Ferrara,2020-08-10 As humans re negotiate their boundaries with the nonhuman world of animals inanimate entities and technological artefacts new identities are formed and a new epistemological and ethical approach to reality is needed

Through twelve thought provoking scholarly essays this volume analyzes works by a range of modern and contemporary Italian authors from Giacomo Leopardi to Elena Ferrante who have captured the shift from anthropocentrism and postmodernism to posthumanism Indeed this is the first academic volume investigating narrative configurations of posthuman identity in Italian literature and film

Ecology and Existence Matthew C. Ally,2017-07-20 This study explores the increasingly troubled relationship between humankind and the Earth with the help of a simple example and a complicated interlocutor The example is a pond which it turns out is not so simple as it seems The interlocutor is Jean Paul Sartre novelist playwright biographer philosopher and despite his several disavowals doyen of twentieth century existentialism Standing with the great humanist at the edge of the pond the author examines contemporary experience in the light of several familiar conceptual pairs nature and culture fact and value reality and imagination human and nonhuman society and ecology Earth and world The theoretical challenge is to reveal the critical complementarity and experiential unity of this family of ideas The practical task is to discern the heuristic implications of this lived unity in diversity in these times of social and ecological crisis Interdisciplinary in its aspirations the study draws upon recent developments in biology and ecology complexity science and systems theory ecological and Marxist economics and environmental history Comprehensive in its engagement of Sartre's oeuvre the study builds upon his best known existentialist writings and also his critique of colonialism voluminous ethical writings early studies of the imaginary and mature dialectical philosophy In addition to overviews of Sartre's distinctive inflections of phenomenology and dialectics and his unique theories of praxis and imagination the study also articulates for the first time Sartre's incipient philosophical ecology In keeping with Sartre's lifelong commitment to freedom and liberation the study concludes with a programmatic look at the relative merits of pragmatist prefigurative and revolutionary activism within the burgeoning global struggle for social and ecological justice We learn much by thinking with Sartre at the water's edge surprising lessons about our changing humanity and how we have come to where we are timely lessons about the shifting relation between us and the broader community of life to which we belong difficult lessons about our brutal degradation of the planetary system upon which life depends and auspicious lessons too about a participatory path forward as we work to preserve a habitable planet and build a livable world for all earthlings

Middle Knowledge John D. Laing,2019-03-21 Most Christians believe God is in control but they are unsure of how to reconcile that control with their struggles with sin the command to evangelize and the immense suffering in the world and their own lives Laing offers an introduction to the doctrine of providence based on the theory of middle knowledge first articulated in the sixteenth century This view describes how creatures have true free will and God has perfect knowledge of what each creature could and would do in any circumstance Middle knowledge helps answer the most perplexing theological questions predestination and salvation the existence of evil divine and human authorship of Scripture and science and the Christian faith Laing provides extensive biblical support as well as practical applications for this theology
