Oostindisch Doof Het Nederlandse Debat Over De Dekolonisatie Van Indonesi:

Colonial Counterinsurgency and Mass Violence Bart Luttikhuis, A. Dirk Moses, 2018-10-24 Whether out of historical interest romantic identification with the colonized or as models for contemporary counter insurgency experts the mass violence of insurgency and counter insurgency in the post war decolonization of the European empires has long exerted an intense fascination In the main the dramas in French Algeria and British Kenya in the 1950s have dominated the scene overshadowing the equally violent events that unfolded in the Dutch Belgian and Portuguese empires Colonial counterinsurgency and mass violence is the first book in English to treat the intense conflict that occurred during the Indonesian revolution the decolonization struggle of the Dutch East Indies between 1945 and 1949 This case is particularly significant as the first episode of post war colonial violence indeed one with global reverberations International opinion was ranged against the Dutch and the nascent United Nations condemned its euphemistically termed police actions to reclaim the archipelago from Indonesian nationalists after defeat by the Japanese in 1942 As this book makes clear however intra Indonesian violence was no less prevalent as rival independence visions vied for control and villagers were caught between the fronts Taking a multi perspectival approach eighteen authors examine the origins of the conflict as well as its representational and memory dimensions Colonial counterinsurgency and mass violence will appeal to scholars of imperial history mass violence and memory studies alike This book is based on a special issue of the Journal of Genocide Research

Anxieties, Fear and Panic in Colonial Settings Harald Fischer-Tiné, 2017-01-23 This book argues that the history of colonial empires has been shaped to a considerable extent by negative emotions such as anxiety fear and embarrassment as well as by the regular occurrence of panics The case studies it assembles examine the various ways in which panics and anxieties were generated in imperial situations and how they shook up the dynamics between seemingly all powerful colonizers and the apparently defenceless colonized Drawing from examples of the British Dutch and German colonial experience the volume sketches out some of the main areas such as disease native savagery or sexual transgression that generated panics or created anxieties in colonial settings and analyses the most common varieties of practical discursive and epistemic strategies adopted by the colonisers to curb the perceived threats Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction

Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

The Transformation of Southeast Asia Ronald W. Pruessen, Marc Frey, Tan-Tai Yong, 2015-05-22 Providing the basis for a reconceptualization of key features in Southeast Asia s history this book examines evolutionary patterns of Europe s and Japan s Southeast Asian empires from the late 19th century through to the 1960s

Postcolonial Netherlands Gert Oostindie, 2011 The Netherlands is home to one million citizens with roots in the former colonies Indonesia Suriname and the Antilles Entitlement to Dutch citizenship pre migration acculturation in Dutch language and culture as well as a strong rhetorical argument We are here because you were there were strong assets of the first generation This postcolonial bonus indeed facilitated their integration In the process the initial distance to mainstream Dutch culture diminished Postwar Dutch society went through serious transformations Its once lily white population now includes two million non Western migrants and the past decade witnessed heated debates about multiculturalism The most important debates about the postcolonial migrant communities centeracknowledgment and the inclusion of colonialism and its legacies in the national memorial culture This resulted in state sponsored gestures ranging from financial compensation to monuments The ensemble of such gestures reflect a guilt ridden and inconsistent attempt to do justice to the colonial past and to Dutch citizens with colonial roots Postcolonial Netherlands is the first scholarly monograph to address these themes in an internationally comparative framework Upon its publication in the Netherlands 2010 the book elicited much praise but also serious objections to some of the author s theses such as his prediction about the diminishing relevance of postcolonial roots

Publisher s description Images of the Tropics Susie Protschky, 2011-01-01 Images of the Tropics critically examines Dutch colonial culture in the Netherlands Indies through the prism of landscape art Susie Protschky contends that visual representations of nature and landscape were core elements of how Europeans understood the tropics justified their territorial claims in the region and understood their place both in imperial Europe and in colonized Asia during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Her book thus makes a significant contribution to studies of empire art and environment as well as to histories of Indonesia and Europe Surveying a rich visual culture developed over a period of some 350 years of Dutch colonial engagement with Indonesia Susie Protschky demonstrates how views of the archipelago s environment were far from simple topographical souvenirs Rather this book reveals how images of the tropics visually articulated colonial attempts to legitimize and historicize what were in fact continually changing and contested claims to Dutch territorial sovereignty in the Indies Further colonial images of nature were routinely inflected with diverse cultural preoccupations among them the constitution of gender class and racial boundaries in Indies society the tenor of sexual mores in the tropics and the political role of religion in the archipelago Landscape art thus indexed colonial views on a range of pressing social and political concerns Postcolonial Netherlands Gert Oostindie, 2025-10-01 The Netherlands is home to one million citizens with roots in the former colonies Indonesia Suriname and the Antilles Entitlement to Dutch citizenship pre migration acculturation in the Dutch language and culture as well as a strong rhetorical argument We are here because you were there were important assets of the first generation facilitating its integration into the Dutch society The current Dutch population counts two million non Western migrants and the past decade witnessed heated debates about multiculturalism the most important ones centered on acknowledgement and inclusion of colonialism and its legacies in the national memorial culture Postcolonial Netherlands which elicited much praise but also controversy following the publication of its Dutch edition is the first scholarly monograph to address these themes in an internationally comparative framework

