Thinking the Problematic Oliver Leistert, Isabell Schrickel, 2020-10-08 The notion of the problematic has changed its meaning within the history of power and knowledge since the early 20th century leading up to today's performative neocybernetic fascination with generalized management ideas and technocratic models of science This book explores central scenes conceptual elaborations and practical affiliations of what historically has been called the problem or the problematic By way of considering modes of problematization as modes of inhabitation intervention and transformation the contributions map its current conceptual political uses as well as onto epistemological challenges Thus problematization is positioned as a critical concept that links often in intricate ways several currents from speculative philosophy to the formation of interdisciplinary fields The problematic as it turns out has been the source of change in philosophy and the sciences all along

Everydayness. Contemporary Aesthetic Approaches Adrián Kvokačka, Lisa Giombini, 2021-11-17 The notion of everydayness is currently gaining momentum in scientific discourses in both philosophical and applied aesthetics This volume aims to shed light on some of the key issues that are involved in discussions about the aesthetics and the philosophy of everyday life taking into account the field's methodological background and intersections with cognate research areas and providing examples of its contemporary application to specific case studies The collection brings together twenty essays organised around four main thematic areas in the field of everyday aesthetics 1 Environment 2 The Body 3 Art and Cultural Practices and 4 Methodology The covered topics include but are not limited to somaesthetics aesthetic engagement the performing arts aesthetics of fashion and adornments architecture environmental and urban aesthetics DOI 10.13134/9788055527789

Liberal Progressivism Gordon Hak, 2021-04-14 In Liberal Progressivism Gordon Hak makes the case for the value of theory and philosophy in understanding the day to day political realm of elections politicians scandals fund raising and law making Running through the book is the big question of how political attitudes and actions are philosophically grounded why do people believe what they do Framed as a debate between liberal progressivism and the Marxist informed left and between liberal progressives and the non university educated working class an informant named Gord is introduced Drawing on his life experience he acts as a guide into the worlds of liberal progressivism the non university educated working class and the Marxist informed intellectual left modes of existence that he has personally experienced In 11 chapters the book presents an appreciation of nonbinary relationships open ended dialectics complex systems and equilibrium theory and the importance of emotions in political life Through a transdisciplinary approach the book delves into the interconnecting the worlds of politics philosophy anthropology sociology history and epistemology to produce a celebration of political theory which deserves to be widely read by students scholars and activists Affects, Interfaces, Events Bodil Marie Stavning Thomsen, Jette Kofoed, Jonas Fritsch, 2021-03-01 This book engages with how affective encounters are shaped and conditioned by interfacial events Together the chapters explore the implications of this on a micro perceptual and macro relational level through an experimental middling of approaches and examples While broadly departing from a Spinozist and Deleuzian theoretical foundation the book weaves together a compelling number of conceptual and empirical trajectories Always attuned to the implications modulations and tonalities arising in the readings through art journalism bodies an archives data and design Affects Interfaces Events allows for a truly transdisciplinary resonance driven by theory technology and practice

Expanded Internet Art Ceci Moss, 2019-09-19 Expanded Internet Art is the first comprehensive art historical study of expanded internet art practices Charting the rise of a multidisciplinary approach to online artistic practice in the past decade the text discusses recent currents in contemporary artistic practice that parallel the explosion of the internet through advances such as social media smart phones and faster bandwidth Internet art is no longer determined solely by its existence on the web rather contemporary artists are making more art about informational culture using various methods of both online and offline means It asks how artists such as Seth Price Harm van den Dorpel Kari Altmann Artie Vierkant and Oliver Laric create a critical language in response to the persuasive influence of informational capture on culture and expression where the environment itself becomes reorganized to be more legible as information A World of Many Worlds Marisol de la Cadena, Mario Blaser, 2018-10-25 A World of Many Worlds is a search into the possibilities that may emerge from conversations between indigenous collectives and the study of science s philosophical production The contributors explore how divergent knowledges and practices make worlds They work with difference and sameness recursion divergence political ontology cosmopolitics and relations using them as concepts methods and analytics to open up possibilities for a pluriverse a cosmos composed through divergent political practices that do not need to become the same Contributors Mario Blaser Alberto Corsi Jimenez D borah Danowski Marisol de la Cadena John Law Marianne Lien Isabelle Stengers Marilyn Strathern Helen Verran Eduardo Viveiros de Castro Cosplay Frenchy Lunning, 2022-03-15 An exploration of cosplay and its relationship with the realms of its global fandom performance and the modes of fictional existence Flourishing far beyond its Japanese roots cosplay has become an international phenomenon with fervid fans who gather at enormous worldwide conventions annually Here author Frenchy Lunning offers an intimate sensational tour through cosplay s past and present as well as its global lure Through a culmination of years of personal research on cosplay and growing out of Lunning s wealth of scholarship conference presentations and cosplayer interviews Cosplay is a unique and necessary examination of identity performance play and otaku fandom and culture in relation to contemporary theories With discussions covering construction masquerades and community through performance Lunning presents cosplay as a dynamic and ever evolving global practice She combines the fascinating viewpoints of cosplayers with observational in depth research on cosplay history and practice and a deep dive into critical theory involving the modes of fictional existence in order to understand its global expansion Augmented with beautiful photographs this is an engrossing lively read that explores a complicated and often misunderstood history and meditates on how cosplay allows its participants to create and construct meaning and identity Life

