African American Family Life Vonnie C. McLoyd, Nancy E. Hill, Kenneth A. Dodge, 2005-09-26 This volume brings together leading experts from different disciplines to offer new perspectives on contemporary African American families A wealth of knowledge is presented on the heterogeneity of Black family life today the challenges and opportunities facing parents children and communities and the impact on health and development of key cultural and social processes Comprehensive and authoritative the book critically evaluates current policies and service delivery models and sets forth cogent recommendations for supporting families strengths Following an overview that traces the ongoing evolution of theory and research in the field the book examines how African American families fare on numerous indicators of well being Throughout contributors identify factors that promote or hinder healthy child and family development writing from a culturally sensitive nonpathologizing stance The concluding chapter provides an up to date framework for culturally competent mental health practice

Root Shock Mindy Thompson Fullilove, 2016-11 Root Shock examines 3 different U S cities to unmask the crippling results of decades old disinvestment in communities of color and the urban renewal practices that ultimately destroyed these neighborhoods for the advantage of developers and the elite Like a sequel to the prescient warnings of urbanist Jane Jacobs Dr Mindy Thompson Fullilove reveals the disturbing effects of decades of insensitive urban renewal projects on communities of color For those whose homes and neighborhoods were bulldozed the urban modernization projects that swept America starting in 1949 were nothing short of an assault Vibrant city blocks places rich in culture were torn apart by freeways and other invasive development devastating the lives of poor residents Fullilove passionately describes the profound traumatic stress the root shock that results when a neighborhood is demolished She estimates that federal and state urban renewal programs spearheaded by business and real estate interests destroyed 1 600 African American districts in cities across the United States But urban renewal didn't just disrupt black communities it ruined their economic health and social cohesion stripping displaced residents of their sense of place as well It also left big gashes in the centers of cities that are only now slowly being repaired Focusing on the Hill District of Pittsburgh the Central Ward in Newark and the small Virginia city of Roanoke Dr Fullilove argues powerfully against policies of displacement Understanding the damage caused by root shock is crucial to coping with its human toll and helping cities become whole Mindy Thompson Fullilove MD is a research psychiatrist at New York State Psychiatric Institute and professor of clinical psychiatry and public health at Columbia University She is the author of five books including Urban Alchemy Reinventing Race, Reinventing Racism

John J. Betancur, Cedric Herring, 2012-11-08 Reinventing Race Reinventing Racism provides fresh theoretical insights and policy solutions that address intractable new forms of racism This accessible book tackles important and timely issues that continue to affect the lives of Americans of all shades and ethnicities

The Digital Street Jeffrey Lane, 2019 The social impact of the Internet and new digital technologies is irrefutable especially for adolescents It is simply no longer possible to understand coming of age in the inner city without an appreciation of both the face to face and online relations that structure neighborhood life The Digital Street is the first in depth exploration of the ways digital social media is changing life in poor minority communities Based on five years of ethnographic observations dozens of interviews and analyses of social media content Jeffrey Lane illustrates a new street world where social media transforms how young people experience neighborhood violence and poverty Lane examines the online migration of the code of the street and its consequences from encounters between boys and girls to the relationship between the street and parents schools outreach workers and the police He reveals not only the risks youths face through surveillance or worsening violence but also the opportunities digital social media use provides for mitigating danger Granting access to this new world Jeffrey Lane shows how age old problems of living through poverty especially gangs and violence are experienced differently for the first generation of teenagers to come of age on the digital street American Modernism (Re)Considered Robert C. Hauhart, Jeff Birkenstein, 2025-08-07