Dutch Racism Philomena Essed, Isabel Hoving, 2014-03-01 Dutch Racism is the first comprehensive study of its kind The approach is unique not comparative but relational in unraveling the legacy of racism in the Netherlands and the former colonies Authors contribute to identifying the complex ways in which racism operates in and beyond the national borders shaped by European and global influences and intersecting with other systems of domination Contrary to common sense beliefs it appears that old fashioned biological notions of race never disappeared At the same time the Netherlands echoes if not leads a wider European trend where offensive statements about Muslims are an everyday phenomenon Dutch Racism challenges readers to question what happens when the moral rejection of racism loses ground The volume captures the layered nature of Dutch racism through a plurality of registers methods and disciplinary approaches from sociology and history to literary analysis art history and psychoanalysis all different elements competing for relevance truth value and explanatory power This range of voices and visions offers illuminating insights in the two closely related questions that organize this book what factors contribute to the complexity of Dutch racism And why is the concept of racism so intensely contested The volume will speak to audiences across the humanities and social sciences and can be used as textbook in undergraduate as well as graduate courses Philomena Essed is professor of Critical Race Gender and Leadership studies Antioch University USA PhD in Leadership and Change Program Her books and edited volumes include Everyday Racism Understanding Everyday Racism Race Critical Theories A Companion to Gender Studies outstanding 2005 CHOICE award and Clones Fakes and Posthumans Cultures of Replication Isabel Hoving is diversity officer at the Leiden University and affiliated with the Department of Film and Literary Studies of Leiden University Her books include In Praise of New Travellers Veranderingen van het alledaagse and several other volumes on migration Caribbean literatures African literature and art In addition to her academic work she is an awarded youth writer Confronting Memories of World War II Daniel Chirot, Gi-Wook Shin, Daniel Sneider, 2014-04-01 The legacy of the Second World War has been like the war itself an international phenomenon In both Europe and Asia common questions of criminality guilt and collaboration have intersected with history and politics on the local level to shape the way that wartime experience has been memorialized reinterpreted and used By directly comparing European and Asian legacies Confronting Memories of World War II provides unique insight into the way that World War II continues to influence contemporary attitudes and politics on a global scale The collection brings together experts from a variety of disciplines and perspectives to explore the often overlooked commonalities between European and Asian handling of memories and reflections about guilt These commonalities suggest new understandings of the war's legacy and the continuing impact of historical trauma

Emerging Memory Paul Bijl, 2025-10-01 This incisive volume brings together postcolonial studies visual culture and cultural memory studies to explain how the Netherlands continues to rediscover its history of violence in colonial Indonesia Dutch commentators have frequently claimed that the colonial past and especially the violence associated with it has been forgotten in the Netherlands Uncovering lost photographs and other documents of violence has thereby become a recurring feature aimed at unmasking a hidden truth The author argues that rather than absent such images have been consistently present in the Dutch public sphere and have been widely available in print on television and now on the internet Emerging Memory Photographs of Colonial Atrocity in Dutch Cultural Remembrance shows that between memory and forgetting there is a haunted zone from which pasts that do not fit the stories nations live by keep on emerging and submerging while retaining their disturbing presence

Dutch Culture Overseas Frances Gouda, 2008 European colonial expansion led to Dutch notions of civilised society or the Dutch's community's flexible and relatively charitable attitudes toward others being scattered as in the Greek word diaspeirein to the four corners of the earth In some cases the exportation of Dutch cultural values to places overseas like North America endowed Dutchness with subtle new meanings But in colonial Indonesia Dutch political customs and traditions were transformed in the process of migrating to exotic locales In this book Frances Gouda examines the ways in which the Netherlands portrayed its unique colonial style to the outside world Why were citizens of a small and politically insignificant European nation able to represent as natural and normal their dominance over ancient civilizations on islands such as Java and Bali How did Dutch colonial residents explain the cultural differences between themselves and the supposedly primitive peoples of the Indonesian archipelago In trying to understand the gendering practices of colonial governance in the Netherlands East Indies Gouda also explores the interactions of Dutch and Indonesian women with European men

FRANCES GOUDA earned a Ph.D. in history from the University of Washington in Seattle in 1980 She is currently professor of history and gender studies in the Political Science Department of the University of Amsterdam
