Violent Class Struggles and The Need for Revolutionary Change: Anti-WTO Organized Labor Protest vs Seattle Police

Marco T. Ntobi, 2016-04-28 In this book I have attempted to trace as clearly and briefly as I can the nature of the capitalist and imperialist systems and the rising world class struggles against it a bitter life and death conflicts which are now only in their middle phase Much in this book of course has been said before and has been happening and it will be said again and again in many different ways by many different people before this enormous conflict is finally resolved The whole purpose of revolutionary violence is to destroy at its very roots the institutionalized system of greed which is also the institutionalized system of violence Today with the phoney cry of law and order the rulers of the imperialist nations attempt to throw the onus of violence on those who are protesting the system under which they live But the onus is not on them for violence is the near monopoly of the state apparatus Writing this book primarily has been a very important experience for me Testimony

Paul W. Kahn, 2021-04-01 On her seventy fifth birthday the author s mother confessed to an affair more than three decades past His father s response was unforgiving Her need to confess met his limitless rage She acted out of love he sought revenge Their battle consumed everything and everyone around them In the middle of this struggle she was diagnosed with cancer Two years later she died Testimony is a son s memoir of this struggle Paul Kahn finds here a story of the twentieth century beginning with poverty in the Depression and immigration from Hitler s Germany He follows his father s experience of the war and his return with PTSD He traces his parents movement through the turbulent 60s More than a study of twentieth century culture Testimony is a philosophical inquiry into the possibility of faith in a secular age History philosophy and theology flow together as Kahn finds in his parents lives the resources for a series of essays on the nature of truth memory death and faith Testimony is most of all a meditation on love in a time in which the very possibility of faith is constantly put to the test Struggling Russia, 1920 History of the Great Reformation of the Sixteenth Century in political violence give testimonies in families and communities trials and truth commissions religious institutions psychotherapies newspapers documentaries artworks and even in solitude Through spoken written and visual images survivors testimonies tell stories that may change history politics and life itself In this book Stevan Weine a psychiatrist and scholar in the field of mental health and human rights focuses on the testimony of survivors for the hope it might hold hope expressed by survivors again and again that no matter what horrors or humiliations they have endured some good might come of their stories It is through the thinking of Mikhail Bakhtin and his approach to narrative that Weine seeks to read the testimony of survivors of political violence from four different twentieth century historical nightmares and to read them as the stories they are meant to be fully conveying their legitimacy resourcefulness power and finally hope A deeply involving compassionate occasionally confrontational blend of practical hands on experience and dialogic theory emerging from the author s decade long work in Europe and Chicago with survivors of the Balkan wars this book is committed to the proposition that efforts to use testimony to address the consequences of political violence can be strengthened though by no means guaranteed if they are based on a fuller acknowledgment of the personal and ethical elements embodied in the narrative essence of testimony These elements are what Testimony after Catastrophe seeks to reveal
