Only Apparently Real Paul Williams, 1999-07 Our Sense of the Real Kimberley Curtis, 1999 This bold and persuasive study rereads the works of Hannah Arendt to recuperate her relevance to contemporary politics and to show that her deepest concerns are oriented by her ontology Kimberley Curtis interprets Arendt's earlier work through the lenses of The Life of the Mind elucidating what Curtis calls an aesthetic sensibility of tragic pleasure as a way out of the enclave politics of late modernity Arguing that oblivion and radical forgetfulness of others are among the most ethically troubling features of our political landscape Curtis shows that Arendt's aesthetic account of politics offers us an idiom in which to name and resist the depravations and dangers of our political condition Curtis also elucidates Arendt's debt to phenomenology and argues that our sense of reality is born through highly charged sensuous provocation and mutual responsiveness Arendt's innovation is to recognize that this countenancing of others is an aesthetic experience that creates the political world Curtis plumbs the relevance of this work in current issues such as gated communities for the privileged and prisons for the disenfranchised and in the extraordinary relationship between a black civil rights leader and a Ku Klux Klan officer Our Sense of the Real is a poetic invocation of Arendt's politics at once lively passionate and crucial The Method of Early Advaita Vedānta Michael Comans, 2000 This is a unique work discussing the teachings of four of the great Advaita Acaryas Gaudapada Sankara and his two disciples Suresvara and Padmapada The first three chapters are concerned with the teachings of Gaudapada These chapters refer to most of Between Heaven and Earth Fred Van Dyke, 2010-07-01 The first comprehensive survey of Christian environmental ethics and activism offers a Christian understanding of environmental conservation protection and stewardship that speaks directly to ongoing environmental issues There are many books on Christian environmental ethics but none provides a clear and thorough analysis of the history of the church's understanding of and practices toward the care of creation In addition to filling this important void Between Heaven and Earth Christian Perspectives on Environmental Protection is also unique in at least two ways First it frames Christian responses to ethical questions as they are understood by modern conservation ethicists Second it addresses issues of conservation management and policy as they really exist This captivating volume begins by framing the complex interaction between ethics environment and faith and the relation of that interaction to questions of environmental ethics Subsequent chapters illuminate a biblical understanding of the human relationship to nature and the church's teachings and practices regarding that relationship illustrated through the lives of scholars and saints The book concludes with an examination of the ways in which Christian practice and teaching can shape environmental policy today and the ways in which partnerships can be built between the church and the environmental community One Text, Thousand Methods Patrick Chatelion Counet, Ulrich Berges, 2021-08-30 Essays in this volume describe the shift in biblical exegesis within the last several decades from the interpretation of biblical texts as the outcome of historical development or diachronic methodology to the exploration of the text as the result of a reading process rather than a historical process or synchronic methodology Each essay examines a text from the Old or New Testament through the lens of one of the many modern synchronic methods used in postmodern literary interpretation The methods discussed include ideology criticism semantic and poetic analysis cognitive linguistics drama theory narratology deconstruction and anthropology and intertextuality The authors of this work challenge biblical scholars not to just perform exegesis but to explore the methods and aims underlying their interpretations

Democracy and the Political Unconscious Noëlle McAfee, 2008 Democracy and the Political Unconscious is rich in theoretical insights but it is also grounded in the practical problems of those who are trying to process the traumas of oppression terror and brutality and create more decent and democratic societies Jacket Space, Gender, and Memory in Middle English Romance Jan Shaw, 2016-08-29 This book offers a much needed consideration of Melusine within medieval and contemporary theories of space memory and gender The Middle English Melusine offers a particularly rich source for such a study as it presents the story of a powerful fairy human woman who desires a full human life and death within a literary tradition that is more friendly to women's agency than its continental counterparts After establishing a textual habitus of wonder Jan Shaw explores the tale in relation to a range of Middle English traditions including love and marriage the spatial practices of women the operation of individual and collective memory and the legacies of patrimony Melusine emerges as a complex figure representing a multifaceted feminine subject that furthers our understanding of Middle English women's sense of self in the world

