Localization is a manifesto to unite all those who recognize the importance of cultural social and ecological diversity for our future and who do not aspire to a monolithic global consumer culture. It is a passionate and persuasive polemic challenging the claims that we have to be internationally competitive to survive and describing the destructive consequences of globalization. This book is unique in going beyond simply criticizing free trade and globalization trends. It details self-reinforcing policies to create local self-sufficiency and shows clearly that there is an alternative to globalization to protect the local globally.

International Human Rights Law in a Global Context Felipe Gómez Isa, Koen de Feyter, 2009-01-01. The international human rights system remains as dynamic as ever. If at the end of the last century there was a sense that the normative and institutional development of the system had been completed and that the emphasis should shift to issues of implementation, nothing of the sort occurred. Even over the last few years, significant changes happened as this book amply demonstrates. We hope that this Manual makes a contribution to the development of International Human Rights Law and is of interest for those working in the field of promotion and protection of human rights. The book is the result of a joint project under the auspices of HumanitarianNet, a Thematic Network led by the University of Deusto and the European Inter-University Centre for Human Rights and Democratisation (EIUC) Venice.

Fourth International Handbook of Globalisation, Education and Policy Research Joseph Zajda, 2024-12-04. This handbook provides a global synthesis of on-going research in education and policy change during the last decade. It examines discourses of globalisation from the perspectives of the global North and global South. Major theories of globalisation and education policy reforms employed in the handbook are classified into two broad categories: structuralist and post-structuralist. The handbook, while examining the impact of global trends in different societies, cultures, and educational settings, attempts to synthesise different meta-theories of globalisation and their impact on societies and educational systems. It discusses the continued interaction of global, national, and local forces and influences, especially the importance of standards and quality-driven education reforms, the need to overcome inequality of access to quality schools, and aims at providing quality education for all students. In addition, the impact of neo-liberal ideology on education is examined in terms of its impact on ongoing standards-driven education reforms globally. The handbook analyses neo-liberalism in education and its focus on increasing global competitiveness, accountability, efficiency, quality standards, driven
