One Day at a Time Michael Shanks,2020-12-23 During my college days I briefly worked at a car parts warehouse One night when we were closing I got locked inside the large dirty basement of that warehouse The lights shut off and no one knew that I was down below In an instant everything was pitch black It took me nearly an hour to find the stairs back up to the main floor When I made it up the steps I accidentally set off the building s alarm system Believe me it was a very loud system Scared and embarrassed I finally decided to call 911 Moments later a manager arrived and unlocked the building I was so happy that I was not led away in handcuffs As sure as being stuck in a dark basement is no fun living life in the dark is no fun either That s why it s so important to devote ourselves to the reading of the Bible In Psalm 119 105 we learn that Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path Without God s Word we cannot see where we need to go