Imagines, Environmental Rationality, and Dialogue of Savoirs Enrique Leff, 2024-09-16 Shifting from the idea that our current environmental question arises from the history of metaphysics and its focus on Being over Life and the attendant explorations of the thought of Heidegger and Heraclitus this book unfolds a philosophical and sociological proposal for transitioning toward the sustainability of life With a focus on the imaginaries of life of indigenous peoples it moves from political ecology to a political ontology centered on the territorial cultural and existential rights of various peoples of the Earth Arguing for an environmental rationality founded on three principles the diversity of life a politics of difference and an ethics of otherness it calls for a dialogue of knowledge in a world of manifold worlds for an historical transition toward sustainability of life on our planet It will therefore appeal to scholars of sociology philosophy and political theory working on questions of social and environmental justice sustainability and alternatives to capitalism Algorithmic Culture Before the Internet Ted Striphas, 2023-06-06 Honorable Mention 2024 ngel David Nieves Book Award American Studies Association Digital Humanities Caucus Today algorithms exercise outsize influence on cultural decision making shaping and even reshaping the concept of culture How were automated computational processes empowered to perform this work What forces prompted the emergence of algorithmic culture Algorithmic Culture Before the Internet is a history of how culture and computation came to be entangled From Cambridge England to Cambridge Massachusetts by way of medieval Baghdad this book pinpoints the critical junctures at which algorithmic culture began to coalesce in language long before it materialized in the technological wizardry of Silicon Valley Revising and extending the methodology of keywords Ted Striphas examines changing concepts and definitions of culture including the development of the field of cultural studies and stresses the importance of language in the history of technology Offering historical and interdisciplinary perspective on the relationship of culture and computation this book provides urgently needed context for the algorithmic injustices that beset the world today Opening digital fabrication: transforming TechKnowledgies Schneider, Christoph, 2018-09-05 This study analyses the field of open digital fabrication where novel digital capabilities and hopes for social transformation have merged to form arrangements that seek to democratise knowledge and technology through collaboration Through qualitative social science the study analyses FabLabs and open source technologies and the respective collective procedures that produce and organise technology and knowledge that redefine the entanglement of our society and its technologies Oral Histories of the Internet and the Web Niels Brügger, Gerard Goggin, 2022-10-25 The internet and the web are among the largest human made technological artefacts ever created Many facets of how these inventions came into being have been depicted in books and journal articles about the histories of the internet and the web But the voices of those who took part in the creation and development of these technologies that have changed our culture and societies profoundly have only occasionally found a home Oral Histories of the Internet and the Web brings together a number of interviews with people who in various ways have affected the establishing and evolution of the internet and the web and in contrast to the historical accounts these interviews give a sense of lived and living history The interviews were originally published in the interdisciplinary journal Internet Histories Digital Technology Culture and Society between 2017 and 2022

Body Utopianism Franziska Bork Petersen, 2022-07-04 This book investigates how desires to transform our bodies can bring utopia to the present and how utopian practices often lead to distinctly dystopian or anti utopian outcomes It is the first comprehensive study to address the paradoxical relationship between bodies and utopianism Franziska Bork Petersen discusses doping bodybuilding and cosmetic surgery alongside practices such as retouching the body as image on social media and looks at how fashion modelling and performance estrange the body Techniques and technologies to transform our bodies are increasingly accessible and suggest an excessive identification of the body as lacking To be a body in a culturally meaningful way we incessantly improve our bodily appearance and capacity The book therefore addresses the utopianism inherent in a cultural understanding of bodies as increasingly controllable

Temporal Regimes Felipe Torres, 2021-09-05 Temporal Regimes provides a theoretical framework for understanding the temporal structures of society a conceptually rich empirically nuanced and culturally embodied account of temporal phenomena in contemporary world What does it imply temporal regimes How the everyday life as well as the global mobilities coordination requires temporal underpinnings The answers to these questions mean more than simply understanding the general thesis on acceleration or space time compression on the one hand but also a micro multiple localised time experience by gender class or age on the other They also mean understanding in an integrative way the very structural temporalities within the everyday lived embodied and situated ones They require both a robust and flexible epistemic analysis considering their material bedrock through political and technological forefront dimensions Advancing a rigorous well grounded theoretical understanding and offering a useful way to analytically conceptualise the temporal dynamics on our societies this book will be of interest to advanced students and scholars enquiring a rich set of topics ranging from time and politics new materialism conceptual history as well as technology collective action and social change