What exactly is modernism and who are modernist writers What distinguishes American modernism from its European counterpart American Modernism Re Considered questions the principal distinction between modernism and other genres movements styles in literature through new critical readings of canonical modernist texts alongside texts which pose a problem for modernism due to their ambiguous if not marginal relation to some of its predominant tenets It asks Is modernism characterized principally by a transition from older forms like naturalism and realism to a style that is new innovative and experimental Is it found in shared understandings and alignments regarding the nature and purpose of art Is it identifiable by modernists treatment of various central themes including as a reaction to modernity as a response to the Boer and World wars as an interrogation of Britain's empire and its dissolution and how these events fragmented modern life Or is it all of the above Contributors discuss a wide range of texts by authors such as Nella Larsen Willa Cather Charlotte Perkins Gilman Anne Carson Wallace Stevens Amrico Paredes Richard Wright Ernest Hemingway and T S Eliot to challenge the aesthetic social and temporal boundaries of modernism in America Through original close readings of these texts American Modernism Re Considered subjects modernism to new interrogations and offers new answers to questions that remain contemporary even as they harken back to its height of popularity and interest in the mid 1920s Social Justice Design and Implementation in Library and Information Science Bharat Mehra, 2021-12-29 Social Justice Design and Implementation in Library and Information Science presents a range of case studies that have successfully implemented social justice as a designed strategy to generate community wide changes and social impact Each chapter in the collection presents innovative practices that are strategized as intentional deliberate systematic outcome based and impact driven They demonstrate effective examples of social justice design and implementation in LIS to generate meaningful outcomes across local regional national and international settings Including reflections on challenges and opportunities in academic public school and special libraries museums archives and other information related settings the contributions present forward looking strategies that transcend historical and outdated notions of neutral stance and passive bystanders Showcasing the intersections of LIS concepts and interdisciplinary theories with traditional and non traditional methods of research and practice the volume demonstrates how to further the social justice principles of fairness justice equity equality and empowerment of all people including those on the margins of society Social Justice Design and Implementation in Library and Information Science will be of great interest to LIS educators scholars students information professionals library practitioners and all those interested in integrating social justice and inclusion advocacy into their information related efforts to develop impact driven externally focused and community relevant outcomes Healing for the Soul Braxton D.

Shelley,2021-04-20 This book uses one of the most important features of the black gospel song a repetitive musical cycle known as the vamp to illuminate this tradition s powerful combination of sound and belief Combining resources from music studies religious studies and cultural studies the book shows how the immediacy of musical sound brings black Christians into meaningful contact with the invisible subjects of their beliefs The deeply embodied ways believers engage gospel music then evidence the transcendent work gospel songs are used to do Engaging Strangers Daniel J. Monti Jr.,2013 Partisans on both the left and right wings of America s theory class and political spectrum believe we re in trouble big trouble The economy is limping along Inequality has reached unprecedented levels And we seem to be on the verge of being overwhelmed by immigrants who don t look and act anything like our grandparents did much less the men and women who founded our country Angry scared disengaged and distrustful when we aren t openly antagonistic toward each other Americans can t figure out who we are as a people and openly fret about our best days being behind us To make matters worse our political system the one place we re supposed to be able to work on behalf of a broader public good with people who aren t like us appears even more broken than these other parts of our culture There s some unexpected good news however and it s coming from one of the last places in America you d expect different people to be getting along Boston Bostonians well known for their unwelcoming and sometimes violent treatment of newcomers and unwillingness to find common ground with people deemed outsiders aren t acting broken or taking their resentments out on each other these days They ve turned instead to calmer ways of talking about each other and treating each other in public Far from being disconnected and afraid people in Boston are better connected and more respectful of each other and their city is better organized and more orderly than at any time in its long and storied history Bostonians have learned to get along with the strangers among them in ways their ancestors never knew or expected the rest of us would be willing to entertain much less master They have their civic act together Engaging Strangers explores how the people of Boston have learned to practice a more congenial and respectful set of civic virtues In this book the author provides a model for civic conduct for the rest of America to study and follow Goddess of Anarchy Jacqueline Jones,2017-12-05 From a prize winning historian a new portrait of an extraordinary activist and the turbulent age in which she lived Goddess of Anarchy recounts the formidable life of the militant writer orator and agitator Lucy Parsons Born to an enslaved woman in Virginia in 1851 and raised in Texas where she met her husband the Haymarket martyr Albert Parsons Lucy was a fearless advocate of First Amendment rights a champion of the working classes and one of the most prominent figures of African descent of her era And yet her life was riddled with contradictions she advocated violence without apology concocted a Hispanic Indian identity for herself and ignored the plight of African Americans Drawing on a wealth of new sources Jacqueline Jones presents not only the exceptional life of the famous American born anarchist but also an authoritative account of her times from slavery through the Great Depression The Scandal of White Complicity in US Hyper-incarceration A. Mikulich,L. Cassidy,M.

