Opal K. K. Beck, 2003 Part biography part fast paced mystery this is the magical story of a beguiling personality and one of the most captivating literary mysteries of the last century Playing House in the American West Cathryn Halverson, 2013-11-26 Examines an eclectic group of western women's autobiographical texts canonical and otherwise Playing House in the American West argues for a distinct regional literary tradition characterized by strategic representations of unconventional domestic life The controlling metaphor Cathryn Halverson uses in her engrossing study is playing house From Caroline Kirkland and Laura Ingalls Wilder to Willa Cather and Marilynne Robinson from the mid nineteenth to the late twentieth centuries western authors have persistently embraced wayward or eccentric housekeeping to prove a woman's difference from western neighbors and eastern readers alike The readings in Playing House investigate the surprising textual ends to which westerners turn the familiar terrain of the home evaluating community arguing for different conceptions of race and class and perhaps most especially resisting traditional gender roles Western women writers Halverson argues render the home as a stage for autonomy resistance and imagination rather than as a site of sacrifice and obligation The western women examined in Playing House in the American West are promoted and read as representatives of a region as insiders offering views of distant and intriguing ways of life even as they conceive of themselves as outsiders By playing with domestic conventions they recast the region they describe portraying the West as a place that fosters female agency individuality and subjectivity Bunk Kevin Young, 2017-11-14 Longlisted for the National Book Award for Nonfiction There Kevin Young goes again giving us books we greatly need cleverly disguised as books we merely want Unexpectedly essential Marlon James Award winning poet and critic Kevin Young tours us through a rogue's gallery of hoaxers plagiarists forgers and fakers from the humbug of P T Barnum and Edgar Allan Poe to the unrepentant bunk of JT LeRoy and Donald J Trump Bunk traces the history of the hoax as a peculiarly American phenomenon examining what motivates hucksters and makes the rest of us so gullible Disturbingly Young finds that fakery is woven from stereotype and suspicion race being the most insidious American hoax of all He chronicles how Barnum came to fame by displaying figures like Joice Heth a black woman whom he pretended was the 161 year old nursemaid to George Washington and What Is It an African American man Barnum professed was a newly discovered missing link in evolution Bunk then turns to the hoaxing of history and the ways that forgers plagiarists and journalistic fakers invent backstories and falsehoods to sell us lies about themselves and about the world in our own time from pretend Native Americans Grey Owl and Nasdijj to the deadly imposture of Clark Rockefeller from the made up memoirs of James Frey to the identity theft of Rachel Dolezal In this brilliant and timely work Young asks what it means to live in a post factual world of truthiness where everything is up for interpretation and everyone is subject to a pervasive cynicism that damages our ideas of reality fact and art Writers on the Spectrum Julie Brown, 2009-12-15 Some of the world's most celebrated authors indicate signs of autism and AS Through analysis of biographies autobiographies letters and diaries Professor Julie Brown identifies literary talents who display characteristics of Autistic Spectrum Disorder ASD and uncovers the similarities in their writing that suggest atypical autistic brains

Linguistics at School Kristin Denham, Anne Lobeck, 2010-01-07 Linguistics is a subject that has remained largely confined to the academy rather than being integrated into school curricula This is unfortunate but not surprising as although some teacher education programs include courses on linguistics it is not comprehensively integrated into teacher education so it is largely absent from the curriculum This volume brings together a team of leaders in the field of linguistics and education to provide an overview of the current state of research and practice It demonstrates changes which can be made to teaching such as revising teacher s preparation developing and implementing practical applications of linguistics in both primary and secondary classrooms partnering linguists with classroom teachers and working to improve state and national education standards The contributors emphasize the importance of collaboration between professional linguists and educators in order to meet a common goal to raise awareness of the workings of language
