Only God Knows Why A Mothers Memoir Of Death And Rebirth:

Only God Knows Why Amy Lyon,2012-09-30 I heard a choking gasping sound and looked around then realized it was coming from me This was a kind of horrid scene from a television show but this couldn't be real life Our real life My body went numb again and the doctor's voice grew farther and farther away My baby was going to die And nothing would be the same ever again Losing a child isn't the end of the world It could be but it isn't So what happens to a mother during and after such a life altering tragedy Author Amy Lyon invites readers on her journey as she shuffles less than perfectly through the ruins of loss to find that buried beneath the thick layers of sorrow hope and joy can exist even if you refuse to believe

The Prenatal Bombshell Stephanie Azri,Sherokee Ilse,2015-04-16 Finding out your unborn child has been diagnosed with a poor or fatal prenatal diagnosis is devastating news sure to reverberate through your family's life forever The emotional aspects of such a pregnancy and the practical implications of an adverse diagnosis are difficult to navigate The Prenatal Bombshell is a warm and understanding companion guide through the journey from diagnosis and beyond once you've decided to either continue or end your precious pregnancy Issues such as managing the pregnancy delivery termination creating memories future babies and the long term impact of such a traumatic experience are all covered in detail The lived experiences of other women who have gone through this journey are also included to provide hope support and guidance through difficult times The Prenatal Bombshell does not attempt to convince women to make a particular choice about their pregnancy It supports them from their choice onwards in a way that is honest informative and reliable Filled with stories and testimonies this is a helpful book to have during and well beyond a poor prenatal diagnosis The Year My Mother Died

Sherry Scott,2011-05 My Journey Through Time Dena Merriam,2020-01-01 My Journey Through Time is a spiritual memoir that sheds light on the workings of karma the law of cause and effect that creates one's present circumstances and relationships as we see it unfold through Dena's vivid memories of her previous births We travel back in time as Dena learns of a life in early 20th century Russia ranging from the overthrow of the Czar through Nazi Germany then it's back further to a life in early 19th century America in the Deep South and before that to a time in Africa in the early 18th century Her lives in the East in Persia Japan and India go back to the 15th 17th centuries With each past life we can see the way in which it has impacted her present life how it has stemmed from the end of the previous birth and how it will influence her next life Dena Merriam is the founder of an interfaith organization the Global Peace Initiative of Women A long time disciplined meditator Dena's access to her past lives brings a clearer awareness and purpose to her present life and also overcomes any fear of death The memories are triggered when Dena meets a new person or visits a new place in her current life The memories bring remembrances of past suffering but also recollections of spiritual teachers and wise guidance She has not used and does not advocate past life regressions or hypnosis as a way to prompt memories to return Dena has decided to share her story despite being a very private person in hopes that it can provide comfort and awaken the inner knowing of your own ongoing journey through time Fables and Futures George Estreich, 2019-03-19 How new biomedical technologies from prenatal testing to gene editing techniques require us to imagine who counts as human and what it means to belong From next generation prenatal tests to virtual children to the genome editing tool CRISPR Cas9 new biotechnologies grant us unprecedented power to predict and shape future people That power implies a question about belonging which people which variations will we welcome How will we square new biotech advances with the real but fragile gains for people with disabilities especially when their voices are all but absent from the conversation This book explores that conversation the troubled territory where biotechnology and disability meet In it George Estreich an award winning poet and memoirist and the father of a young woman with Down syndrome delves into popular representations of cutting edge biotech websites advertising next generation prenatal tests feature articles on three parent IVF a scientist's memoir of constructing a semisynthetic cell and more As Estreich shows each new application of biotechnology is accompanied by a persuasive story one that minimizes downsides and promises enormous benefits In this story people with disabilities are both invisible and essential a key promise of new technologies is that disability will be repaired or prevented In chapters that blend personal narrative and scholarship Estreich restores disability to our narratives of technology He also considers broader themes the place of people with disabilities in a world built for the able the echoes of eugenic history in the genomic present and the equation of intellect and human value Examining the stories we tell ourselves the fables already creating our futures Estreich argues that given biotech that can select and shape who we are we need to imagine as broadly as possible what it means to belong Dark Horse: A Boxing Manager's Memoir Adrian Clark, 2020-02-02 In the tight knit world of boxing management the winning players go along to get along After learning the ropes from inside the ring Adrian Clark stepped out into an arena where established characters can make or break any challenger In a long wild run with heady wins bruising losses and a well inked passport Clark muscled his way to respect and success This memoir tells how and it's just the beginning The Cinema of Rithy Panh Leslie Barnes, Joseph Mai, 2021-07-16 The essays in this groundbreaking collection examine how celebrated Cambodian director Rithy Panh counters the abstraction of mass violence with a cinema anchored in the body the physical trace the direct testimony and the living landscape They explore his unique aesthetic sensibility examining the dynamic and sensuous images through which he suggests that everything has a soul Mary Magdalene, Shaman Sara Taft, 2014-01-02 This book is the story of a physical ordeal a liver transplant which was also a profound spiritual transformation By welcoming information from unusual sources including dreams visions and synchronistic events and deepening all of this into a coherent whole through the study of psychology astrology and art Sara awakened to the realization that spirit infuses matter Sara sought out the many faces of the sacred feminine going beyond her traditional Christian upbringing and marking herself as a heretic What no one could have predicted is that Sara's journey beyond Christianity a journey that took her to the remote Australian outback a sweat lodge in an Arizona desert soaring cathedrals in the south of France and a sterile operating room at Cedars Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles would return her to a home she never knew. As she listened for the first time to the stories she had never been told, she would meet Mary Magdalene as a shaman and understand her undying devotion to her beloved Jesus. It was through the Magdalene that Sara fully realized His promise that the kingdom of heaven is within. Mary Magdalene knew this in every cell of her being, and this knowledge is her gift to Sara. This book, beautifully illustrated with Sara's own paintings, offers a hopeful message to those facing life-threatening illness and traumatic loss, and shows how physical ordeal is a spiritual opportunity. It speaks to heartbroken Christians who like Sara can find fresh inspiration in the original teachings of Jesus.