All Things Are Full of Gods David Bentley Hart, 2024-08-27 A world renowned philosopher's genre defying exploration of the mystery of consciousness In a blossoming garden located far outside all worlds a group of aging Greek gods have gathered to discuss the nature of existence the mystery of mind and whether there is a transcendent God from whom all things come Turning to Eros Psyche asks Do you see this flower my love So begins David Bentley Hart s unprecedented exploration of the mystery of consciousness Writing in the form of a Platonic dialogue he systematically subjects the mechanical view of nature that has prevailed in Western culture for four centuries to dialectical interrogation Powerfully rehabilitating a classical view in which mental acts are irreducible to material causes he argues through the gods exchanges that the foundation of all reality is spiritual or mental rather than material The structures of mind organic life and even language together attest to an infinite act of intelligence in all things that we may as well call God Engaging contemporary debates on the philosophy of mind free will revolutions in physics and biology the history of science computational models of mind artificial intelligence information theory linguistics cultural disenchantment and the metaphysics of nature Hart calls readers back to an enchanted world in which nature is the residence of mysterious and vital intelligences He suggests that there is a very special wisdom to be gained when we in Psyche s words devote more time to the contemplation of living things and less to the fabrication of machines

Barth in Conversation Karl Barth,Eberhard Busch,2018-12-04 Karl Barth is widely regarded as the most important theologian of the twentieth century and his observations about the church and its place in a modern world continue to engage religious scholars nearly fifty years after his death This English translation of the Swiss published Conversations is a three volume collection featuring correspondence articles interviews and other short form writings by Barth from 1959 1962 Among them are dialogues with representatives of the Evangelical Community Movement 1959 conversations with prison chaplains and a question and answer session with the Conference of the World Student Christian Federation 1960 discussions with Methodist preachers Zurich pastors and Catholic students of theology 1961 press conferences in New York and Chicago 1962 and an interview at the United Nations 1962 Within these pages scholars and students will find a comprehensive view into Barth's life and thinking about theology and its role in society today Confessions of a Dying Mind Haulian Guite, 2017-06-20 For thousands of years philosophers have been struggling to prove God To modern atheists these are monumental failures Atheism then is the rational position Or is it By combining the most sophisticated philosophies falsification scientific method confirmation holism with the most advanced sciences quantum relativity evolution theories Confessions Of A Dying Mind takes a fresh look at this oldest and profoundest anxiety of man Uniquely the book is a novelized nonfiction indeed the first philosophical novel on God The story is set in the near death experience of the atheistic protagonist Albert Dyers Its central plot proceeds as an adventurous investigation argument after argument till a certain conclusion becomes inescapable Confessions is laced with novel ideas found nowhere else It is narrated in a highly readable language for all educated laypersons to comprehend with relative ease The book is therefore a must read for theists atheists and everyone else interested in exploring the relationship of God and science in light of leading developments Real War Games Inc. Michelle Hamilton, 2014-12-14 I was on a bus full of sociopaths The trouble was I had volunteered to be here Had I only known I lamented for the hundredth time since I'd boarded this small bus emblazoned with the Real War Games Inc logo at the Denver International Airport I never would have gotten off my plane from New York never would have registered online six months ago never would have followed through with this harebrained idea in the first place But I had thinking that somehow I would be able to understand to discover the answer to the question that had begun to consume me more than a year ago when my twin brother had died in Iraq What need had driven Brian to join the army a decision that had resulted in his death So I was here in order to understand And hopefully find some way of moving on with my life Although I couldn't imagine how to that without Brian But somehow instead I'd ended up not on a bus with the other participants in this game but with sociopaths Where had I gone wrong The Circle of Fire P.J. Mazumdar, 2009-11-30 The Circle of Fire examines the eternal metaphysical questions What is God and What is the purpose of life The book discusses the answers to these questions given by Western science and different schools of Indian thought specifically detailing the answers to be found in India's two most developed atheistic traditions Hinduism and Buddhism Representative of a generation of Indians who have grown up with the best in scientific education and spiritual values author P J Mazumdar takes a hard look at religion science and how two seemingly divergent bodies of knowledge can be brought together Like Deepak Chopra a generation earlier Mazumdar is both a medical doctor and a member of a family steeped in Hindu tradition and is therefore well placed to elucidate ancient Indian philosophy to the modern analytical mind Acknowledging the metaphysical insights to be found in both Western science and Eastern spirituality Mazumdar pays special attention to the highest school of philosophy of Hinduism Advaita and its application to practical spirituality through the teachings and practice of Yoga The book takes its structure from the Vedas and is similarly divided into Jnanakanda Knowledge and Karmakanda Actions the first part examines the body of knowledge from European and Indian sources addressing the question of God and the second part looks at practical ways of applying this knowledge through different schools of Hindu and Buddhist philosophy The book explores the purest form of nondual Hindu philosophy Advaita and points out how the theories underpinning Buddhism and Advaita although they appear to contradict each other are the only theories that remain consistent with the findings of modern science The author makes the brave assertion that ultimately one or the other will be the theory realized by science as the ultimate metaphysical truth Like other books on the meeting of science and spirituality Fritzjof Capra s 80s classic The Tao of Physics and the necessity of a scientifically compatible notion of God Richard Dawkin s The God Delusion The Circle of Fire is ambitious in scope and a challenging rewarding read

