study of the Isaianic Denkschrift Isaiah 6 1 9 6 is both a traditional and an innovative one It defends the integrity of the Denkschrift yet on grounds wholly other than those outlined by the early proponents of the unity of the composition The present work is founded on an inquiry into the ideological matrix of the composition on one hand and on the other on the understanding of the activity of mantic prophetic figures in the Near East during the early first millennium BCE that has emerged in recent scholarship The presentation of Yahweh as a royal character in the Denkschrift is interpreted as an integral part of the symbolic universe promoted by the composition Several levels of social discourse of the Denkschrift are identified the author s is simultaneously engaged in the creation of Judaeon autonomous cultural identity in polemical activity with the rival Yahwist community the North or Samaria and in the safeguarding of the privileged position of the former Babylonian exiles among the community of Jerusalem and Judah Two interrelated hypotheses are developed in the book regarding the historical milieu in which the Denkschrift was composed and regarding the place of the composition in the formation of First Isaiah As for the first Prokhorov proposes that the early second temple community of Yehud matches the profile of a society whose problems the Denkschrift is addressing and reflecting As for the second the author maintains the view that the Denkschrift marks one of the final stages of the creation of First Isaiah whose original nucleus consisted of the Hezekiah narrative now found in chapters 36 39 of Isaiah which in turn modified the respective Deuteronomistic material diagnostic of and formative for one's subjective maturity For Kierkegaard the Christian is far from humorless instead having the maximal comic perception because he has the highest possible subjective development The book demonstrates that the comic is not the expression of a particular pseudonym or of a single period in Kierkegaard's thinking but is an abiding and fundamental concept for him It finds his comic understanding even outside of Postscript locating it in such differing works as Prefaces 1844 Upbuilding Discourses in Various Spirits 1847 and the Corsair affair c 1845 1848 The book also examines the comic in contemporary Kierkegaard scholarship First it argues that Deconstructionists while accurately perceiving the widespread irony in Kierkegaard's corpus incorrectly take the irony to imply a lack of earnest interest in philosophy and theology misunderstanding Kierkegaard on the nature of irony Second it considers two theological readings to argue that their positions while generally preferable to the Deconstructionists lack the same attentiveness to the comic's role in Kierkegaard Their significant theological arguments would be strengthened by increased appreciation of the legitimate power of the comic for cultivating ethics and religion