Pfeil,2013-02-05 The Scandal of White Complicity and US Hyper incarceration is a groundbreaking exploration of the moral role of white people in the disproportionate incarceration of African Americans and Latinos in the United States Journey to Freedom Gail Shaffer Blankenau,2024-03 Journey to Freedom provides the first detailed history of Black enslavement in Nebraska Territory and the escape of two enslaved Black women Celia and Eliza Grayson from Nebraska City in 1858 to debate whether slavery could exist in the West and whether popular sovereignty truly worked Local Food Environments Kimberly B. Morland,Yael M. Lehmann,Allison E. Karpyn,2022-04-19 In this book Morland Lehmann and Karpyn discuss the critical need for healthy food financing programs as a vehicle to improve food access for all Americans In my career as a public servant there are very few legislative achievements that I m prouder of than the Healthy Food Financing Initiative which started in my home state of Pennsylvania The program gained status as a proven and economically sustainable federal program that is helping to improve the quality of life in our neighborhoods by allowing millions access to healthy affordable food Congressman Dwight Evans United States House of Representatives Pennsylvania District 3 If we work together we can create a healthy food system that is equitable and accessible to all This book highlights the importance of healthy food projects like grocery stores farmers markets co ops and other healthy food retail in revitalizing local communities across the country Without basic nourishment kids and families simply won t be successful which is why this book is a must read Sam Kass President Obama s Senior Nutrition Policy Advisor and Executive Director of Let s Move Morland and colleagues new second edition provides an excellent foundation for courses in food policy and community nutrition Their detailed review of the economics of local and national food financing will open students minds to the complexity inherent in measuring and interpreting outcomes Robert S Lawrence MD MACP Founder and Former Director of the Center for a Livable Future Johns Hopkins University Bloomberg School of Public Health Features Describes how disparities in food access formed in the United States Includes federal policies and programs aimed at addressing food access in underserved areas including the Healthy Food Financing Initiative Features examples of state initiatives that address poor access to food retailers Provides methods for program evaluation utilizing principals of implementation and dissemination science Includes critical thinking questions and embedded videos aimed to generate discussions on how restricted local food environments in the United States are rooted in economic disparities that impact food access as well as housing education and job opportunities

The Sociology of Community Connections John G. Bruhn, 2011-07-18 Many of our current social problems have been attributed to the breakdown or loss of community as a place and to the fragmentation of connections due to an extreme value of individualism in the Western world particularly in the United States Not all scholars and researchers agree that individualism and technology are the primary culprits in the loss of community as it existed in the middle decade of the 20th century Nonetheless people exist in groups and connections are vital to their existence and in the daily performance of activities The second edition of the Sociology of Community Connections will identify and help students understand community connectedness in the present and future

Race, Ethnicity and Social Theory John Solomos, 2022-07-01 Race Ethnicity and Social Theory provides a critical analysis of the main areas of scholarly research and debate about racial and ethnic relations over the past few decades The book covers substantive areas of scholarly debate in this fast changing field including race and social relations identities and the construction of the racial other feminism and race the relationship between race and nationalism antisemitism the evolution of new forms of racism race and political representation and more generally the changing debates about race and ethnicity in our global environment The book argues that there is a need for more dialogue across national and conceptual boundaries about how to develop the theoretical tools needed to understand both the historical roots of contemporary forms of racialised social and political relations and the contemporary forms through which race is made and re made A key argument that runs through the book is the need to develop conceptual frameworks that can help us to make sense of the changing forms of racial and ethnic relations in contemporary societies This means developing more dialogue across national research cultures as well as empirical research that seeks to engage with the key issues raised by contemporary theoretical debates The book will be of interest to both students wanting to develop a deeper understanding of this area of scholarship and to researchers of race ethnicity and migration working in various national and disciplinary environments

Psychology and Human Development Public Policy Publications Religious Institutions Segregation Desegregation Some entries appear in more than one category This two volume reference work will be an invaluable resource not only for educators and students but for all readers who seek an understanding of African American education both historically and in the 21st century

