Keithly, 2021-09-15 The World Today Series USA and The World describes not only what happened but puts events in the context of the past and criticizes policy actions as appropriate The result goes deeper than most of what appears in current publications Updated annually and part of the renowned World Today Series USA and the World presents an unusually penetrating look into America and its relationship to the rest of the world The combination of factual accuracy and up to date detail along with its informed projections make this an outstanding resource for researchers practitioners in international development media professionals government officials potential investors and students Now in its 16th edition the content is thorough yet perfect for a one semester introductory course or general library reference Accountability for Mass Starvation Bridget Conley, Alex De Waal, Catriona Murdoch, Wayne Jordash QC, 2022 This volume explores how famine and mass starvation in our lifetime are the result of man made policies and invariably occur during times of armed conflict It provides expert analysis on defining starvation early warning systems gender and mass starvation the use of sanctions reporting on and memory of famine The USA and The World 2022-2023 David M. Keithly, 2022-08-15 The World Today Series USA and The World describes not only what happened but puts events in the context of the past and criticizes policy actions as appropriate The result goes deeper than most of what appears in current publications Updated annually and part of the renowned World Today Series USA and the World presents an unusually penetrating look into America and its relationship to the rest of the world The combination of factual accuracy and up to date detail along with its informed projections make this an outstanding resource for researchers practitioners in international development media professionals government officials potential investors and students Now in its 17th edition the content is thorough yet perfect for a one semester introductory course or general library reference The USA and The World 2017-2018 David M. Keithly, 2017-08-25 Instant interpretive history is a difficult and demanding task and certainly more of an art than some would suggest USA and the World describes not only what happened but puts events in the context of the past and criticizes policy actions as appropriate The result goes deeper than most of what appears in current publications Updated annually and part of the renowned World Today Series USA and the World presents an unusually penetrating look into America and its relationship to the rest of the world The combination of factual accuracy and up to date detail along with its informed projections make this an outstanding resource for researchers practitioners in international development media professionals government officials potential investors and students Now in its 13th edition the content is thorough yet perfect for a one semester introductory course or general library reference Available in both print and e book formats and priced low to fit student budgets The USA and The World 2023-2024 David M. Keithly, 2023-07-20 The World Today Series USA and

The World describes not only what happened but puts events in the context of the past and criticizes policy actions as appropriate The result goes deeper than most of what appears in current publications Updated annually and part of the renowned World Today Series USA and the World presents an unusually penetrating look into America and its relationship to the rest of the world The combination of factual accuracy and up to date detail along with its informed projections make this an outstanding resource for researchers practitioners in international development media professionals government officials potential investors and students Now in its 18th edition the content is thorough yet perfect for a one semester introductory course or general library reference Extralegal Groups in Post-Conflict Liberia Christine Cheng, 2018-05-11 In the aftermath of the Liberian civil war groups of ex combatants seized control of natural resource enclaves in the rubber diamond and timber sectors With some of them threatening a return to war these groups were widely viewed as the most significant threats to Liberia's hard won peace Building on fieldwork and socio historical analysis this book shows how extralegal groups are driven to provide basic governance goods in their bid to create a stable commercial environment This is a story about how their livelihood strategies merged with the opportunities of Liberia's post war political economy But it is also a context specific story that is rooted in the country's geography its history of state making and its social and political practices This volume demonstrates that extralegal groups do not emerge in a vacuum In areas of limited statehood where the state is weak and political authority is contested where rule of law is corrupted and government distrust runs deep extralegal groups can provide order and dispute resolution forming the basic kernel of the state This logic counters the prevailing spoiler narrative forcing us to reimagine non state actors and recast their roles as incidental statebuilders in the evolutionary process of state making This leads to a broader argument it is trade rather than war that drives contemporary statebuilding Along the way this book poses some uncomfortable questions about what it means to be legitimately governed whether our trust in states is ultimately misplaced whether entrenched corruption is the most likely post conflict outcome and whether our expectations of international peacebuilding and statebuilding are ultimately self defeating Myanmar (Burma) since the 1988 Uprising Andrew Selth, 2022-01-24 Updated by popular demand this is the fourth edition of this important bibliography It lists a wide selection of works on or about Myanmar published in English and in hard copy since the 1988 pro democracy uprising which marked the beginning of a new era in Myanmar's modern history There are now 2 727 titles listed They have been written edited translated or compiled by over 2 000 people from many different backgrounds These works have been organized into thirty five subject chapters containing ninety five discrete sections There are also four appendices including a comprehensive reading guide for those unfamiliar with Myanmar or who may be seeking guidance on particular topics This book is an invaluable aid to officials scholars journalists armchair travellers and others with an interest in this fascinating but deeply troubled country

