Once I Was Cool Personal Essays:

Once I Was Cool Megan Stielstra, 2021-08-15 Once I Was Cool contrasts past aspirations with the mess and magic of the present In her younger days essayist Megan Stielstra saw Jane s Addiction at the Aragon Ballroom and fantasized about living on the same block right in the thick of music and revelry As an adult she lives in a turreted condo across the street with her husband a child and an onerous mortgage It s just the home her young cool self imagined And it isn t what she expected either With conversational flourishes and on the mark descriptions Stielstra s essays evoke the richness of her everyday life and the memories that are never far away She remembers learning how to shoot a gun a cancer scare and in a piece that was anthologized in The Best American Essays 2013 the time she eavesdropped on another new mother using her son s baby monitor I shouldn t have listened she writes But it was the first time since my son was born that I didn t feel alone Combining footnotes electric sentences and uproariously funny anecdotes have you ever run into an ex while rolling on ecstasy Stielstra shows us that maturity is demanding but its rewards are a gift

The Essays Only You Can Write Irene Papoulis, 2023-10-17 The Essays Only You Can Write offers a perspective on essay writing that spotlights a writer s uniqueness Resisting the perception that personal and academic writing are at odds with one another it treats the impulse to write personally as potential fuel for a variety of writing purposes The book encourages students to think like academics pursuing their enthusiasms trusting their ideas and questioning their conclusions by leading them through three main writing assignments a personal essay an essay based on texts and a research essay Each chapter offers exercises and strategies for various stages in the pre writing drafting and revision processes Freewriting extensive attention to planning devising a structure and order of ideas that both promote and reflect engagement with a topic developing rhetorical awareness and knowledge of conventions and an advocacy for expressive socially responsible writing all are central elements of the text's instruction. By acknowledging the emotions inherent in the writing process many of which can muddle thinking I don't want anyone to see this what if I make mistakes what if the writing isn't good I don't want to be critiqued etc Papoulis helps beginning college writers to navigate the psychological as well as the technical roadblocks that can get in the way of their best personal and academic writing

Covering Your Campus Matt Nesvisky, 2008 Newsrooms and campus newsrooms are no exception are chaotic fast paced and lively That's why we love them But reporting news is an important business and everyone involved in that business needs some guidance and structure Covering Your Campus provides the advice rules guidelines and encouragement that every campus newspaper staff needs without talking down to students or telling them what to do The reporters and editors of campus newspapers aren't yet professional journalists but courts have determined that student journalists share the rights and responsibilities of professionals just as much as campus newspapers are genuine community publications Laying down the foundation for a healthy publication Covering Your Campus further helps guide students toward making their newspapers and websites even more indispensable to their campus community life Its aim which it shares with the student journalists it addresses is to make the news opinions and entertainment offered in student publications reliable and highly esteemed