The Way of Nature and the Way of Grace Vernon W. Cisney, Jonathan Beever, 2016-06-15 Amid all the controversy, criticism, and celebration of Terrence Malick's award-winning film The Tree of Life, what do we really understand of it? The Way of Nature and the Way of Grace thoughtfully engages the philosophical riches of life, culture, time, and the sacred through Malick's film. This innovative collection traverses the relationships among ontological, moral, scientific, and spiritual perspectives on the world, demonstrating how phenomenological work can be done in and through the cinematic medium and attempting to bridge the gap between narrow theoretical works on film and their broader cultural and philosophical significance. Exploring Malick's film as a philosophical engagement, this readable and insightful collection presents an excellent resource for film specialists, philosophers of film, and film lovers alike.

The Czech Manuscripts David L. Cooper, 2023-10-15 The Czech Manuscripts is dedicated to one of the most important literary forgeries on the model of Macpherson's Ossianic poetry. The Queen's Court and Green Mountain Manuscripts, discovered in 1817 and 1818, went on to play an outsized role in the Czech National Revival, functioning as founding texts of the national mythology and serving as sacred works in the long period when they were considered genuine. A successful literary forgery tells a lot about what a culture wants and needs at a particular moment. One fascinating aspect of this story is how a successful fake was able to function in an integral way as part of the Czech cultural revival of the nineteenth century, both because it played to expectations and nationalist values and because it met real cultural needs in many ways better than genuine historical literary works and artefacts. Also fascinating is the vainglorious Vclav Hanka, a prolific and dedicated forger who was likely the center of the conspiratorial ring that created the manuscripts and who went on as the librarian of the Czech National Museum to alter a number of others. David Cooper analyzes what made the Manuscripts a convincing imitation of their Serbian and Russian models. He looks at how translation shaped their composition and, at the benefit of examining them as pseudotranslations, and investigates the quasi-religious rituals and commemorative practices that developed around them. The Czech Manuscripts brings the Czech experience into the broader developments of European history.

A Brain Tumor Changes Everything Jan Woltmann, 2021-03-08 What would you do if an inoperable tumor occupied the brainstem of your young adult son? What would your next steps be? How would you begin to pray? In 2011, Jan Woltmann's twenty-one-year-old son Nate was diagnosed with brain cancer; the cancer was lethal, the situation tragic and hope gone Medical science did everything possible through aggressive radiation and the strongest chemotherapy to delay the tumor's advance even as Jan and her husband slipped deeper into darkness and grief The couple did all the things parents do in the wake of heartbreak they wept ached prayed and planned for the worst loss imaginable This is a story about suffering that sets a place for you at the kitchen table around the Christmas tree and inside the waiting rooms at CancerCare This is a story for old souls those for whom life has ripened either suddenly or over time and who find themselves in search of life's mystery and meaning in the midst of sorrow Following a compelling medical narrative and textured by contemplative Christian thinkers A Brain Tumor Changes Everything speaks the language of grief seeks the presence of mercy and finds the surprise of God

Cahiers de la Femme, 1978 The Fictions of Anita Brookner John Skinner, 2016-07-27 The Fiction of Anita Brookner is the first full length study of this controversial contemporary writer After discussing critical assessments of Brookner and attempts to relate her to various classics and contemporaries Dr Skinner skilfully combines insights from recent narrative theory with close analyses of nine novels Moving from the first novels and their close relations to French literary models he goes on to trace the increased sophistication of Hotel du Lac and the technical innovations of its successors

When Angels Wept Jan S. Prybyla, 2010 Jan and Marta Przybyla were two ordinary people who perished in the hell of Auschwitz They died because they were Polish and loyal to their country a capital crime in the eyes of their killers Maria Przybyla put her own life in peril in an attempt to save her parents from unspeakable agony at the hands of Nazi barbarians and to prevent her brother from suffering the same fate Written by Jan Przybyla's nephew When Angels Wept is a record of people and events long past but not forgotten It recounts the story of an individual family caught in the brutal insanity of the Nazi occupation and the destruction of the Polish state by Germany's war machine About the Author Jan S Prybyla PhD is professor emeritus of economics at Pennsylvania State University former president of the Conference on European Problems and adjunct faculty member of the Foreign Service Institute at the U S Department of State He has authored and coauthored numerous books on comparative political economy among them Market and Plan Under Socialism The Bird in the Cage and The American Way of Peace An Interpretation

Seeing Eye Girl Beverly J. Armento, 2025-07-30 As the Seeing Eye Girl for her blind artistic and mentally ill mother Beverly Armento was intimately connected with and responsible for her even though her mother physically and emotionally abused her She was Strong Beverly at school excellent in academics and mentored by caring teachers but at home she was Weak Beverly cowed by her mother's rage and delusions Beverly's mother regained her sight with two corneal transplants in 1950 and went on to enjoy a moment of fame as an artist but these positive turns did nothing to stop her disintegration into her delusional world of communists radiation and lurking Italians To survive Beverly had to be resilient and hopeful that better days could be ahead But first she had to confront essential ethical issues about her caregiving role in her family In this emotional memoir Beverly shares the coping strategies she invented to get herself through the trials of her young life and the ways in which school and church served as refuges over the course of her journey Breaking the psychological chains that bound her to her mother would prove to be the most difficult challenge of her life and ultimately the most liberating one Library Journal ,2009