The Hero's Fight Patricia Fernández-Kelly, 2016-08-23 A richly textured account of what it means to be poor in America Baltimore was once a vibrant manufacturing town but today with factory closings and steady job loss since the 1970s it is home to some of the most impoverished neighborhoods in America The Hero's Fight provides an intimate look at the effects of deindustrialization on the lives of Baltimore's urban poor and sheds critical light on the unintended consequences of welfare policy on our most vulnerable communities Drawing on her own uniquely immersive brand of fieldwork conducted over the course of a decade in the neighborhoods of West Baltimore Patricia Fernández Kelly tells the stories of people like D B Wilson Big Floyd Towanda and others whom the American welfare state treats with a mixture of contempt and pity what Fernández Kelly calls ambivalent benevolence She shows how growing up poor in the richest nation in the world involves daily interactions with agents of the state an experience that differs significantly from that of more affluent populations While ordinary Americans are treated as citizens and consumers deprived and racially segregated populations are seen as objects of surveillance containment and punishment Fernández Kelly provides new insights into such topics as globalization and its effects on industrial decline and employment the changing meanings of masculinity and femininity among the poor social and cultural capital in poor neighborhoods and the unique roles played by religion and entrepreneurship in destitute communities Blending compelling portraits with in depth scholarly analysis The Hero's Fight explores how the welfare state contributes to the perpetuation of urban poverty in America

The Anthropology of White Supremacy Aisha M. Beliso-De Jesús, Jemima Pierre, Junaid Rana, 2025-01-28 An anthology of original essays that examine white supremacy around the globe through the lens of anthropology White supremacy an entrenched global system that emerged alongside European colonialism is based on presumed biological and cultural differences racist practices the hypervaluation of whiteness and the devaluation of nonwhites Anthropology has been shaped by and has helped to shape white supremacy yet the discipline also offers powerful tools for understanding this system at a global scale The Anthropology of White Supremacy gathers original essays from a diverse international group of anthropologists to explore how this phenomenon works both within anthropology and in cultural and political structures around the world The book features historical and ethnographic analysis about Brazil Iceland Japan Mexico Nigeria Palestine Senegal South Africa and the United States and addresses the ways white supremacy impacts a broad range of issues including finance advertising and media representations militarism police training migration and development The Anthropology of White Supremacy demonstrates not only how anthropology can help us to better comprehend white supremacy but also how the discipline can help us begin to dismantle it The contributors include Omolade Adunbi Samar Al Bulushi Aisha M Beliso De Jesús Michael L

Brown, Jamel K. Donnor, 2013-09-13

The Education of Black Males in a Post Racial World examines the varied structural and discursive contexts of race masculinities and class that shape the educational and social lives of Black males The contributing authors take direct aim at the current discourses that construct Black males as disengaged in schooling because of an autonomous Black male culture and explore how media social sciences school curriculum popular culture and sport can define and constrain the lives of Black males The chapters also provide alternative methodologies theories and analyses for making sense of and addressing the complex needs of Black males in schools and in society By expanding our understanding of how unequal access to productive opportunities and quality resources converge to systemically create disparate experiences and outcomes for African American males this volume powerfully illustrates that race still matters in post racial America This book was originally published as a special issue of Race Ethnicity and Education

Planned Violence Elleke Boehmer, Dominic Davies, 2018-11-29 This book brings the insights of social geographers and cultural historians into a critical dialogue with literary narratives of urban culture and theories of literary cultural production In so doing it explores new ways of conceptualizing the relationship between urban planning its often violent effects and literature Comparing the spatial pasts and presents of the post imperial and post colonial cities of London Delhi and Johannesburg but also including case studies of other cities such as Chicago Belfast Jerusalem and Mumbai Planned Violence investigates how that iconic site of modernity the colonial city was imagined by its planners and how this urban imagination and the cultural and social interventions that arose in response to it made violence a part of the everyday social life of its subjects Throughout however the collection also explores the extent to which literary and cultural productions might actively resist infrastructures of planned violence and imagine alternative ways of inhabiting post colonial city spaces

Black Intellectual Thought in Education Carl A. Grant, Keffrelyn D. Brown, Anthony L. Brown, 2015-09-25 Black Intellectual Thought in Education celebrates the exceptional academic contributions of African American education scholars Anna Julia Cooper Carter G Woodson and Alain Leroy Locke to the causes of social science education and democracy in America By focusing on the lives and projects of these three figures specifically it offers a powerful counter narrative to the dominant established discourse in education and critical social theory helping to better serve the population that critical theory seeks to advocate Rather than attempting to rescue a few African American scholars from obscurity or marginalization this powerful volume instead highlights ideas that must be probed and critically examined in order to deal with prevailing contemporary educational issues Cooper Woodson and Locke s history of engagement with race democracy education gender and life is a dynamic demanding and authentic narrative for those engaged with these important issues