Effective Frontline Fundraising Jeff Stauch, 2012-01-31 Today nearly every charitable nonprofit advocacy group professional group and politician relies on the philanthropy of others Whether it's a private college a hospital or museum a lobbying group or a local low budget food shelf operational and marketing costs and capital investments are often largely underwritten through the generous support of donors Nonprofits need some people to write 25 checks on a regular basis and they need others to make six figure pledges The bad news Since the economic collapse of 2008 getting people to part with precious dollars has become ever more difficult The good news is that people are still inclined to be generous to organizations causes and candidates they believe in Effective Frontline Fundraising provides the information you ll need to set up and manage an effective development team capable of consistently raising gifts both large and small Effective Frontline Fundraising will not only teach those skills for getting the gift you want in the short run but it will also show how to build a meaningful long lasting relationship between your organization and your donor base This book Shows how to keep that organizational lifeblood cash running through your vital operations Explains how to create a firm foundation from which to solicit funds Provides examples of successful and unsuccessful fundraising messages and plans Teaches you how to ask confidently for gifts from 25 to 1 000 000 or more On Anthologies Jeffrey R. Di Leo,2004-01-01 Over the course of the past twenty five years anthologies have shifted from playing a relatively minor role in academic culture to a position of dominance The essays in this collection explore the significant intellectual economic political pedagogical and creative resonance of anthologies through all levels of academic life They show that anthologies have consequences and are grounded in commitments Striving to articulate these consequences and commitments is a priority in higher education today Most of the contributors to this volume are editors of anthologies and they draw on personal experiences to provide a rare glimpse into the economics and logic of anthology publication Their essays illustrate the ways in which editing an anthology involves negotiation and compromise between intellectual ideal and realistic practice On Anthologies includes discussion of a wide range of anthologies used and produced by teachers and scholars Though the emphasis is on literature and theory anthologies the insights in this volume speak to professionals in all areas of academic life Collectively these essays establish the foundation for continuing critical analysis of anthology production and consumption in all disciplines Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier,2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Dictionary of American Biography ,1929 The Spectator ,1889 Some of My Best Friends Tajja Isen,2022-04-19 A fearless funny poignant and super smart Ms magazine essay collection about race justice and the limits of good intentions In this inspiring determined work of personal narrative and cultural criticism Saeed Jones author of How We Fight for Our Lives essayist and award winning voice actor Tajja Isen explores the absurdity of living in a world that has grown fluent in the language of social justice but doesn t always follow through These nine daring essays explore the sometimes troubling and often awkward nature of that discord Some of My Best Friends takes on subjects including the cartoon industry s pivot away from colorblind casting the pursuit of diverse representation in the literary world the law's refusal to see inequality and the cozy fictions of nationalism Throughout Isen shows a bracing willingness to tackle sensitive issues that others often sweep under a rug Kirkus Reviews starred review In the spirit of Zadie Smith Cathy Park Hong and Jia Tolentino Isen interlaces cultural criticism with her lived experience to explore the gaps between what we say and what we do what we do and what we value what we value and what we demand From Me to We Jason Griffith,2016-08-19 With this practical book you'll learn effective ways to engage students in reading and writing by teaching them narrative nonfiction By engaging adolescents in narrative literary or creative nonfiction they can cultivate a greater understanding of themselves the world around them and what it means to feel empathy for others This book will guide you to first structure a reading unit around a narrative nonfiction text and then develop lessons and activities for students to craft their own personal essays Topics include Engaging your students in the reading of a nonfiction narrative with collaborative chapter notes empathy check ins and a mini research paper to deepen students understanding Helping your students identify meaningful life events recount their experiences creatively and construct effective opening and closing lines for their personal essays Encouraging your students to use dialogue outside research and a clear plot structure to make their narrative nonfiction more compelling and polished The strategies in this book are supplemented by examples of student work and snapshots from the author's own classroom The book also includes interviews with narrative nonfiction writers MK Asante and Johanna Bear The appendices offer additional tips for using narrative nonfiction in English class text and online resources for teaching narrative nonfiction and a correlation chart between the activities in this book and the Common Core Standards Auto/Biography across the Americas Ricia A. Chansky,2016-08-05 Auto biographical narratives of the Americas are marked by the underlying themes of movement and belonging This collection proposes that the impact of the historic or contemporary movement of peoples to in and from the Americas whether chosen or forced motivates the ways in which identities are constructed in this contested space Such movement results in a cyclical quest to belong and to understand belonging that reverberates through narratives of the Americas The volume brings together essays written from diverse national cultural linguistic and disciplinary perspectives to trace these transnational motifs in life writing across the Americas Drawing on international scholars from the seemingly disparate regions of the Americas North America the Caribbean and Latin America this book extends critical theories of life writing beyond limiting national boundaries The scholarship included approaches narrative inquiry from the fields of literature linguistics history art history sociology anthropology political science pedagogy gender studies critical race studies and indigenous studies As a whole this volume advances discourse in auto biography studies life writing and identity studies by locating transnational themes in narratives of the Americas and placing them in international and interdisciplinary conversations Humanities ,2002 The Essay in American Literature Adaline May Conway,1914 Handbook of Research on Advising and Developing the Pre-Health Professional Student Schwartz, Lisa

S., Ganjoo, Rohini, 2022-04-29 Despite significant demand for healthcare professionals in the workforce admission to health professional graduate programs is highly competitive with less than half of all medical school applicants gaining admission annually The application process is nuanced complex and costly which can often be a significant barrier to otherwise highly qualified students particularly those from backgrounds underrepresented in the healthcare workforce Further understanding of the best practices in navigating the application processes academia and professional development is crucial for those advising pre health students The Handbook of Research on Advising and Developing the Pre Health Professional Student considers current practices and research regarding academic and extracurricular preparation of undergraduate students who wish to enter health professions and offers new pre health professional advisors as well as more seasoned advisors and other administrators a resource to assist them in their professional journey Covering a range of topics such as advisor relationships and lifelong learning skills this major reference work is ideal for advisors healthcare professionals academicians researchers practitioners scholars instructors and students Essay on National Pride Johann Georg Zimmermann, 1797

Not Funny Jena Friedman, 2024-05-07 Friedman's debut collection Not Funny takes on the third rails of modern life in Jena's bold and subversive style with essays that explore cancel culture sexism work celebrity worship and dead baby jokes In a moment where women's rights are being rolled back fascism is on the rise and so many of us could use a breather as we struggle to get by Jena applies her unique gifts to pull a laugh from things deemed too raw too precious and too scary to joke about She shares her stories of taking on those who told her she was too brash too edgy and too unlikable to make it She deftly dissects how we get coerced into silence on the issues that matter most until they've gone too far afield to be turned back around again And she shares her struggles to make it in a world that more often than not would rather tune out than listen to a woman confronting the indignities we've been told to bear Dust jacket flap The Law School Buzz Book Carolyn C. Wise, 2006 Most law school guides offer school reported stats to admission rates average test scores etc No publisher understands insider information like Vault now Vault brings this expertise to law schools Unlike other law school resources Vault's guide includes insider information about employment and admissions The Global African Omari H. Kokole, 1998 Anticipating the auspicious convergence of his 60th birthday and the 30th anniversary of his professorial debut Ali A Mazrui's students friends and colleagues seized the opportunity to critically assess the significance of the prodigious body of scholarship affectionately dubbed Mazruiana In November 1992 in Seattle Washington four panels devoted exclusively to Mazruiana were convened at the annual meetings of the African Studies Association with the added attraction of Mazrui's attendance at the convocation and his immediate personal response to the original papers presented there While no single volume could do justice to Mazrui's colossal literary output here at least is gathered the collective investigative insight of a team of well informed critics into select salient facets of this provocative but stimulating literary and intellectual phenomenon The long list of contributors to this Festschrift includes John W Harbeson Dunstan M Wai Darryl C Thomas
