ONE NIGHT WITH THE SHEIKH Kristi Gold, Kyoko Sagara, 2017-08-25 Maysa's heart throbs as she sees the man she once loved standing before her eyes again. He is Rafiq Mehedi, king of Bajul, a country of dunes. Fifteen years ago they were hopelessly in love with one another but the long standing traditions of Bajul mandated that Rafiq marry another woman. So why has he come back to Maysa after all this time? His shocking answer: he wants Maysa to give him a place to hide from the outside world. Maysa trembles with humiliation, certain Rafiq has come back to make her his mistress but all it takes is one look in his eyes for her to know she loves him just as deeply as she did when they were first together. Representing

Difference in the Medieval and Modern Orientalist Romance Amy Burge, 2017-02-14 This book, the first full length cross period comparison of medieval and modern literature, offers cutting edge research into the textual and cultural legacy of the Middle Ages, a significant and growing area of scholarship. At the juncture of literary, cultural and gender studies and capitalizing on a renewed interest in popular western representations of the Islamic east, this book proffers innovative case studies on representations of cross religious and cross cultural romantic relationships in a selection of late medieval and twenty first century Orientalist popular romances. Comparing the tropes, characterization and settings of these literary phenomena and focusing on gender, religion and ethnicity, the study exposes the historical roots of current romance representations of the east, advancing research in Orientalism, neo medievalism and medieval cultural studies. Fundamentally, Representing Difference invites a closer look at medieval and modern popular attitudes towards the east as represented in romance and the kinds of solutions proposed for its apparent problems. Christmas Bride for the Sheikh Carol
