences and is influenced by the new frontiers it reaches The book at hand endeavors to explore this dynamic process particularly focusing on the Trinitarian theology as a potent force for transformation Moreover it seeks to uncover the resonance between Christian concepts and the rich tapestry of Dharma thereby enhancing our understanding of the Trinity In essence this book serves as a pivotal example of how abstract theological ideas can be made relevant and meaningful in the context of a multicultural and multireligious world It embodies an approach to Christian theology that is both interreligious and interdisciplinary emanating from a global Christian perspective that embraces diversity and dialogue

The Oxford History of the Archaic Greek World Robin Osborne,2025-05-04 The ancient Greek world consisted of approximately 1 000 autonomous polities scattered across the Mediterranean basin and each one developed its own unique set of socio political institutions and social practices The Oxford History of the Archaic Greek World offers twenty two detailed studies of key sites from across the Greek world between c 750 and c 480 BCE a crucial period when much of what is now seen as distinctive about Greek culture emerged All the studies in this seven volume series use the same structure and methodology so that readers can easily compare a wide range of Greek communities The series thus offers a new and unique resource for the study of ancient Greece that will transform how we study and think about a crucial era in ancient Greek history Volume VI contains detailed and up to date studies of Rhodes Sicyon Syracuse Thebes and Western Sicily The ^AOxford History of the Archaic Greek World Paul Cartledge,Paul Christesen,2025-05-16 The ancient Greek world consisted of approximately 1 000 autonomous polities scattered across the Mediterranean basin and each one developed its own unique set of socio political institutions and social practices The Oxford History of the Archaic Greek World offers twenty two detailed studies of key sites from across the Greek world between c 750 and c 480 BCE a crucial period when much of

Der indische Online-Heiratsmarkt Fritz-Maria Titzmann, 2014-01-17 In Indien wirft das Thema Eheschließung Fragen individueller und kultureller Identität im Spannungsfeld von gesellschaftlichem Wandel und Kontinuität auf Am rasant wachsenden indischen Online Heiratsmarkt lassen sich diese Fragen besonders eindrücklich im Zusammenhang mit der Medienentwicklung diskutieren Die Autorin beschreibt die gleichzeitig global ausgerichteten aber als indisch konnotierten Online Heiratsmärkte und zeigt wie sich diese in die Ausdifferenzierungsprozesse der indischen und transnationalen Medienlandschaft einfügen In einem zweiten Schritt stellt sie Konzepte von Weiblichkeit und Ehe vor die diese Portale transportieren und analysiert den Umgang der Nutzerinnen mit den Erwartungen und Rollenklischees die Familie und Gesellschaft an sie herantragen

MasterClass in Religious Education Liam Francis Gearon, 2013-02-14 MasterClass in Religious Education provides a comprehensive exploration of the major themes in religious education research and pedagogy drawing on international research The author draws together historical theological religious and comparative and international perspectives to explore religious education's role in confronting controversial issues and the implications this has for teaching learning and research This book incorporates discussions of current post 9/11 debates on religion in the modern world focusing particularly on the relationship of religion to secular political contexts Liam Gearon pays close attention to debates around religion in liberal democratic societies looking at topics such as citizenship human rights and identity

The Logic of Love Andrew J. B. Cameron, 2022-12-29 Overviewing what makes the intersection between emotion and ethics so confusing this book surveys an older wisdom in how to manage it using a range of Christian theologians and sources More important even than managing we begin to see a vision for a better set of affections to grow within and among us In this vision emerges a practical and nuanced account of what the Christian tradition sometime summarises as love How may we recover a deep affection for what matters both within ourselves and together in groups This book also dialogues with a new movement in moral psychology social intuitionism Cameron argues that researchers in this discipline have interests and conclusions that sometimes overlap with Christian sources even where their respective lenses differ In this way the book overviews recent trends in moral psychology against a recent historical and contemporary cultural backdrop whilst assaying major sources in Christian theology that offer guidance on moral psychology

