

Maggie's story

Maggie was oscillating between both the loss orientated (LO) process and the restoration orientated (RO) process within the dual process model.

She explains how it's worse now at 4 months as the shock has worn off, and she mentions 'everyone expects her to get on with it', she is getting on, she takes the kids to school, keeps the house going, she's sorted out probate and the pension. She is currently in the RO as she is attending to life changes, but she soon oscillates to the (LO) process. She goes on to mention she tries to keep herself busy of an evening, otherwise she will miss her husband, this is an intrusion of grief within the (LO) process.

She mentions she had to sign 'widow' on a form, and she felt hurt, this was another intrusion of grief, but she was also in the (RO) process as she was using her new identity.

She mentions she went to the cinema with a friend, had a lovely time and really laughed so was in the (RO) process, but she felt guilty for having a good time. So she had dipped back into the (LO) process.

She also mentions how they always used to go to a club with a group of friends, and how they have invited her, but she says how they all have partners and she would stick out like a sore thumb. She is in the (LO) process here as she is allowing intrusion of grief and avoiding restoration.

She said about how angry she feels at times, and how she hates her self at times. She ends this with 'I'm horrible aren't I?' its as if she seeks clarification from the person she is talking too. She does this on several occasions, 'of course you have to go on for the children, don't you?', 'stupid isn't it?'. 'but you cant, can you?'. This is not only confusion as Maggie suddenly has had her whole world turned upside down. She's suddenly now alone, new identity, new job roles etc, all part of the grieving process I believe. It makes her question herself, everything she does, her actions etc?

Cycle of Lives David Richman, 2020-10-06 Have you ever been forced to consider the fact of your mortality If confronted with cancer how would you feel What would you say to the people you love What would they say to you No two people have the same answers to these questions a lesson I learned well during a solo six week 5 000 mile cross country bike ride I called Cycle of Lives The trip started as a fundraiser in honor of my sister June who died of brain cancer But long before I even set out on my endurance ride from L A to Florida to N Y I exhaustively interviewed fifteen people across the country whose lives had also been irrevocably changed by cancer either as patients survivors loved ones or caregivers Hearing their moving stories which were influenced by many different forms of past and present trauma transformed my cycling odyssey into a journey of emotional self discovery as I relived the chaos and emotional upheaval of cancer through them from the man who found true love after losing his soulmate to cancer to the elite athlete who had to reckon with his all star body finally letting him down to the medical oncologist who cares as much about her patients as she cares for them Whether you or someone you care about is going through cancer or some other major trauma I hope this thought provoking collection of astonishing stories can help you too