The International Legal Protection of Persons in Humanitarian Crises Dug Cubie, 2017-04-20 The instinctual desire to support those in need irrespective of geographic cultural or religious links is both facilitated and overwhelmed by the extent of information now available about the multiple humanitarian crises which occur on a daily basis around the world Behind the images of devastating floods and earthquakes or massive forced displacements resulting from armed conflicts is the all too real suffering faced by individuals and families From the 2004 Indian Ocean Tsunami to the on going conflict in Syria recent years have seen an increasing debate regarding the international legal mechanisms to protect persons in such humanitarian crises The International Legal Protection of Persons in Humanitarian Crises argues that an acquis humanitaire is identifiable through the interconnected web of existing and emerging international regional and national laws policies and practices for the protection of persons caught up in humanitarian crises Indeed the humanitarian imperative to alleviate suffering wherever it may be found permeates various branches of international law and is reflected in the extensive humanitarian activities undertaken by States and other actors in times of armed conflict population displacement and disaster Dug Cubie argues that by clarifying the conceptual framework and normative content of the acquis humanitaire gaps and lacunae can be identified and the overall protection of persons strengthened

Cities Under Siege Stephen Graham, 2011-11-01 Cities are the new battleground of our increasingly urban world From the slums of the global South to the wealthy financial centers of the West Cities Under Siege traces the spread of political violence through the sites spaces infrastructure and symbols of the world's rapidly expanding metropolitan areas Drawing on a wealth of original research Stephen Graham shows how Western militaries and security forces now perceive all urban terrain as a conflict zone inhabited by lurking shadow enemies Urban inhabitants have become targets that need to be continually tracked scanned and controlled Graham examines the transformation of Western armies into high tech urban counter insurgency forces He looks at the militarization and surveillance of international borders the use of security concerns to suppress democratic dissent and the enacting of legislation to suspend civilian law In doing so he reveals how the New Military Urbanism permeates the entire fabric of urban life from subway and transport networks hardwired with high tech command and control systems to the insidious militarization of a popular culture corrupted by the all pervasive discourse of terrorism

Mobile Learning Communities Patrick Alan Danaher, Beverley Moriarty, Geoff Danaher, 2009-06-01 Mobile Learning Communities explores the diverse ways in which traveling groups experience learning on the run This book provides empirical evidence that draws on the authors 17 years of continuing research with international occupational Travelers It engages with themes such as workplace learning globalization multiliteracies and emerging technologies which impinge on the ways mobile groups make sense of themselves as learning communities International in focus this book deals with an issue of increasing global significance and shows the complexities of the lives and learning experiences of such mobile cultures and their strategies for earning learning and living thus challenging simplistic and stereotypical images of traveling groups still found in mainstream media and popular culture Mobile Learning Communities brings together for the first time mobilities and learning communities into a single and comprehensive focus It provides a detailed analysis of how mobile groups position themselves and how they are positioned by others This text will appeal to scholars in the field of distance education and educational technology and to researchers in education cultural studies and sociology It will also be of interest to educational instructors policy makers and administrators as well as teacher educators and pre service teachers It paints a vivid picture of the experience of mobility through the words of the mobile learners themselves but also critiques existing notions of learning and suggests ways of creating new educational futures for all learners and educators privacy practices and the role of digital technologies in the lives of urban Ghanaians considering how they use language materiality and culture to maintain sharp boundaries between the private and public Focusing on the harbour town of Tema it offers rich ethnographic portraits that cover topics such as nightlife domestic architecture religion and social media The volume demonstrates how transformations across Africa such as Pentecostal reformation neoliberal reforms and rapid digitisation all raise the need for privacy among middle class urbanites who use brand new and very traditional strategies to uphold an image of their economic or religious state Overall the book highlights how digital technologies intertwine with local cultures and histories and how digital anthropology enhances our understanding of the offline as much as the online It makes a valuable contribution to discourse about the right for privacy and surveillance in the digital age and will be of interest to scholars from anthropology and African studies

Urban Ghana and Privacy in the Digital Age Elad Ben Elul, 2022-04-20 This book explores

Gender and Food Marcia Texler Segal,Vasilikie (Vicky) Demos,2016-09-02 Volume 22 explores the complex relationships between gender and food in a variety of locations and time periods using a range of research methods Gender inequality as it affects the struggle for access to land the affordability of food and its nutritional value is identified as a major social policy issue

Tracing Value Change in the International Legal Order Heike Krieger,Andrea Liese,2023-04-28 International law is constantly navigating the tension between preserving the status quo and adapting to new exigencies But when and how do such adaptation processes give way to a more profound transformation if not a crisis of international law To address the question of how attacks on the international legal order are changing the value orientation of international law this book brings together scholars of international law and international relations By combining theoretical and methodological analyses with individual case studies this book offers readers conceptualizations and tools to systematically examine value change and explore the drivers and mechanisms of these processes These case studies scrutinize value change in the foundational norms of the post 1945 order and in norms representing the rise of the international legal order post 1990 They cover diverse issues the prohibition of torture the protection of women s rights the prohibition of the use of force the nonproliferation of nuclear weapons sustainability norms and accountability for core international crimes The challenges to each norm the reactions by norm defenders and the fate of each norm are also studied Combined the analyses show that while a few norms have remained surprisingly robust several are changing either in substance or in legal or social validity The book concludes by integrating the conceptual and empirical insights from this interdisciplinary exchange to assess and explain the ambiguous nature of value change in international law beyond the extremes of mere progress or decline