Ancient Near Eastern Iconography and the Bible Hans Ulrich Steytmann, 2024-10-31 Examines the dilemma of whether ancient Near Eastern images while providing unique aspects of the world views of the cultures from which the Bible arose can be interpreted in a way that traceably relates them to the biblical text To avoid the danger of using images merely as illustrations for concepts found in the Bible one first needs to behold the image with its own right to be seen The essays within this volume describe the methods developed by Othmar Keel for bringing imagery into a dialogue with texts from the ancient Orient and their own interpretation including previously unpublished material from Keel The contributions begin with an overview of the scholarly work of Keel and the development of his aims and methods including a revision of an article dealing with semiology in the interpretation of art The book proceeds to address the research history of iconology in art history presenting the methodology of Erwin Panofsky and one of his influential predecessors Charles Clermont Ganneau in contrast with Keel's three methodological steps leading from iconographic analysis to iconology Contributors then present two case studies of how Keel's method can be applied to interpret Egyptian and Mesopotamian images allowing insights into the worldview of an ancient culture and the aim of iconology The book concludes with a report about how iconographic analysis and iconology is taught on University level

The Digitalised Image of God Ximian Xu, 2024-10-08 This book focuses on the idea of the imago Dei to engaging theologically with artificial intelligence AI It reflects on how enormous progress in the development of AI has raised some challenges to Christian theology Questions explored include is AI created in the imago Dei If so does AI challenge the uniqueness of the human being as the imago Dei If not could AI be incorporated into human communities as a human companion in the same way as a natural human person Would AI eventually develop to have human level consciousness and be capable of performing liturgies and ethical actions Bringing to light the radical distinction between the imago Dei and the imago hominis the book constructs a theo-ontological foundation for AI and draws on the Reformed theology of archetype as a metaphysical tool to deploy a holistic account of the imago Dei in theology AI dialogues The author argues that the imago Dei is the signifier of the beginning both of God-human stories and stories of human ethical performances towards others From the perspective of the image of the imago Dei it can be argued that AI can somehow participate into the narration of these religious and ethical stories This book will be of particular interest to scholars of theology and those working in the field of religion and science technology

Living More Human(e)ly? Rebecca Leong, 2025-04-22 Does it really matter who one chooses to marry and how one makes a choice as to who to marry or is it basically true that you always marry the wrong person Was Jane Austen right in her portrayals of couples marrying for love for comfort or for both What about arranged marriages Does the one exist How about soulmates Will getting involved in casual sex or hook-up culture affect one's chances of eventually realizing happy lifelong monogamy Are promoters of purity culture basically right that their approach will help lead to happy lasting marriages Can there be a way forward through the culture wars Are dating apps any good Virtue ethics is sometimes drawn upon for a dependable approach to couple relationships But what does this approach consist of and which virtues as there are potentially very many should one focus on particularly when navigating dating culture in contemporary contexts What light might theology history and the human sciences including sociology and psychology shed on these matters Rebecca Leong offers findings from wide ranging interdisciplinary studies that address these questions and more in the process developing a five fold ethic and further building blocks for better approaches to dating in contemporary contexts

Die Mediävistik und ihr Mittelalter Jan-Hendryk de Boer, Marcel Bubert, Katharina Ulrike Mersch, 2024-11-04 In den letzten Jahren wurde die Diskussion inwiefern es ein Mittelalter gegeben habe mit neuer Energie gefüllt Dabei kamen die bewährten Vorbehalte gegen Epocheneinteilungen zur Sprache die Eindeutigkeit und Strukturiertheit suggerieren wo eine detailorientierte Forschung eher Ambiguitäten und fließende Übergänge konstatiert Der Sammelband ordnet die aktuellen Debatten darüber was das Mittelalter sei und ob es sich hierbei überhaupt um ein tragfähiges Konzept handele in die Geschichte der mediävistischen Fächer ein und strebt darüber an Perspektiven für eine Neuausrichtung der Mittelalterforschung zu eröffnen Die Frage welchen Themen sich die Mediävistik widmet und widmen sollte lässt sich nicht unabhängig von ihrem historisch gewachsenen Selbstverständnis im Gesamt der Disziplinen und gegenber öffentlichen Debatten beantworten Jede Antwort wirkt dabei zurück auf die Methodologie weshalb die Beiträge inhaltliche konzeptionelle und methodologische Probleme gemeinsam verhandeln Auf diese Weise werden nicht nur Geschichten von dem Mittelalter und der Mediävistik erzählt sondern auch Wege skizziert wie es mit der Mediävistik und ihrem Mittelalter weitergehen könnte
