South Asian Pornographies Darshana Sreedhar Mini, Anirban K. Baishya, 2024-06-21 South Asian Pornographies is the first consolidated volume that explores the relationships between pornography obscenity law and desire in South Asia. Focusing on case studies from India Sri Lanka and Bangladesh while gesturing towards other countries in South Asia the authors of this volume come from fields as varied as history literature media and communication and the visual arts. The book proposes that as a geo political location South Asia has a unique relationship to pornography given the multiplicity of cultural and legal censorial regimes that define the obscene and the permissible. South Asian case studies can demonstrate how pornography in the region is often defined in oblique terms finding reflection in various modes of popular and sometimes underground culture bypassing legal and censorial constraints. Like questions of identity that can only be answered in the plural identities rather than identity this book demonstrates how a range of pornographies constitutes the force field of sexualized media in South Asia. It will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of Communication Studies Cultural Studies Film Studies History Sociology and Social and Cultural Anthropology. The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Porn Studies.

The Neoliberal Self in Bollywood Namrata Rele Sathe, 2024-02-21 This book explores the consequences of unbridled expansion of neoliberal values within India through the lens of popular film and culture. The focus of the book is the neoliberal self which far from being a stable marker of urban liberal millennial Indian identity has a schizophrenic quality one that is replete with contradictions and oppositions unable to sustain the weight of its own need for self promotion optimism and belief in a narrative of progress and prosperity that has marked mainstream cultural discourse in India. The unstable and schizophrenic neoliberal identity that is the concern of this book however belies this narrative and lays bare the sense of precarity and inherent inequality that neoliberal regimes confer upon their subjects. The analysis is explicitly political and draws upon theories of feminist media studies popular culture analyses and film studies to critique mainstream Hindi cinema texts produced in the last two decades. Rele Sathe also examines a variety of other peripheral texts in her analysis such as the film star the urban space web series YouTube videos and social media content.

Yuva India Ray Titus, 2015-02-25 Yuva India takes a deep dive into the lives of India's young men and women. In unravelling what makes them tick the book uncovers the phenomenon of attitudinal convergence that is rapidly growing across youth cohorts in India. Tracing its origin to the arrival of and exposure to a composite culture the research behind convergence zeroes in on how a young India is defining itself using new age sensibilities. Drawing on insights collected over a decade Ray documents and analyses how young men and women in India approach issues of identity image sexuality spirituality personal relevance social connections and community and professional pursuits. In a one of a kind analysis using comprehensive data from across the nation Ray scrutinizes young India's psyche to make sense of their aspirations.
