Online Blue Face Story Rhyme Rebellion:

Blue in the Face Gerry Swallow, 2016-01-12 A rollicking and humorous tale from the author of A Whole Nother Story with black and white illustrations about a reluctant hero saving a world you only thought you knew Ebony, 2000-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Literature of the Holocaust Alan Rosen, 2013-11-14 During and in the aftermath of the dark period of the Holocaust writers across Europe and America sought to express their feelings and experiences through their writings This book provides a comprehensive account of these writings through essays from expert scholars covering a wide geographic linguistic thematic and generic range of materials Such an overview is particularly appropriate at a time when the corpus of Holocaust literature has grown to immense proportions and when guidance is needed in determining a canon of essential readings a context to interpret them and a paradigm for the evolution of writing on the Holocaust The expert contributors to this volume who negotiate the literature in the original languages provide insight into the influence of national traditions and the importance of language especially but not exclusively Yiddish and Hebrew to the literary response arising from the Holocaust Ebony, 2005-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine

Sisterhood of the Lost Cause Jennifer Lynn Gross, 2025-04-01 Historians have thoroughly documented the vast devastation of the Civil War In the attention they have paid to aspects of that destruction however one of the most obvious ramifications appears routinely overlooked Confederate widowhood Jennifer Lynn Gross's Sisterhood of the Lost Cause helps rectify that historical omission by supplying a sweeping analysis of women whose husbands perished in the war Literary Rebels Lise Jaillant, 2022 A history of creative writing programmes in British and American universities from the 1930s onwards that argues against the notion that creative writing programmes are driven by conformity King Lear William Shakespeare, 2023-05-23 King Lear is a play for our times The central characters experience intense suffering in a hostile and unpredictable world They face domestic cruelty political defeat and a stormy external environment that invades them to the skin They constantly question the meaning of their experiences as we watch their emotions range from despair to rage to unexpected tenderness and desperate hope as they are rejected even tortured Lear's daughters as in a fairy tale are three strong women The eldest two vie for sexual and political power while the youngest Cordelia is initially banished because of her plain speaking but then returns in a doomed attempt to restore her father to his throne King Lear has an unusual performance history It was significantly revised by Shakespeare or others between its first two publications and was then succeeded by an adaptation that softened the ending so that Lear and Cordelia survived In our own times King Lear is performed around the world in productions that explore its relevance to contemporary political and environmental challenges This edition offers a distinctive extended text taking the later Folio as a starting point and adding the lines that appear only in the Quarto distinguished by a light gray background Variations in individual words that are of critical interest are recorded in the margin

Submersed Matthew Gavin Frank, 2025-06-03 An exquisite lyrical foray into the world of deep sea divers the obsession and madness that oceans inspire in us and the story of submarine inventor Peter Madsen's murder of journalist Kim Wall a captivating blend of literary prose science writing and true crime A thrilling study of an obsession to sink below the surface to depths both metaphoric and in fact Full of wild characters and strange histories by the end we are convinced in no small part by the beauty of Frank's language that this is one of the most important stories ever told Nick Flynn author of This Is the Night Our House Will Catch Fire Submersed begins with an investigation into the beguiling subculture of DIY submersible obsessives men and women but mostly men who are so compelled to sink into the deep sea that they become amateur backyard submarine builders Should they succeed in fashioning a craft in their garage or driveway and set sail they do so at great personal risk as the 2023 fatal implosion of Stockton Rush's much more highly funded submarine Titan proved to the world Matthew Gavin Frank explores the origins of the human compulsion to sink to depth from the diving bells of Aristotle and Alexander the Great to the Confederate H L Hunley which became the first submersible to sink an enemy warship before itself being sunk during the Civil War The deeper he plunges however the more the obsession seems to dovetail with more threatening traits Following the grisly murder of journalist Kim Wall at the hands of eccentric entrepreneur Peter Madsen aboard his DIY midget submarine Frank finds himself reckoning with obsession's darkest extremes Weaving together elements of true crime the strange history of the submarine the mythology of the deep sea and the physical and mental side effects of sinking to great depth Frank attempts to get to the bottom of this niche compulsion to chase the extreme in our planet's bodies of water and in our own bodies What he comes to discover and interrogate are the odd and unexpected overlaps between the unquenchable human desire to descend into deep water and a penchant for unspeakable violence