The Renaissance and the Postmodern Thomas L Martin, Duke Pesta, 2016-05-05 The Renaissance and the Postmodern reconsiders postmodern readings of Renaissance texts by engaging in a dialectics the authors call comparative critical values Rather than concede the contemporary hierarchy of theory over literature the book takes the novel approach of consulting major Renaissance writers about the values at work in postmodern representations of early modern culture As criticism seeks new directions and takes new forms insufficient attention has been paid to the literary and philosophical values won and lost in the exchanges One result is that the way we understand the logical connections the literary textures and the philosophical impulses that make up the literature of writers like Spenser Shakespeare and Milton has fundamentally changed Examining theoretical debates now in light of polemical controversies then the book goes beyond earlier studies in that it systematically examines the effects of these newer critical approaches across their materialist historicist deconstructive and psychoanalytic manifestations Bringing gravity and focus to this question of critical continuities and discontinuities each chapter counterposes one major Renaissance voice with a postmodern one to probe these issues and with them the value of the cultural past As voices on both sides of the historical divide illuminate key differences between the Renaissance and the Postmodern a critical model emerges from the book to re engage this period s humane literature in a contemporary context with intellectual rigor and a renewed sense of cultural enrichment

Moment of Action Murray Pomerance, 2016-05-09 There are hundreds of biographies of filmstars and dozens of scholarly works on acting in general But what about the ephemeral yet indelible moments when for a brief scene or even just a single shot an actor's performance triggers a visceral response in the viewer Moment of Action delves into the mysteries of screen performance revealing both the acting techniques and the technical apparatuses that coalesce in an instant of cinematic alchemy to create movie gold Considering a range of acting styles while examining films as varied as Bringing Up Baby Psycho The Red Shoes Godzilla and The Bourne Identity Murray Pomerance traces the common dynamics that work to structure the complex relationship between the act of cinematic performance and its eventual perception Mining the spaces where subjective and objective analyses merge Pomerance offers both a deeply personal account of film viewership and a detailed examination of the intuitive gestures orchestrated movements and backstage maneuvers that go into creating those phenomenal moments onscreen Moment of Action takes us on an innovative exploration of the nexus at which the actor's keen skills spark and kindle the audience's receptive energies

Cryptic Subtexts in Literature and Film Steven F Walker, 2018-07-17 One of the primary objectives of comparative literature is the study of the relationship of texts also known as intertextuality which is a means of contextualizing and analyzing the way literature grows and flourishes through inspiration and imitation direct or indirect When the inspiration and imitation is direct and obvious the study of this rapport falls into the more restricted category of hypertextuality What the author has labeled a cryptic subtext however is an extreme case of hypertextuality It involves a series of allusions to another text that have been deliberately inserted by the author into the primary text as potential points of reference This book takes a deep dive into a broad array of literature and film to explore these allusions and the hidden messages therein
