Congress. Joint Select Committee on the Condition of Affairs in the Late Insurrectionary States,1872 Russian Studies, Political Science, and the Philosophy of Technology* Guoli Liu, Joanna Drzewieniecki, 2022-04-18 This volume presents state of the art creative scholarship in political science and area studies with an emphasis on Russia The contributors all well known in their specialties share the conviction that advancement in the social sciences can only be achieved through plural methodological approaches and interaction with various disciplines Their work in this collection provides critical analyses of key issues in Russian and post Soviet studies It explores the most fruitful ways of studying Russia with particular emphasis on the federal system politics in the era of Putin challenges of Russian foreign policy and Russian attitudes toward democracy The vagaries of democracy are also explored in articles on Georgia and Turkey Additionally this book examines the philosophy of technology with an emphasis on critical theory eco domination and engineering ethics The Politics of the Impure Joke Brouwer, Arjen Mulder, Lars Spuybroek, 2010 Summary It is crucial to understand that our progression through the twentieth century towards our contemporary global Crystal Palace Peter Sloterdijk of purity and transparency has been constantly accompanied by an almost physical desire for the pure not just Mondrian s crystalline structures but also the addictive taste of white sugar and white bread This book investigates this urge for the pure but also advocates a much deeper need for the impure not to reinstate a new organicism one more back to nature movement but to trace that progression to a point where all modernist values reverse where technology becomes an agent for the impure and the imperfect Technology long an agent for homogeneity and purity is now turning into one for heterogeneity and global contingency Politics and Racism

Beyond Nations J. P. Linströth, 2022-01-18 This book brings together theoretical knowledge from diverse fields as anthropology biology neurology peace studies political science psychology and sociology to address key challenges that transcend borders It demonstrates how differences are created on many levels to reveal how the othering project is evident through national policies of immigration through aspiring nationalisms through genocidal inhumanity and the subsequent effects of such othering evident in racial trauma It further argues that we cannot limit our understanding of racism to forms of white nationalism or whiteness movements in the developed world and regions but look to the global formulation of such discrimination in colonial histories The book introduces each chapter by providing rich ethnographic narratives from informants based upon the author's research on nationalism racism genocide terrorism trauma scientific tolerance and love and peace as well as some auto ethnographic narratives from the author's research on these themes Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1998 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 The Saturday

The Politics of Readjustment Wilbur J. Scott, Veterans of all wars face a demanding task in readjusting to civilian life Vietnam veterans have borne an additional burden having returned from a controversial war that ended in defeat for the United States and South Vietnam To address this situation leaders among the Vietnam veterans and their allies formed organizations of their own to articulate their problems and extract concessions from a reluctant Congress Federal agencies and courts Scott a former infantry platoon leader in Vietnam describes the major social movements among his fellow veterans during the period of 196 to 1990 in a lively narrative combining personal interviews with documentary and press records Included in the book are the sociological stories of protests against the war in Operations RAW and Dewey Canyon III the successful effort to place post traumatic stress disorder PTSD in the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual Third Edition DSM III of the American Psychiatric Association the building of the National Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington D C despite fierce opposition and the long running controversy over the herbicide Agent Orange In the last chapter the author details the sociological thinking that informs his stories and develops the implications for understanding social movements in general and veterans issues in particular Cobbett's Weekly Political Register ,1803 The Canadian Magazine of Politics, Science, Art & Literature ,1910 Irish Political Prisoners 1848-1922 Professor Sean McConville,2005-08-19 This is the most wide ranging study ever published of political violence and the punishment of Irish political offenders from 1848 to the founding of the Irish Free State in 1922 Those who chose violence to advance their Irish nationalist beliefs ranged from gentlemen revolutionaries to those who openly embraced terrorism or even full scale guerilla war Se n McConville provides a comprehensive survey of Irish revolutionary struggle matching chapters on punishment of offenders with descriptions and analysis of their campaigns Government s response to political violence was determined by a number of factors including not only the nature of the offences but also interest and support from the United States and Australia as well as current objectives of Irish policy