Pedagogies of Taking Care Dennis Atkinson, 2022-06-30 This book traces the notion of care and civic values in education that are largely devalued today by neoliberal economic concerns Through a discussion of educators and philosophers including Arendt Foucault Guattari Patocka Simondon Stengers and Whitehead Atkinson explores the gift of otherness in relation to an ethico politics of pedagogic practice and learning including art education He argues for pedagogical practices that facilitate and support each learner s pathways through what is called a pedagogy of taking care This involves paying due attention with empathy to each learner s pathway of learning and to the difference and divergence of such pathways It also requires the teacher to take care to be vigilant towards their own pedagogical frameworks that inform pedagogical work particularly when a student or child produces work that does not accord with such frameworks Atkinson not only critiques current educational policy but advocates possible futures of being not dominated by the neoliberal tools of force and power Pedagogies of taking care allow us to think differently about education and art education and reevaluate its meaning within research classrooms non formal contexts of education and cultural institutions Engagements with Contemporary Literary and Critical Theory Evan Gottlieb,2019-10-16

Engagements with Contemporary Literary and Critical Theory is a wide ranging but accessible introduction to the key thinkers and theories integral to the study of literature Organized thematically the book provides historical introductions and uses a variety of relevant contemporary examples to illuminate the field Evan Gottlieb contextualizes the latest developments with regard to forms discourses subjectivities and embodiments media networks and machines and animals affects objects and environments Each chapter elucidates its concepts through in depth discussions of major contemporary theorists including Giorgio Agamben Sara Ahmed and Catherine Malabou and uses engaging examples from a canonical novel a contemporary text and a new media artifact to demonstrate theoretical applications Additional text boxes regularly introduce emerging or overlooked theorists of interest including Fred Moten and Sianne Ngai An ideal guide for students of literary and critical theory this book will give readers the background they need to continue their own explorations of this vibrant field of study Couplets Brian Massumi,2021-08-09 In Couplets Brian Massumi presents twenty four essays that represent the full spectrum of his work during the past thirty years Conceived as a companion volume to Parables for the Virtual Couplets addresses the key concepts of Parables from different angles and contextualizes them allowing their stakes to be more fully felt Rather than organizing the essays chronologically or by topic Massumi pairs them into couplets to encourage readers to make connections across conventional subject matter categories to encounter disjunctions and to link different phases in the evolution of his work In his analyses of topics ranging from art affect and architecture to media theory political theory and the philosophy of experience Massumi charts a field on which a family of conceptual problems plays out in ways that bear on the potentials for acting and perceiving the world As an essential guide to Massumi's oeuvre Couplets is both a primer for his new readers and a supplemental resource for those already engaged with his thought

Human Perception and Digital Information Technologies Tomoko Tamari,2024-02-29 This ground breaking collection explores the ways in which digital information technologies form and influence human perception and experience Defying technological determinism it takes on board discursive perspectives from humanities bringing digital media affect and body studies into conversation with one another The Theory of Educational Technology Rupert Wegerif,Louis Major,2023-12-22

Educational technology is controversial some see it as essential to providing free global learning others view it as a dangerous distraction that undermines good education In both instances most theories that have previously been applied to educational technology do not account for the distinctive nature and vast potential of technology This book addresses this issue exploring how education has been bound up with technology from the beginning and recognising that educational aims have already been shaped by technologies Offering a dialogic theory of educational technology Rupert Wegerif and Louis Major respond to contemporary challenges to education within this book including but not limited to climate change

misinformation on the internet and the impact of Artificial Intelligence Chapters introduce discuss and contextualise key theories and illustrate through case studies their uses within a diverse range of educational contexts spanning from primary education to adult lifelong learning Each chapter also concludes with a short summary demonstrating how these theories translate to practical implications for design A fascinating response to current developments in educational technology this is a crucial read for all involved in creating researching or making decisions about the use of technologies within educational contexts

New Directions in Philosophy and Literature Rudrum David Rudrum,2019-08-22 This forward thinking non traditional reference work uniquely maps out how new developments in 21st century philosophy are entering into dialogue with the study of literature Going beyond the familiar methods of analytic philosophy and with a breadth greater than traditional literary theory this collection looks at the profound consequences of the interaction between philosophy and literature for questions of ethics politics subjectivity materiality reality and the nature of the contemporary itself

The Noise in Noise Miguel Prado Casanova,2023-11-20 This book aims to thoroughly examine noise s conceptual potencies and explore and amplify its epistemic consequences The author explores the prospect of different contextures of a present made volatile by noise In a moment when our species exhibits the capacity of global scale coordination and the design of robust adaptable social systems we need to review the way in which we can harness uncertainty randomness and noise This philosophical work is informed by many different fields of contemporary science in order to assess and highlight the problems of the metascientific and ideological foundations of diverse projects of prediction and control of uncertainty This conveys an analysis of how contemporary prediction technologies are dramatically transforming our relationship with the future and with uncertainty in a great number of our social structures
