First Defense David Hopkins, 2015 We all have a built in weapon system called anxiety This book will teach you how to use anxiety as a personal weapon to achieve awareness and avoidance which are the first two steps learned in self defense preparedness training making you more effective and more successful at facing a physical or mental enemy no matter how large or small they may be A History of Love and Hate in 21 Statues Peter Hughes, 2021-09-14 From antiquity to the present day this book offers a fascinating insight into the histories movements and conflicts which have come to shape our world viewed through the stories of the destruction of 21 statues Confederate soldiers hacked to pieces A British slave trader dumped in the river An Aboriginal warrior twice beheaded A Chinese philosopher consumed by fire A Greek goddess left to rot in the desert Statues stand as markers of collective memory connecting us to a shared sense of belonging When societies fracture into warring tribes we convince ourselves that the past is irredeemably evil So we tear down our statues But what begins with the destruction of statues ends with the killing of people This remarkable book is a compelling history of love and hate spanning every continent religion and era told through the destruction of 21 statues Peter Hughes original approach blending philosophy psychology and history explores how these symbols of our identity give us more than an understanding of our past In the wars that rage around them they may also hold the key to our future The 21 statues are Hatshepsut Ancient Egypt Nero Suffolk UK Athena Syria Buddhas of Bamiyan Afghanistan Hecate Constantinople Our Lady of Caversham near Reading UK Huitzilopochtli Mexico Confucius China Louis XV France Mendelssohn Germany The Confederate Monument US Sir John A Macdonald Canada Christopher Columbus Venezuela Edward Colston Bristol UK Cecil Rhodes South Africa George Washington US Stalin Hungary Yagan Australia Saddam Hussein Iraq B R Ambedkar India and Frederick Douglass US A History of Love and Hate in 21 Statues is a profound and necessary meditation on identity which resonates powerfully today as statues tumble around the world Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1955-04 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Contemporary Society John A Perry,Erna K Perry,2016-04-14 This best selling text emphasizes why social and cultural changes are the pervasive realities of our time A key theme of Contemporary Society is that the transition from an industrial to a post industrial order in today s world is fraught with difficulties as was the transition from an agricultural to an industrial order in an earlier era Within this framework we can observe the increasing fragmentation of the social order today which tends to lead people away from community and a common purpose more often bringing conflict and disunity Still countervailing social forces are also at work providing some stability some shelter in a sea of change Ever more societies are faced with the rapid and transformative power of information technology which helps propel separate groups of people into a global entity This introduction to the social sciences shows what the authors have learned from such disciplines as anthropology geography history sociology psychology political science and economics and how to apply social science approaches to an ever faster tempo of change The authors cover family life interaction with others racial and ethnic diversity education religion population environment and many other topics analyzed in a student friendly approach New to this Edition The integration and flow of the text has been improved for better student comprehension Expanded selection of Web Links to many more sites for student research many relevant to their interests and entertainment choices Enriched focus on applying social science knowledge to current events transcending a complete reliance on assumptions from the media New expanded coverage on topics throughout the book including New findings from global warming research and its implications for social life and policy New developments in race relations in an integrated approach throughout many chapters Deepening inequality and the implications that threaten family education and student futures nationally and globally Gender including new developments in legal gay marriage and transgender Expanded coverage of genetics and the medical potential of human genome sequencing New developments in astrophysics and their potential implications for society Updated Statistics throughout
