Future Cities Nick Dunn, Paul Cureton, 2020-12-10 What might our cities look like in ten twenty or fifty years How may future cities face global challenges Imagining the city of the future has long been an inspiration for many architects artists and designers This book examines how cities of the future have been visualised what these projects sought to communicate and what the implications may be for us now It provides a visual history of the future and explores the relationships between different visualisation techniques and ideologies for cities Thinking about what futures are who they are for why they are desirable and how and when they are to be brought into being is central to this book Through visualisation we are able to experiment in ways that would be impractical and potentially hazardous in the real world and this book therefore aims to contribute toward a better understanding of the power and agency of visualisations for future cities In this lavishly illustrated text the authors apply several critical lenses to consider the subject in different ways technological futures social futures and global futures providing a comprehensive survey and analysis of visions for future cities and engaging creatively with how we perceive tomorrow's world and future studies more widely

Practiceopolis: Stories from the Architectural Profession Yasser Megahed, 2020-07-30 This is a graphic novel about the contemporary architectural profession in which it acts as the protagonist in the form of an imaginary city called Practiceopolis The novel narrates quasi realistic stories that exaggerate the architectural everyday and the tacit in order to make them prominent and tangible They depict and dramatise the value conflicts between the different cultures of practising architecture and between the architectural profession and other members of the building industry as political conflicts around the future of Practiceopolis The book uses the metaphorical world of Practiceopolis to provoke big questions about everyday routines in the profession that practitioners may take for granted and to examine different ideologies at work among architects and other members of the construction industry The novel ends in the tradition of dystopian worlds common in a certain strand of graphic novels By vividly illustrating and narrating the critical issues he interrogates the author has created a world which any architect student or professional will both instantly recognise and simultaneously reject provoking the reader to challenge themselves and the profession at large

Artificial Islands Owen Hatherley, 2022-08-09 Should Britain form a new union with its old Dominions in Canada Australia and New Zealand Are they really our closest allies and relations And is there any reason why they should want to unite again with us Great Britain has just left one Union after years of bitter argument and divisive posturing But what if the island's future lies in another Union altogether with some of its former colonial kith and kin across the seas Why be in a Union with your immediate neighbours when you could instead be in a trans oceanic super state with our old friends in Canada Australia and New Zealand Welcome to the strange world of the CANZUK Union the name for a quixotic but apparently serious plan to reunify the white majority Dominions of the British Empire under the flag of low taxes strong borders and climate change denialism Artificial Islands tests the idea that Britain's natural allies and closest relations are in these three countries in North America and the Antipodes through a good look at the histories townscapes and spaces of several cities across the settler zones of the British Empire These are some of the most purely artificial and modern landscapes in the world British designed cities that were built with extreme rapidity in forcibly seized territories on the other side of the world from Britain Were these places really no more than just a reproduction of British Values planted in unlikely corners of the globe How are people in Auckland Melbourne Montreal Ottawa and Wellington re imagining their own history or their countries role in the British Empire and their complicity in its crimes And do they have any interest in a union with us

After Work Helen Hester, Nick Srnicek, 2023-07-18 A timely manifesto for a feminist post work politics Does it ever feel like you have no free time You come home after work and instead of finding a space of rest and relaxation you're confronted by a pile of new tasks to complete cooking cleaning looking after the kids and so on In this ground breaking book Helen Hester and Nick Srnicek lay out how unpaid work in our homes has come to take up an ever increasing portion of our lives how the vacuum of free time has been taken up by vacuuming Examining the history of the home over the past century from running water to white goods to smart homes they show how repeated efforts to reduce the burden of this work have faced a variety of barriers challenges and reversals Charting the trajectory of our domestic spaces over the past century Hester and Srnicek consider new possibilities for the future uncovering the abandoned ideas of anti housework visionaries and sketching out a path towards real free time for all where everyone is at liberty to pursue their passions or do nothing at all It will require rethinking our living arrangements our expectations and our cities
