Williams,2010-02-15 Demystifying Meaningful Coincidences Synchronicities The Evolving Self the Personal Unconscious and the Creative Process offers an original theory of the nature of meaningful coincidences synchronicities and their practical use from a naturalistic nonsupernatural and non Jungian perspective The findings are the outgrowth of Gibbs A Williams s forty year investigation both as a professional observer of some of his synchronicity prone patients receiving psychoanalytic psychotherapy as well as of his own intimate experience of these intellectually challenging and emotionally powerful occurrences His naturalistic perspective is in marked contrast to the findings of Jung and his followers who view these odd events as channeled messages from a transcendent realm of spiritual reality Instead Williams concludes that meaningful coincidences are the surface manifestations of an individual s unique creative process accommodating the best available resolution of a problem for a person initially feeling stuck in a seemingly intractable dilemma While his analysis robs the magic associated with only reacting to the numinous uncanny aura associated with synchronicities it nevertheless affirms a wondrous appreciation for the creative capacities of each person to order his or her own chaos Readers are treated to a rich mine of historical data novel concepts and theoretical insights drawn from speculative philosophy depth psychology and esoteric occult and spiritual traditions and they are shown how to decode their own synchronicities in order to be able to use their embedded messages for increased self awareness cohesiveness and expanding consciousness

Babies for Sale? Miranda Davies, 2017-03-15 Transnational surrogacy the creation of babies across borders has become big business Globalization reproductive technologies new family formations and rising infertility are combining to produce a quiet revolution in social and medical ethics and the nature of parenthood Whereas much of the current scholarship has focused on the US and India this groundbreaking anthology offers a far wider perspective Featuring contributions from over thirty activists and scholars from a range of countries and disciplines this collection offers the first genuinely international study of transnational surrogacy Its innovative bottom up approach rooted in feminist perspectives gives due prominence to the voices of those most affected by the global surrogacy chain namely the surrogate mothers donors prospective parents and the children themselves Through case studies ranging from Israel to Mexico the book outlines the forces that are driving the growth of transnational surrogacy as well as its implications for feminism human rights motherhood and masculinity

Deaconesses, the Ordination of Women and Orthodox Theology Eleni Kasselouri-Hatzivassiliadi, Niki Papageorgiou, Petros Vassiliadis, 2018-06-11 This collection of essays highlights the thorny and divisive issue of the admission of women into the sacramental diaconal priesthood of the Christian Church from the Orthodox theological perspective The contributions here stem from scientific papers presented at an international conference titled

Deaconesses Ordination of Women and Orthodox Theology organized in Thessaloniki Greece in 2015 by the Center of Ecumenical Missiological and Environmental Studies CEMES They cover almost all the fields of biblical liturgical patristic systematic canonical and historical theology The volume s main focus is the ancient order of deaconesses in connection with the overall issue of the ordination of women Although most papers address the issues from an Orthodox perspective their sober analysis can provide theological argumentation for the wider Christian community both the Churches and Christian denominations that exclude women from the sacramental priesthood and those that have already adopted their ordination

Trolling Before the Internet David Rudrum, 2024-11-14 Trolling began long before the internet This accessible history traces the ancestry of its textual and rhetorical strategies by looking at literature from ancient Greece to the 1980s Trolling is the most controversial genre of writing to have risen to prominence in the 21st century with far reaching consequences for its writers and readers alike But it is too often regarded as a technological problem confined to the internet This book takes a very different approach it regards trolling as a cultural problem with a long and venerable literary history Taking in the contrarianism of Lord Byron the wit of Oscar Wilde insult trading in Shakespeare Jonathan Swift s disaster trolling Martin Luther s dissemination of heresy through a public discussion forum the grotesquely misogynistic abuse hurled in Archilochus s poetry the taunting provocations of avant garde manifestos and not forgetting public humiliations in Beowulf David Rudrum demonstrates that trolls rhetorical shenanigans are neither new nor unvanquishable Revisiting the Nomadic Subject Maria Tamboukou, 2021-10-27 This book follows the stories of forcefully displaced women and raises the question of whether we can still use the figuration of the nomadic subject in feminist theories and politics This question is examined in the light of the ongoing global crises of mobility and severe border practices In recounting their stories migrant and refugee women appear in the world as who they are unique and unrepeatable human beings and not as what they are objectified refugees victims or stateless subjects Women s stories leave traces of their will to rewrite their exclusion from oppressive regimes defend their choice of civil and patriarchal disobedience grasp their passage claim their right to have rights and affirm their determination for new beginnings What emerges from the encounter between theoretical abstractions and women s lived experiences is the need to decolonize feminist theories and make cartographies of mobility assemblages wherein nomadism is a component of entangled relations and not a category or a figuration of a subject position These stories that have now been collected transcribed and analysed they have created a rich archive of uprooted women s experiences and have brought forward a wide range of new ideas that will be presented and discussed in the book Decolonizing feminist theory Mobility assemblages and geographies of nomadism The art of listening to fragmented narratives and the labour of translation Crossing borders and inhabiting borderlands Radical solitude and radical hope Feminist genealogies of labour under conditions of forced displacement The force of political narratives through the figure of Antigone Education for hope Imagining the non nomad 4 narrated stories will also be presented in full interwoven in the theoretical discussions of the book thus opening up a dialogic space between theoretical reflections and diffractions and narratives of lived experiences
